

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

JOURNAL

OF THE

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, GEORGETOWN, MAY 25TH, 1853.

This being the day constitutionally appointed for the meeting of the Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Delaware, a number of Clerical and Lay Delegates assembled in St. Paul's Church, at nine o'clock, A. M.

The Bishop being absent in consequence of indisposition, on motion of the Rev. G. W. Ridgely, the Rev. Samuel C. Brinckle was chosen Chairman. After taking the chair, and calling the Convention to order, the Chairman announced that Dr. J. F. Wilson, the Secretary of the last Convention, had resigned his office, and that the election of a Secretary pro tem. was then in order.

On motion of the Hon. C. S. Layton, the Rev. William H. Brooks was chosen Secretary, pro tem.

A list of the Clergy entitled to seats in this Convention was called over by the Secretary pro tem., and the following gentlemen answered to their names :

Reverend Breed Batcheller,

" Thomas F. Billopp,

" Samuel C. Brinckle,

" William H. Brooks,

" Samuel T. Carpenter,

" Greenbury W. Ridgely.

The Chair appointed the Rev. S. T. Carpenter and Mr. Alexis I. du Pont a committee to receive and examine the certificates of Lay Delegates.

Of those reported by this Committee, as having been duly elected, the following answered to their names, and took seats in the Convention:

William C. Lodge,	Alexis I. du Pont,	Theodore C. Hurd,
Richard Brindley,	Hon. C. S. Layton,	Solomon M. Curtis,

David I. Cummins,	H. H. J. Naff,	William T. Read,
Robert C. Justis,	William Guthrie,	Samuel Baily.
Walter E. Mitchell,	John B. Lewis,

The Convention proceeded to the election of a Secretary. Mr. Samuel Baily nominated the Rev. William H. Brooks. Messrs. James Stuart and H. H. J. Naff were appointed tellers, and, upon counting the ballots, reported that the Rev. William H. Brooks had been elected. Whereupon the Chair declared the Rev. William H. Brooks to be Secretary of the Convention for the ensuing year.

On motion of the Rev. Thomas F. Billopp, the Rev. William H. Brooks was declared to be unanimously elected.

The House, being fully organized, proceeded to business.

On motion of Mr. William T. Read, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted as the Rules of Order of the present meeting.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The business of every day shall be introduced with prayer.
2. When the President takes the chair no member shall continue standing, nor shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the chair.
3. No member shall absent himself from the service of the house, unless he have leave, or be unable to attend.
4. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
5. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, without leave of the house.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, GEORGETOWN, May 25th, 1853,
2½ o'clock. P. M.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

The minutes of the morning session were read, amended and approved.

The Committee appointed to audit the Treasurer's account, reported, after examining the same, that they found it correct.

Mr. Samuel Kinney and Dr. W. H. White presented their testimonials of election as delegates from Christ Church, Broad Creek, which being referred to the appropriate committee and found correct, the gentlemen answered to their names, and took seats in the Convention.

The Committee on Canons and standing Resolutions presented the following report, which was adopted :

"The Committee on Canons and standing Resolutions to whom was referred by the last Convention the duty to inquire into the expediency of incorporating with the present canons of the Diocese, No. 11 of the proposed canons, entitled "Enquiries, Trials and Penalties," have had this matter under consideration, and beg leave to report :

That, in the opinion of the Committee, the whole subject of this No. 11 of the proposed canons in the Journal of 1841, pp. 17, 18, is sufficiently provided for in Articles 10 and 11 of the Constitution of this Diocese; and that it is therefore unnecessary to make any canonical provision on the subject.

The Committee on Canons, appointed at the Convention of 1851, submitted the following report which was adopted :

The Committee on Canons, appointed at the Convention of 1851 of this Diocese, to whom were referred "the (so called) Standing Resolutions," printed on page 31 of the Journal of 1850, for the purpose of incorporating such of them as they may deem necessary into the Canons and Rules of Order of this Convention," beg leave to present the following, to wit :

I. In relation to the meeting of the Convention alternately in each county that many and striking benefits have resulted from this practice, such as

1. The equalization of the burthens to the Delegates attending the Convention.

2. In creating and continuing a greater degree of interest in and for the Church in those several localities where the Conventions may be alternately held, among the members and friends of the P. E. Church.

3. In awakening an interest and a spirit of inquiry in relation to the Constitution, Doctrines and Discipline of the P. E. Church on the part of our citizens generally, thus more frequently called to witness her deliberations in Convention; heed her ministrations in the sanctuary; and

4. In securing a large, general attendance of the Delegates in Convention—thus very greatly extending intelligence in relation to the government and discipline of the Church among her members and friends.

But as it has been suggested, that this (so called) standing Resolution does, in some degree, conflict with Art. 2 of the Constitution of the Church, (though this conflict is not perceived,) the committee would propose an Amendment to that Art. 2, thus—after the words “in each year,” and before the words “at such places,” insert these words—“alternately in each county in this State.” “Provided, however, that in case of a prevailing contagious disease in the place thus designated; or a domestic insurrection in, or of an invasion of the county so named for holding the Convention, by a public enemy—that the Bishop, with the approbation of the Standing Committee; or the Standing Committee, if there be no Bishop, may appoint such other place for the annual meeting of the Convention, as they may deem expedient; of which change of the place of holding the Convention, due public notice shall be given, and also special notice to the ministers of the several parishes in this State.”

And this (so called) standing Resolution be retained, till the above proposed amendment to Art. 2 of the Constitution be adopted.

II. The following is proposed as Canon XIV of the P. E. Church in this Diocese:

CANON XIV.

Of Elections.

“In all elections, not otherwise provided for and regulated by the Constitution of the P. E. Church in this State, the votes of a majority of all the members present; or, if voting by orders, of a majority of all present of the respective orders, shall be necessary to a choice.”

III. The following is proposed as

The Convention then proceeded to the order of the day, being the election of the Standing Committee, Delegates to the General Convention, and members of the Missionary and Education Committee.

The Rev. George Hall, of the clergy, and Mr. George R. Fisher, of the laity, were appointed tellers to receive and count the ballots for members of the Standing Committee.

The following gentlemen were nominated, and upon counting the ballots, the tellers reported that they had received a majority of the votes of the Convention:

Of the Clergy.

Rev. Breed Batcheller,

" Charles Breck,

" S. C. Brinckle.

Of the Laity.

Mr. Samuel Baily,

" Solomon M. Curtis.

The Chair declared these gentlemen duly elected, as the Standing Committee, for the ensuing year.

The same Tellers were appointed to receive and count the votes for Delegates to the General Convention.

Nominations were made and the House proceeded to ballot. After an examination, the Tellers reported that a majority of the votes of the House had been given in favor of the following gentlemen:

Of the Clergy.

Rev. G. W. Ridgely,

" George Hall,

" S. C. Brinckle.

Of the Laity.

Capt. S. F. du Pont,

Hon. C. S. Layton,

J. F. Burton, Esq.,

Hon. J. J. Milligan.

The Chair declared these gentlemen duly elected Delegates to the next General Convention.

The House proceeded to the election of members of the Missionary and Education Committee,

The Chair appointed the same Tellers to act, who, upon counting the ballots, reported the following gentlemen to have received the votes of the Convention :

Clergy.

Rev. S. T. Carpenter,
" S. C. Brinckle.

Laity.

Dr. J. F. Wilson.
Edward G. Bradford, Esq.

The Chair declared the above named gentlemen duly elected the Missionary and Education Committee for the ensuing year.

The Missionary and Education Committee made their Eleventh Annual Report, as follows:

The Committee, in presenting their eleventh annual report, would beg leave to submit a comprehensive statement of the expenditure for Missions within the Diocese, since the work was recommenced under the present arrangement; and, so far as their information extends, of the results of expenditure and labor.

The means for sustaining this work have been derived from two sources. One is the contributions of our Parishes, forwarded, as required by Canon IX., to the committee; a statement of which has been annually published in their reports to Convention.

The other source is the General Missionary Society of the Church, through the Domestic Committee, New York. The aid of that Committee has been kindly extended to our Diocese since the year 1842; a certain sum being apportioned to the Diocese, to be distributed agreeably to their rules, among the Missionaries, according to the recommendation of the Bishop.

The embarrassments however, under which the Treasury of the Domestic Committee was laboring for a series of years, have been such as to disqualify them from redeeming their pledges, and have occasioned much suffering among those dependent upon them for aid. To obviate this evil the Diocesan Missionary Committee agreed to raise one half the amount due to our own laborers, on condition that the other half be paid by the Domestic Committee without delay. In this way we have been enabled to secure the prompt payment of the promised stipends. The Diocesan Committee have only been enabled to meet this engagement, by the liberal contributions received, as exigency required, from St. Andrew's church, Wilmington.

The whole amount derived from the General Society has been expended in Sussex county, and the adjoining parish of Milford, in Kent county. If any injustice has been done to other parts of the State by this appropriation, we can only plead the strong desire of our Diocesan to revive the decayed Parishes of this section. The whole amount that could be obtained from the above mentioned sources, was no more than was indispensable to provide these churches with the ministrations of the Gospel. To curtail these appropriations would have required, either that the doors of some of them should be closed, or that the district assigned to one laborer, already inconveniently large, should be still more extended. This therefore must be our apology for the concentration of nearly all our efforts upon this portion of our field. The parishes thus aided have been, with slight occasional exceptions, distributed into three districts, as follows :

1. Georgetown, Cedar Creek and Milford.
2. The S. Eastern, comprising Lewes, St. George's, Millsboro' and Baltimore Hundred.
3. The S. Western, comprising Seaford, Broad Creek, Laurel and Little Hill.

From 1843 to 1850 the amount furnished by the General Society was $600 per annum, which was for most of that time equally divided among the three laborers. In October 1849, the New York Committee intimated that it must be reduced after April 1st, 1850, to four hundred dollars. As your committee had been previously aiding our Missionaries to the extent of their means, and those means were not increased by the churches, although the fact was brought to the notice of the Convention in our report of May, 1850, there was no alternative but to diminish to some extent the salaries of the Missionaries.— This was not however done at once to the full extent, your committee continuing for another year to pay their part as before. The diminution was not made alike upon all—the $400 given by the General Society being apportioned, to the Rev. Mr. McKim $150, to Rev. Messrs. Hall and Hoskins $125 each.

The committee believe the following to be a nearly accurate statement of the amounts which have been paid by the N. Y. Committee and themselves, to the different Missionaries who have been from time to time employed, viz : to

Rev. Mr. Franklin, about 3 years,	-	-	-	-	$600 00
" " Long, " 2½ "	-	-	-	-	500 00
" " McKim, " 9½ "	-	-	-	-	1705 25

" " Batcheller,	-	-	-	-	50 00
" " Carpenter,	-	-	-	-	45 81

The expenditure at the different stations has been as follows: at

Georgetown and Milford,	-	-	-	-	1931 25
Lewes, Millsboro', &c.,	-	-	-	-	1565 05
Seaford, Little Hill, &c.,	-	-	-	-	1403 30
Delaware City,	-	-	-	-	200 00
Stanton and Newport,	-	-	-	-	100 00
Dover,	-	-	-	-	45 81

In summing up the results of nearly eleven years effort in this our principal missionary field, we find that the confirmations have been as follows: In the Georgetown and Milford District, 25; S. Eastern District, 31; S. Western District, 89. The number of communicants has in the Georgetown and Milford District, diminished from 40 to 21, in the Lewes, &c. District, increased from 48 to 58; in the Seaford, &c. increased about 50.

In the Georgetown District there has been one church built, and one abandoned. In the Millsboro' District three churches built; one abandoned. In the Seaford District there has been one church finished, one repaired and one built.

The following are the sums contributed by different parishes since the new organization:

St. Andrew's,	-	-	-	-	$2216 07

Your committee have had under consideration the matter referred to them by resolution of the last Convention, relative to the better support of the Parochial Clergy ; but could come to no conclusion with regard to the recommendation of any specific measure.

ALFRED LEE,
S. C. BRINCKLE,
S. T. CARPENTER,
JOHN B. LEWIS,
J. F. WILSON.

On motion of Mr. S. Baily, it was Resolved, That the next convention be held in Trinity church, Wilmington.

The Rev. T. F. Billopp offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention approve of the proposed amendment of Article V. of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A. as agreed upon in General Convention, 1850.

On motion of Mr. William T. Read it was Resolved, That the Protestant Episcopal Historical Society be and is hereby recommended to the patronage and support of churchmen in the Diocese of Delaware.

The bill of Evans & Vernon amounting to $46 for printing Journal of Convention of 1852, and advertising, and the bill of Dr. J. F. Wilson, late Secretary, amounting to $8 50, for expenses officially incurred, were read, and the Treasurer directed to pay the same.

The Hon. C. S. Layton, after reading a communication from the Rev. Corry Chambers, offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention recommend that in the churches of the Diocese of Delaware, collections be taken up in his behalf ; the same to be paid over to the Bishop of the Diocese.²

On motion of Mr. William Hickman it was Resolved, That the Constitution and Canons of the Church in this Diocese, as amended, be printed in the Journal of the Proceedings of this Convention.

On motion of the Rev. George Hall, Grace Church, Baltimore Mills, was excused from contributing to the Convention Fund.

On motion of the Rev. G. W. Ridgely, the Chair appointed the Rev. Messrs. Carpenter and Billopp a Committee to draught, with the advice and approbation of the Bishop, a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, to be presented to the next stated meeting of the General Convention.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Carpenter, the Rev. T. F. Billopp, and the Lay Delegates from Immanuel Church, New Castle, and Trinity Church, Wilmington, were excused from further attendance on the Convention.

The Secretary then read to the Convention the Bishop's Annual Address :

ADDRESS

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

The expiration of another year of official labor calls upon me for a statement of such Episcopal Services as, in the kind Providence of God, I have been permitted to render. The recital of public acts and duties, in a Diocese of such limited extent as our own, is soon made. But the record of anxieties and solitudes, of hopes and fears, of joys and sorrows therein involved, is known only to the Searcher of all hearts. Amid the varied and oft changing experience of the laborer in God's harvest field, its sunlight and its shadows, occasional encouragements and not unfrequent difficulties and disappointments, it is a consolation unspeakable to know that we serve the Lord Christ, and that, if we are not weary in well doing, in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

The account of services performed, which the Canon requires me to render, and of the state of the Diocese is as follows :

C

Churches Visited.

All the parishes have been visited during the year, as will appear by the subjoined statement. On these visitations I have preached for Ascension church, Brandywine Hundred, three times; in Trinity chapel, Wilmington, twice; in Immanuel church, New Castle, once; in Christ church, Christiana Hundred, twice; in St. James' church, Stanton, twice; at Newport, once; in St. Thomas' church, Newark, three times; in Christ church, Delaware City, three times; in St. Ann's church, Appoquinimink, twice; in St. Peter's church, Smyrna, four times; in Christ church, Dover, once; in Christ church, Milford, twice; in Milton, twice; in St. Peter's, Lewes, four times; St. George's, Indian River, twice; St. Paul's, Georgetown, three times; St. Mark's, Millsboro', twice; Long Neck chapel, once; in Grace church, Baltimore Mills, twice; St. John's, Little Hill, twice; Christ church, Broad Creek, once; in St. Philip's chapel, Laurel, twice; in St. Luke's church, Seaford, once; in all, exclusive of St. Andrew's, Wilmington, forty-eight times.

On my visitations I have baptised one adult and one infant at Lewes, two infants at Seaford, and one at Milton. On several occasions I have administered the Holy Communion.

Number of Persons Confirmed.

In Trinity church, Wilmington, 3; in St. Andrew's church, Wilmington, 31; in St. James' church, Stanton, 2; in Christ church, Christiana Hundred, 14; St. Paul's church, Georgetown, 6, one of whom was from St. Luke's, Seaford; Christ church, Delaware City, 2; St. Ann's church, Appoquinimink, 2; St. Peter's church, Smyrna, 2; St. Peter's church, Lewes, 2; Chapel of the Comforter, Long Neck, 2; St. Mark's church, Millsboro', 1; Grace church, Baltimore Mills, 1, in all sixty-eight.

Ordination.

James Albert Harrell, M. D., of the Diocese of North Carolina, was admitted to the Order of Deacons, in St. Andrew's church, Wilmington, on Quinquagesima Sunday, February 6th, 1853. In this ordination I acted at the request of Bishop Whittingham, of Maryland.

Clerical Changes.

The following clergymen have been received into the Diocese since the last Convention : The Rev. William H. Brooks, Deacon, by letter of dismission from Bishop Meade of Virginia, accepted by me, August 11th, 1852; the Rev. Charles Breck, by letter from Bishop Potter of Pennsylvania, accepted January 21st, 1853; the Rev. Richard F. Cadle, by letter from Bishop Hopkins of Vermont, accepted April 13th, 1853.

The following clergymen have taken letters of dismission from the Diocese, viz: The Rev. Edwin M. Van Deusen, to the Diocese of Pennsylvania, October 16th, 1852; the Rev. Walter E. Franklin, to Indiana, November 30th, 1852; the Rev. James W. Hoskins, to North Carolina, December 4th, 1852; the Rev. Lewis P. W. Balch, D. D., to Pennsylvania, April 26th, 1853.

The Rev. Mr. Van Deusen resigned in October last the Rectorship of Trinity Church, Wilmington, and has been succeeded by the Rev. Charles Breck, who entered upon his duties in January, 1853. The Rev. Walter E. Franklin resigned in November last the office of assistant minister of Trinity Church. The Rev. Wm. H. Brooks has accepted the charge of St. Thomas' Church, Newark, and entered upon his duties Sept. 1st, 1852. The Rev. James W. Hoskins resigned his parishes in Sussex county, on the first of January, 1853, and has been succeeded by the Rev. Richard F. Cadle. The Rev. George Hall has resigned the rectorship of St. Peter's Church, Lewes, but retains the charge of his other parishes. The Rev. L. P. W. Balch has resigned the charge of the Parish of Ascension Church, Brandywine Hundred. The Rev. J. L. McKim has resigned Christ Church, Milford, from April 1st, 1853, and given me notice of his intention to relinquish the charge of St. Paul's, Georgetown, after July 1st, 1853. The parishes at present unsupplied are Ascension, and Grace Church, Brandywine Hd., Christ Church, Milford, and St. Peter's, Lewes. There has been no attempt to hold services during the last year in St. Matthew's, Cedar Creek, and that parish has now nothing more than a nominal existence. There is however some prospect for our Church at a point about midway between Georgetown and Milford, where services have been held by the Rev. Mr. McKim with encouraging appearances.

Some progress has been made in the subscription for the erection of Ascension Church, Brandywine Hundred, and I have reason to believe that the commencement of the building will not be much longer delayed. Since the parish has been without a Rector it has been generally supplied by the Rev. G. W. Ridgely.

St. Thomas' Church, Newark, has lost by removal from the Diocese, its estimable and efficient Warden, Edward Garrigues, Esq. The acceptable services of the Rev. W. H. Brooks, and the very desirable addition of a convenient parsonage, encourage, however, the hope of the future improvement and prosperity of this parish. Its members, although few in number, have manifested that zeal, energy and liberality which, under the divine blessing, are almost invariably rewarded with success.

It is gratifying to report that increased and more effectual exertions have been made to free some of our largest parishes from the unfortunate incumbrance of debt. St. Andrew's, Wilmington, is now entirely relieved; a special effort made since the last Convention having been crowned with success. A liberal subscription has been also started in Trinity Church for the same object.

The parishes of Little Hill, Broad Creek and Seaford were vacant from January 1st, the date of resignation of the Rev. Mr. Hoskins, until April, when the Rev. Mr. Cadle entered upon his duties. It is gratifying to me that this extensive, and as I believe promising field, is now under the care of so experienced and well proved a laborer. Many years of Mr. Cadle's ministry have been devoted to the missionary work in the true spirit of Christian self-denial and singleness of purpose, and I hope the best results from the employment of his matured energies in this important district. St. John's Church, Little Hill, has had cause to mourn the removal by death of several of its oldest and most valued communicants. Two in particular of its venerable and aged members, ripened in years and grace, have been translated to that better country which they had long desired.

St. Peter's Church, Smyrna, has also been deprived since we last met, of Jacob Raymond, Esq., a member of our last Convention and a Delegate elect to the next General Convention; a gentleman whose unexpected decease has saddened many hearts, and left a large void in the circle in which he was so highly esteemed.

On the 20th of May, I consecrated to the worship of Almighty God Grace Church, near Baltimore Mills. The building is plain, neat and convenient, of good dimensions and well adapted to the wants of the people in that vicinity. This new effort has thus far been greatly prospered. The attendance on the services of the Missionary, the Rev. George Hall, has been large and encouraging, and the speedy completion of this house of prayer is an earnest of the interest and desire for the ministrations of our Church, on the part of the congregation. If our services here can be regularly and efficiently sustained, we may hope, with God's blessing, to witness the establishment of a flourishing church, and the ingathering of many souls into the fold of Christ.

Being unable through indisposition to preach on this occasion, that duty was performed by the Rev. R. F. Cadle.

With regard to the general condition of the Diocese, I know of nothing very material to be added to the remarks that have been heretofore submitted to you from year to year. There is on the whole an advance and improvement, although not in every portion of the field, nor so rapid and obvious in others as we desire to see. Yet the Lord's hand is not shortened that it cannot save, neither his ear heavy that it cannot hear. And some of our parishes have recently enjoyed very precious and reviving evidence of his Spirit's presence. Let the comfortable gospel of Christ be truly preached, and we may not doubt but that it will be truly received, and truly followed. May the Spirit of grace and supplication be shed down upon us more abundantly, so that we may earnestly call upon the Lord, and he will answer. Let us be faithful to our great Head, and he will not forget or forsake us. Then God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

ALFRED LEE.

On motion of the Hon. O. S. Layton, the Chair appointed the Rev. Charles Breck and Mr. Alexis I. du Pont to fill the vacancies in the Committee on Church Mutual Aid Association.

On motion of the Rev. G. W. Ridgely, the Trustees of the Bishop's Fund were continued.

On motion of the Hon. C. S. Layton, the Committee on the Glebe of Christ Church, Dover, was also continued.

On motion of the Rev. S. T. Carpenter it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to the Wardens and Vestry of St. Paul's Church, and also to the citizens of Georgetown, for their kindness and attention to the members.

On motion of Mr. Samuel Baily, the Treasurer was directed to pay Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the congregation of — Church —, for the courtesy & hospitality extended to its members during the present session; & that the rector of the parish be requested to give publicity to the same in such manner as he may see fit.

the Sexton of St. Paul's Church the usual compensation for his attendance during the session of the Convention.

It was on motion,

Resolved, That after the reading of the Journal, and the usual religious exercises, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The Journal was then read and approved.

After singing the 27th Hymn, and Prayer and Benediction by the Chairman, the Convention adjourned.

Attest,

REMARKS:—The past year has been one of multiplied mercies to this Church, and its conventional report would be incomplete without a thankful and devout recognition of the exceeding goodness of the Lord. His favoring hand has been over us. We trust also that his Holy Spirit has been with us. The Church has been prospered temporally. The incumbrance of debt, which has weighed upon it so heavily for many years, has been, by a liberal and energetic effort of the congregation, entirely removed, and we now owe no other debt than that of Christian love. But infinitely more precious have been God's spiritual mercies. The pastor's heart has been cheered by manifest indications of a genuine work of divine grace, investing the word and ordinances of Christ with unusual solemnity and power, and inclining the hearts of many, chiefly among the young, to welcome a Saviour's grace and consecrate themselves to his service. Our Sunday Schools have now grown to the capacity of our accommodations. From the fact that the supply of willing and punctual teachers is now adequate, there is little doubt that if we had the room the number of scholars might be still very considerably increased. The success of the colored Sunday School has fully equalled the expectations of its founders. Teachers have with great readiness volunteered their aid, and the attendance and interest of the scholars has been steadily improving. The Tract Association has been pursuing its useful and unobtrusive labors, and has recently supplied the County Alms House with tracts, and Prayer books of a large type adapted to the use of the aged. It is our fond hope that through the blessing of God, and the consistent and useful lives of his professed people in this Church, the mercies of the year past may be the earnest of still more abundant grace in years to come.

THOMAS F. BILLOPP, Rector.

TO THE RT. REV. A. LEE, D. D.

I continued to officiate every Sunday afternoon in the School House at Neaman's Creek, for the Parish of the Church of the Ascension, until the first of July. At that time I went to Washington, D. C., and was taken ill. The illness and convalescence lasted several months.

I have resigned the Rectoryship of the Church of the Ascension, Brandywine Hundred.

The subscription towards the erection of a church had progressed very well, and a few hundred dollars in addition to the amounts already subscribed and promised, will pay for a neat and comfortable edifice.

LEWIS P. W. BALCH

REPORT OF REV. G. W. RIDGELY.

I have held regular service during the greater part of the year past at the "Union." For the last few weeks I have been officiating statedly at Naaman's Creek. The attendance is good at both places. A Missionary residing in the midst of the people would soon be able to gather a large congregation at the former. At the latter a Church edifice will probably be erected, under very encouraging auspices, during the ensuing summer and fall.

REMARKS.—It may be mentioned that in addition to the above services, I continue, as heretofore, to assist the Bishop on Sunday mornings; the service at Christ Church being in the afternoon, except on every fourth Sunday, when we have the Communion, in the afternoon of which day I usually hold service in a neighboring school house. May the good Lord who hitherto hath helped us, continue His gracious influences, without which we labor but in vain, who would build the house.

WILLIAM H. BROOKS, Minister.

ST. ANN'S CHURCH, MIDDLETOWN.

Communicants—Removed 1; added 7; present No. 50.

Sunday school, which is usually suspended during the winter, has been reopened; owing to the circumstance that the parishoners mostly reside at a distance from the Church, the school is generally small. There are two well-selected libraries of choice books, one for the Parish, and the other for the Sunday School.

REMARKS.—Since the last report, the Rectory has been completed, and the Rector has entered on its occupancy. Notwithstanding the unfaithfulness of the Contractor, in neglecting to carry out the details and specifications of the plan, the building reflects great credit on the architect, Mr. John Notman of Philadelphia. It is universally admired, both as a most commodious and tasteful specimen of cottage architecture. Its location could not have been more fitly chosen. At the recent visitation of the Bishop of the Diocese, a brother clergyman said, "It almost seems as if this spot had been intended for the Rectory." Thus, the object and enterprise of the "Ladies Sewing Circle" of this Parish, which has been so long entertained, has been carried to a successful issue. To God be all the praise.

Communicants—Died 1, Added 2, Present No. 5.

The Sunday school has not yet been resumed this spring for want of teachers. An effort will, however, be made on the last Sunday of this month (May.)

REMARKS.—The Rector of this Parish continues to officiate here on every Sunday afternoon; the former part of the day being devoted to St. Ann's Church. A debt on the building of between five and six hundred dollars remains unliquidated, and is felt as a serious inconvenience to a Parish of such small means. But our trust is in God, who can control the hearts and wills of such as are able to give to those who need.

REMARKS.—Sunday Services as usual in the morning. The Bible class was continued during the winter with encouraging success. Our week-day services were dropt from want of encouragement. In external prosperity there has been apparently some advancement, by the blessing of God. The system of renting the pews for the last two years has done well. The amount of salary has been more than doubled, since it was commenced. There has been a considerable increase of the regular congregation. The number of communicants has more than trebled, in the last three years. There is now an earnest need of an enlargement of the church.

SAMUEL TONKIN CARPENTER.

CHRIST CHURCH, DOVER.—The Lord's Supper has been celebrated for the first time, after many years of neglect, in this venerable Parish, to 4 communicants. Some farther additions to the friends of the church have been made by removals into the Parish. Regular services have been continued every Sunday afternoon during the winter, but the appointments for the present are but once in two weeks. Collections have been made a few times as authorized by the Missionary Committee, for the support of the Missionary, which have amounted to $4 93. About $45 have been expended in repairs and improvements upon the church edifice.

RICHARD F. CADLE.

TO THE RIGHT REV.

the Bishop of the Diocese of Delaware.

The undersigned would respectfully report that during the last Diocesan year he has been engaged in performing services in Pennsylvania and Rhode Island. In the former, he was, from Trinity Sunday until the fall, in charge of the Church of the Nativity, Philadelphia; since then he has been officiating in the Diocese of Rhode Island, and is now in charge of St. Michael's church, Bristol, R. I.

WM. H. TRAPNELL.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:

I have but seldom been called upon for any clerical services during the past year. I have occasionally assisted Mr. Hall. The months of November and December were passed at St. Augustine, Florida, where I officiated regularly in Trinity Church; their pastor being disabled by sickness.

CONSTITUTION
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH,
IN THE
State of Delaware.

ARTICLE I.

Of acceding to the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention.

This Church, as a constituent part of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, accedes to, recognizes and adopts the general Constitution of that Church, and acknowledges its authority accordingly.

ARTICLE II.

Of the Meetings of the Diocesan Convention.

The Annual Convention of this Diocese shall be held on the last Wednesday in May, in each year, at such place as a previous Convention may designate. The time of meeting may be altered, from time to time, by the Convention. And special Conventions may be called by the Bishop, or, if there be none, by the Standing Committee; one month's previous notice being given.

ARTICLE III.

Of Members of the Convention.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly settled in some congregation in this Diocese; and of Lay Members, consisting of two Delegates from each congregation, to be chosen by the Vestry thereof; or, if there be no Vestry, by the congregation. And clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese, who are engaged as Professors, or Instructors of youth, in any Diocesan Institution, or in any Academy or Seminary of learning, officially recommended by the Bishop of the Diocese, or, if there be no Bishop, by the Standing Committee; and also Missionaries, under the ecclesiastical authority of this Diocese, and Chaplains in the Navy or Army of the United States, may be members of the Convention.

Provided, that all such Parochial Clergymen shall have been actually and personally resident, within this State, for not less than six calendar months, next before the meeting of the Convention, and that all such clergymen, engaged in the work of instruction only, and Chaplains, shall have been actually and personally resident in this State, not less than twelve calendar months, next before such meeting.

The Bishop and the Assistant Bishop, when there is one, whether belonging to this Diocese, or having charge of it provisionally, shall have a seat and vote in the Convention; and one of them shall preside. If there be none, the Convention shall elect for its President one of the Presbyters attending.

No Clergyman of advanced years, or infirm health, who has been once entitled to a seat in the Convention, shall lose his right thereto by reason of having ceased from the active duties of his calling.

ARTICLE IV.

Of a Quorum.

Two members of the clerical, and six of the lay order, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn.

ARTICLE V.

Of the deliberations of the Convention.

In all matters that shall come before the Convention, the clergy and laity shall deliberate in one body: but if upon any question, it be required by two members, the two orders shall vote separately; (the lay delegation from each parish being entitled to but one vote, when required by the delegates of two parishes,) and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to give validity to any measure.

ARTICLE VI.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

A Secretary shall be chosen, immediately upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, by a joint ballot, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, to publish the annual Journal under the supervision of the Bishop, or presiding officer of the Convention, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of each Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal. He shall also transmit to every General Convention a certificate signed by himself, containing a list of the clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid, or secured to be paid, (distinguishing them,) to the General Theological Seminary; and also a like certificate of the appointment of clerical and lay deputies. It shall also be his duty to give at least one month's notice, in one or more newspapers published in this State, of the time and place of holding every Convention, whether stated or special.

When a vacancy occurs, during the recess of Convention, in the office of Secretary, the Secretary of the Standing Committee shall perform the duties of the office, until the next meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

Of the Opening of the Convention.

Every Convention shall be opened by the celebration of divine service, and of the Lord's Supper. And it shall be the duty of the Bishop, either to deliver a charge or sermon, or to appoint one of his Clergy to preach, at the opening of the Convention. If there be no Bishop, or none having provisional charge of the Diocese, the Standing Committee shall appoint the preacher.

ARTICLE VIII.

Of the Standing Committee.

Before the adjournment of each Annual Convention a Standing Committee shall be appointed, by a concurrent ballot of both orders, which shall consist of three of the clergy, and two of the laity. This committee shall continue in office till the end of the next Annual Convention, or until their successors are duly appointed. In case of a vacancy occurring, by death or otherwise, the remaining members of the committee, shall, by ballot, supply the same. The Standing Committee shall, as soon as may be after their appointment, elect from their own body a president and secretary; and if either of these offices become vacant, the vacancy shall, without delay, be filled by another election. The president shall be a presbyter.

ARTICLE IX.

Of the Election of a Bishop.

The election of a Bishop of this Diocese shall be made in Convention, in the following manner. The order of the clergy shall nominate and appoint, by ballot, some fit and qualified presbyter for that office; and the votes of two-thirds of that order shall be requisite to constitute a choice: and thereupon, such appointment shall be presented to the order of lay delegates, and be considered by them; and if, on a ballot it should appear that the person so nominated be approved of by two-thirds of the lay order, he shall then be declared to be duly elected. And upon a vacancy occurring in the Episcopal Office in this Church, by death or otherwise, such vacancy shall be supplied by an election in the manner before prescribed. No election for a Bishop shall be held, unless there be present at the time three-fourths of all the clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and delegates from three-fourths of all the congregations in union with the same, and contributing to the Convention fund.

ARTICLE X.

Of the trial of Clergymen.

SECTION 1. Any Presbyter or Deacon of this Diocese may be presented for trial, for any crime or other offence, as provided in Canon XXXVII, of 1832, of the General Convention.*

SEC. 2. Every such presentment shall be made, in writing, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, in case of a vacancy in the office of Bishop, to the president of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 3. A presentment shall specify, with clearness and certainty, the offence or offences charged, and shall be signed by the persons making it.

*CANONS OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF 1832.

CANON XXXVII.

Of Offences for which Ministers shall be tried and punished.

SECTION 1. Every minister shall be liable to presentment and trial, for any crime or gross immorality, for disorderly conduct, for drunkenness, for profane swearing, for frequenting places most liable to be abused to licentiousness, and for violation of the Constitution or Canons of this Church, or of the Diocese to which he belongs; and on being found guilty, he shall be admonished, suspended or degraded, according to the Canons of the Diocese in which the trial takes place, until otherwise provided for by the General Convention.

SEC. 4. A presentment shall be made by a majority of the Vestry, in a Vestry meeting duly convened, of the parish with which the person accused is connected; or, if he be not connected with any parish, in which he resides; or, if he do not reside within the limits of any parish, of the parish nearest to his place of residence; or by four or more male communicants of the same; or by two presbyters of this diocese; a presentment being always made by one of the above classes, exclusive of the others; and a Deacon not being permitted to unite in a presentment.

SEC. 5. Upon the receipt of any such presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop, if he shall deem it advisable, after consultation with the Standing Committee, or with the President of the Standing Committee; as the case may be, after such advisement, to take measures for trial, and to furnish a copy of said presentment to the accused, giving him notice of the time and place of trial.

SEC. 6. The Bishop shall thereupon summon all the Presbyters of this Diocese, except such as may have presented, to meet at some convenient place within the same, on some day not less than thirty days after the date of said summons; of which Presbyters, any three or more attending, shall be the Court for the trial of the party accused, to decide upon his guilt or innocence, and, if found guilty, to recommend a sentence by a majority of voices.

SEC. 7. A copy of the presentment, and a notice of the summons of the said Presbyters, shall be served upon the party accused, at least twenty days before the day appointed for trial, by delivering the same to him personally, or by leaving the same at his place of residence, or his last place of residence in this State, if he have left the same, or can not be found.

SEC. 8. The judgment of the Court shall be delivered to the Bishop with the records of the trial, and the sentence recommended; and the Bishop may pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided such sentence shall not exceed in severity that recommended by the Court of trial; and his sentence shall be final; or, if the Bishop deem it necessary to justice, he may order a new trial, to be held as hereinbefore directed.

SEC. 9. If there be no Bishop, the sentence of the Court shall be submitted to some neighboring Bishop, who may either order a new trial, or ratify and pronounce the said sentence, which shall then be final.

Sec. 10. Witnesses for the prosecution, and for the defence, at the request of the party accused, shall be summoned by the said Court, for a full and impartial hearing of the whole matter.

Sec. 11. The party accused shall have a right to be present at the trial, and to be heard in his defence; and may avail himself of the aid of counsel.

Sec. 12. The records of all proceedings on the presentment of a clergyman shall, after the final decision, be delivered to the Secretary of the Standing Committee, to be preserved with their papers.

Sec. 13. If the accused be acquitted, the Bishop or President of the Standing Committee, as the case may require, shall give him a certificate of acquittal, embracing a copy of the presentment; and he shall not be subject to presentment again, upon the same charge.

ARTICLE XI.

Of a Clergyman accused by public rumor.

Section 1. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that a clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct, for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint two presbyters, as a committee of inquiry, to examine into the truth of such rumors or allegations, according to the provisions of Sec. 2, of Canon xxxvii, of the General Convention, of 1832.*

Sec. 2. Should the crime, offence or misdemeanor, of which said clergyman is accused, be found supported, in whole or in part, upon such inquiry, it shall be the duty of the Bishop, unless upon consultation with the Standing Committee, he shall deem such finding insufficient, to proceed to take measures for trial, as is provided in Article X. of the Constitution.

*Sec. 2. If any minister of this church shall be accused, by public rumor, of discontinuing all exercise of the ministerial office without lawful cause, or of living in the habitual disuse of public worship, or of the holy eucharist, according to the offices of this church, or of being guilty of scandalous, disorderly or immoral conduct, or of violating the Canons, or preaching or inculcating heretical doctrine, it shall be the duty of the Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, the Clerical Members of the Standing Committee, to see that an inquiry be instituted as to the truth of such public rumor. And in case of the individual being proceeded against and convicted, according to such rules or process as may be provided by the Conventions of the respective Dioceses, he shall be admonished, suspended or degraded as the nature of the case may require, in conformity with their respective Constitutions and Canons.

ARTICLE XII.

Of the admission of new Parishes.

Any Protestant Episcopal congregation within this State, duly organized, but not in union with the Convention of this Diocese at the time of ordaining this Constitution, shall be entitled to the entire benefit thereof, as soon as they shall signify their ratification of it, either in writing, or by sending lay delegates as members of the Convention; and such congregation shall thereafter be benefitted and bound by every rule or canon which shall be framed by any Convention, acting under the Constitution, for the government of this Church in its ecclesiastical concerns.

ARTICLE XIII.

Of Ministers, Members of Vestries.

When not forbidden by the charter of any congregation, the presbyter who is settled as the minister of the parish, shall be a member of the vestry thereof, and, when present, shall preside at its meetings.

ARTICLE XIV.

Of the Mode in which the Constitution may be Changed.

This Constitution shall be unalterable, except in the following manner: A proposition for any change shall be introduced in writing and considered in Convention, and, if approved of, the same shall be published at large in the Journal of the Convention; and, if again approved of in the next ensuing Convention, by a majority of the two orders, voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

C A N O N S
OF THE
IN THE

CANON I.

A List to be made of the Clergy.

SEC. 1. Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this diocese, the Bishop shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church, canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective cures or parishes, or stations as missionaries, or of the colleges, academies, or general seminaries of learning in which they are engaged, or in regard to those who are not engaged in parishes, missions, or institutions of learning as above mentioned, their places of residence only, distinguishing those who are entitled to seats in the Convention.

SEC. 2. The right of any clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention, shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the third article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself; whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid, or omitted.

SEC. 3. If there be no Bishop, or none having provisional charge of this diocese, the president of the Standing Committee shall prepare the said list, and lay it before the Convention.

CANON II.

Certificates of Lay Delegates.

The appointment of a lay delegate to the Convention of this diocese shall be certified in writing by the rector of the parish of which he is a representative, or by one of the wardens, or by the clerk or secretary of the vestry of such church; and no other certificate of such appointment shall be allowed or received. And no lay delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be eligible to the office of vestryman of the church which he claims to represent.

CANON III.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

Sec. 1. There shall be appointed by the Convention a Treasurer of the Church in this State, who shall be a man of good character and responsibility. He shall be removable at the pleasure of the Convention; but, unless so removed, he shall continue in office until a successor is appointed. He shall keep a fair and exact account of all moneys received and paid by him, and shall lay before the Convention, annually, or oftener if required, a full and accurate statement of his accounts.—He shall pay no money but by order of the Convention, and shall, in all things relating to his office, conform to their rules and directions.

Sec. 2. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, during the recess of the Convention, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON IV.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

Sec. 1. Whereas by the XXIXth Canon of the General Convention of 1832, it is made the duty of every minister to keep a register of baptisms, confirmations, communicants, marriages and funerals, within his cure; agreeably to such rules as may be provided by the Convention of the diocese where his cure lies—it is hereby ordered, that the record shall specify the name and time of birth of the child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized; the names of the persons confirmed; the names of all the communicants within his cure as nearly as can be ascertained; the names of the parties married, and the authority under which the rite was celebrated; the names of the persons buried; and also the time when each rite was performed, or each new communicant admitted. These records shall be kept by the minister, in a book to be provided for that purpose by the vestry of each church; which book shall be the parish register, and shall be preserved by the vestry as a part of the records of the church.

Each minister shall also keep, as far as practicable, a list of all the families and adult persons within his cure, to remain for the use of his successor, and to be continued by him, and by the future ministers of the parish.

Sec. 2. And whereas, by the VIIth Canon of the General Convention of 1841, it is made the duty of each minister to present or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop, or when there is none to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of baptisms, confirmations, marriages and funerals, and of the number of communicants in his cure, and of all other matters that may throw light on its condition: it is hereby further ordered, that in reporting the number of communicants, the minister shall state, besides the whole number at the time, the number of additions, removals, and deaths, since the last report.

Sec. 3. The above report shall also mention the number of teachers and Scholars in Sunday Schools, and other Catechumens connected with the parish—and the amount of contributions for religious and charitable objects, specifying them.

Sec. 4. When a parish is destitute of a minister, the register contemplated by this canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose. And the annual parochial report shall be presented or forwarded, as ordered in Sec. 2, by the Wardens.

CANON V.

Of the Report to the General Convention.

A committee of the Convention of this diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same, next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, to draft with the advice and approbation of the Bishop if there be one, a report of the state of the church in this diocese, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON VI.

Of the Deputies to the General Convention.

Sec. 1. Deputies to the General Convention shall be chosen by the concurrent ballot of the clerical and lay votes, at every stated Convention of this diocese; and their appointment shall continue until the next stated Convention, or until others are chosen in their places.

Sec. 2. Should any deputy elected discover, one month before the meeting of the General Convention, his inability to attend, he shall notify the President of the Standing Committee of such inability, and it shall be the duty of the Committee to supply the vacancy occurring in this or in any other way, before the meeting of the Convention.

Sec. 3. Should a vacancy occur, by death or otherwise, in the delegation to the General Convention, it shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the remaining clerical and lay deputies, when it shall be practicable.

Sec. 4. Clerical deputies to the General Convention may present an account of their expenses, in their travel and attendance, to the Standing Committee, who shall make a reasonable allowance for the same, to be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention out of its funds.

CANON VII.

Of Lay Discipline.

Sec. 1. If a layman, repelled from the Holy Communion according to the rubric, shall complain thereof to the Bishop according to Canon XLII of the General Convention of 1832, the Bishop (or his assistant Bishop,) whether belonging to the diocese or having provisional charge thereof, shall, unless he restore him to the Communion according to said canon, appoint two disinterested clergymen, and two disinterested laymen who are communicants, to inquire into and try the case. If they report to the Bishop that the repelled person should be restored, the Bishop shall so direct; and no minister of this diocese shall deny him the holy Communion. If they report otherwise, or make no report within three months from their appointment, the repulsion shall continue in force.

If this judicatory for the trial of a layman shall be equally divided concerning the guilt of the accused, or the propriety of restoring him to the Communion, they may elect as umpire any other disinterested male communicant in this diocese, whether clerical or lay, and make their report within three months as aforesaid. And, at any time after conviction, if the judicatory do not define the term of the repulsion, the Bishop, (or his assistant Bishop,) or the minister of the parish being a presbyter, may restore the repelled person to the Holy Communion, according to the rubric.

Sec. 2. Communicants neglecting the Holy Communion or the public worship of the Church for the space of six months, without a reason satisfactory to their parochial minister, or leading inconsistent and immoral lives, may, after admonition, be suspended by the minister from the Communion; and if, within a reasonable time, there is no satisfactory proof given of reformation, their names shall be removed from the Parochial Register of Communicants; and they shall be considered as repelled, and notified thereof. Notice in all such cases to be given to the Bishop according to the provision of the rubric concerning repulsion, and the same proceedings may be had as provided in Sec. 1.

Sec. 3. A layman under repulsion from the Holy Communion, if visited with extreme or mortal sickness, may be re-admitted to that ordinance without a trial, or after conviction, if the presbyter attending him deem him truly penitent, and in charity with all men.

CANON VIII.

Of Trials and Penalties.

Sec. 1. All trials, whether of clergymen or laymen, shall be in public, if the party accused so require, unless the judicatory are of opinion that such publicity will occasion unholy scoffing, and be contrary to edification. When a public trial is refused, the accused may have present any six male communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and the party presenting or prosecuting may have present the same number of other such communicants.

Sec. 2. Witnesses at any trial may, if demanded by either party, be put on oath. Written evidence may be admitted, on either side, the other party having had sufficient notice of the time and place of taking the same, and being allowed to attend when it was taken; and the persons examined for the written evidence may also be put on oath.

Sec. 3. Counsel shall be allowed the accused, if he require it; in which case, the party presenting or prosecuting shall be allowed the same privilege. And every judicatory may have counsel, as they shall desire.

CANON IX.

Of the Missionary and Education Committee.

Sec. 1. At each Annual Convention there shall be appointed a Committee, consisting of the Bishop of the Diocese, ex-officio, and two clergymen and two laymen elected by ballot, to be called the Missionary and Education Committee, to which shall be entrusted the charge of conducting the operations of the Church in behalf of Missions, Education, and benevolent objects connected therewith. This committee shall elect a Secretary and Treasurer, and report their doings to the next stated Convention, and their appointment shall continue until the next annual Convention, or until others are chosen in their places.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of every Parish to raise contributions for the purposes designated in the following section, by collection or otherwise, monthly or oftener, which shall be remitted quarterly to the Treasurer.

in this Diocese, except in cases of particular emergency, without a written license from the Bishop; and lay readers shall, in all cases, conform to the provisions of Canon XI of 1832, of the General Convention.

CANON XIII.

Of Trustees of Bishop's Fund, &c.

At the present, and at each future annual Convention, five Trustees of the "fund for the support of a Bishop, and to aid missionaries and necessitous ministers, their widows and children," shall be elected by concurrent ballot of both orders: to continue in office until the next annual Convention thereafter, or until their successors are duly appointed. In case of vacancy, by death or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the remaining Trustees to notify the Standing Committee of the Diocese thereof, and it shall be the duty of the said committee to supply such vacancy, as soon as they shall have knowledge of the same, by such notice, or otherwise.

CANON XIV.

Of Elections.

In all Elections, not otherwise provided for and regulated by the constitution of the P. E. Church in this State, the votes of a majority of all the members present; or, if voting by orders, of a majority of all present of the respective orders, shall be necessary to a choice.

CANON XV.

Of Episcopal Contributions.

It shall be the duty of the Wardens of every Parish, to collect at the rate of fifty cents annually for each communicant therein, together with such other voluntary contributions as may be made to them for the same object, either privately or by public collections for that object, in their respective parishes, and pay the same over annually to the Treasurer of the Convention for the time being, subject to the Bishop's order, for his own private use.

CANON XVI.

Of Alterations and Additions to the Canons.

No proposition to alter or add to the Canons of the Diocese shall be considered by the Convention except at a stated meeting, nor (unless by unanimous consent) until it shall have been reported on by a committee. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the members present shall not concur therein; but in such case, the same, (unless negatived by a majority of the votes,) shall lie over for consideration till the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Repealing former Canons.

All former Canons of this Diocese, not included in these Canons, are hereby repealed.

 Alfred P. Robinson.

The Rev. S. T. Carpenter, on behalf of the Committee to receive and examine the certificates of Lay Delegates, presented to the house the certificate of the election of the Delegates from St. Peter's Church, Lewes, with the remonstrance against their admission from certain members of the former vestry of said Church, and asked that the house decide upon the claim of these Delegates to seats in this Convention.

On motion of Mr. George R. Fisher, it was Resolved, That the Lay Delegates from St. Peter's Church, Lewes, are entitled to seats in this Convention.

Whereupon, Messrs. John Rodney and Caleb R. Paynter answered to their names and took their seats.

On motion of Mr. Alexis I. Du Pont, the Committee on Church Mutual Aid Association, before making its report, was permitted to withdraw for a brief period.

On motion, Dr. William Burton, a Lay Delegate from Christ Church, Milford, was excused from farther attendance on the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. S. T. Carpenter, the Chair appointed the Rev. S. T. Carpenter and Mr. George R. Fisher, a Committee to audit the Treasurer's accounts.

The Rev. Charles Breck, on behalf of the Committee on Church Mutual Aid Association, presented the following report of said Committee, embracing the draft of a Constitution, which was accepted :

The Committee on "The Church Mutual Aid Association" respectfully submit the following draft of a Constitution :

ART. I. This Society shall be denominated "The Church Mutual Aid Society of the Diocese of Delaware."

ART. II. The objects of this Society shall be to extend mutual care and relief to its members, when, in the Providence of God, they may be sick or disabled; to secure to its deceased members Christian burial, and to protect and succor their widows and orphans; and to excite a lively interest for the poor and afflicted generally.

ART. III. Every attendant on the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, not under 18, nor over 55 years of age, nor in any way incapacitated for acquiring a living, may become a member of this Society. Females may form branches under this Constitution, subject to the General Canons.

ART. IV. The Rector of the Parish in which any Branch is organized, shall be Chaplain of the same.

Provided, Where several Parishes are associated in one Branch, the Rectors shall hold office respectively for one year.

ART. V. Each Branch shall form its own Canons and By-Laws, subject to the Constitution and General Canons of the Society.

ART. VI. Every member of this Society shall in case of sickness or disability, brought on, not by intemperance or other vicious cause, but in the ordinary Providence of God, receive a weekly allowance of not less than one, nor more than three dollars, after a membership of three months, and the payment of all dues.

On the decease of a member in good standing, an appropriation of not less than ten, nor more than twenty-five dollars, shall be made for funeral expenses.

Each Branch will regulate its allowance to the widow and orphans of a deceased member, as well as the extending of aid to any needing assistance and comfort, who do not belong to the same.

ART. VII. There shall be an annual meeting of the delegates of the several Branches, at the time and place of meeting of the Convention of the Diocese. The Presidents and Chaplains, together with one member from each Branch, and one additional member for every twenty-five members, shall take their seats at the said meeting.

The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex officio President of this meeting.

ART. VIII. All meetings of the various Branches shall be opened with suitable religious exercises by the Chaplain. The Bishop shall set forth such a service, as in his judgment he may deem best calculated to advance the interest of the Society.

ART. IX. No alteration shall be made in this Constitution, except with the consent of two-thirds of the Delegates present at the Annual Meeting.

In submitting these Articles, your Committee would remark, that from the first planting of the gospel, express provision was made for the poor; and in all ages since, the Christian Church has provided for the poor of her communion with great carefulness, and at the same time extended her charity beyond her own limits with a lavish hand.

In recommending the organization of Branches throughout the Diocese, subject to the Constitution set forth by this Convention, there is no intention of interfering in the least degree with the long-established mode in active operation in the Church of aiding the sick and unfortunate.

As there are societies established for purposes of mutual aid, &c., throughout the country, the Church may reasonably make provision for such members of her respective congregations as feel desirous of uniting together for these ends.

ALFRED LEE,
CHARLES BRECK,
HIRAM R. HARROLD,
ALEXIS I. DU PONT.

On motion of Mr. Alexis I. Du Pont, the articles of the proposed Constitution were read seriatim, which, after discussion and amendment, were adopted.

The question was then taken on the adoption of the Constitution as a whole.

The Constitution was unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. Alexis I. Du Pont, it was Resolved, That this Convention recommend to the several Parishes in the Diocese of Delaware, the formation of branches of the Church Mutual Aid Society of the Diocese of Delaware.

On motion of Alexis I. Du Pont, it was Resolved, That the Committee on Church Mutual Aid Association, be discharged.

The Bishop called the attention of the Convention to his Annual Address, which he now delivered.

ADDRESS

To the Clerical and Lay Members of the Sixty fourth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Delaware.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

Again assembled in our Annual Convention, let us recognize with gratitude the gracious Providence which brings us together to confer upon the interests of our beloved church, and study how we can best promote her welfare. And let us look up earnestly and confidently to Him, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy, for His guidance and blessing on our deliberations. Members of one body, sharers together in the precious hope of the gospel, and bound together in Church brotherhood, may we seek and follow the promptings of that Holy Spirit, who is the author not of confusion but of peace, and take counsel together as brethren on the subjects of common interest that may come before us. The present occasion of meeting in Convention is the more gratifying to me, inasmuch as I was unexpectedly prevented by illness from being present at your last session. By the goodness of our Heavenly Father my health was speedily restored, and I have been enabled to pursue, with little exception, my usual course of duties. A larger portion than usual of my time has been occupied in duties without the Diocese, especially in attendance at the General Convention in October last. I also took part, after the adjournment of the Convention, in the consecration of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Kip, Missionary Bishop of our Church in California.

Christiana Hundred, three times; Immanuel Church, New Castle, once; St. James', Stanton, once; St. Thomas', Newark, twice; in which church I have also twice administered the Holy Communion, and baptized the child of the minister; in Christ Church, Delaware City, twice; and also twice at Fort Delaware, on Pea Patch Island, to a very considerable and attentive congregation; St. Ann's Appoquinimink, twice; St. Peter's, Smyrna, seven times, where also I baptized the child of the Rector, and two other children; and once each in Christ Church, Dover; Christ Church, Milford; St. Luke's, Seaford; Christ Church, Broad Creek; St. Philip's Chapel, Laurel; St. John's, Little Hill; St. Mark's, Millsboro'; Grace Church, Baltimore Mills; St. Paul's, Georgetown; St. Peter's, Lewes, administering also the communion; St. George's, Indian River, and Chapel of the Comforter, Long Neck; in all, exclusive of St. Andrew's, Wilmington, thirty-eight times. Attendance on the General Convention and other engagements without the Diocese occupied much of the fall, and prevented my making the usual autumnal visitation of the parishes in Sussex County.

CONFIRMATIONS.

I have administered the rite of confirmation on twelve occasions to one hundred and fourteen persons, viz :

St. Andrew's, Wilmington, twice, confirmed 40, for St. Andrew's	38

Grace Church, Baltimore Mills, - - - - -	3
St. Paul's, Georgetown, - - - - -	1
Chapel of the Comforter, Long Neck, - - - - -	1

This number exceeds that reported in any previous year since my connection with the Diocese. I also record with thankfulness the ardent interest and solemnity with which these confirmations were attended, both on the part of the persons themselves making a Christian profession, and of the congregations present.

CLERICAL CHANGES.

The following clergymen have been received into the Diocese since the last Convention: the Rev. John Baker Clemson, by letter of dismission from Bishop Potter, accepted by me October 7th, 1853; the Rev. George Sheets, from the same, accepted by me May 4th, 1854; the Rev. Asa S. Colton, by letter from Bishop Whittingham, accepted May 15th, 1854.

The following clergymen have taken letters of dismission from the Diocese: the Rev. Z. H. Mansfield to the Diocese of Connecticut, Nov. 28th, 1853, and the Rev. William H. Trapnell to the Diocese of New York, February 6th, 1854.

I admitted, November 9th, 1853, Mr. William H. D. Hatton a candidate for holy orders.

The Rev. Breed Batcheller has resigned the Rectorship of St. James' Church, Stanton, and has been succeeded by the Rev. George Sheets, who has recently entered upon his duties. The Rev. John B. Clemson has accepted a call to Ascension Church, Brandywine Hundred, which charge he combines with that of a parish in Pennsylvania, but resides within the limits of Delaware. The Rev. H. R. Harrold has resigned the charge of the Church at Delaware City, but continues as before Rector of St. Ann's, Appoquinimink. The Rev. John L. McKim has, upon invitation of Christ Church, Milford, resumed the rectorship of that church, and also has become Rector of St. Peter's Church, Lewes. The Rev. Asa S. Colton has entered upon missionary duty in Brandywine Hundred, officiating at the Union Meeting-House and other points. The other parishes of the Diocese are under the same pastoral charge as reported in my last address. The only vacant parishes at present are Grace Church, Brandywine Hundred, and Christ Church, Delaware City. The latter would have been, I had reason to hope, supplied long before this time, several clergymen having been in correspondence with me on the subject. I trust that it will not be long without the services of a Rector; and until one be settled, shall provide, if possible, that it be not destitute of the preached gospel.

The new Church, mentioned in my last address, as about to be erected for Ascension parish, has been commenced, and is rapidly proceeding to completion. The edifice will be of convenient size, and well arranged, and from the improvement of that neighborhood, and the character and experience in the ministry of the present Rector, we may confidently anticipate that it will soon be filled with a good congregation.

The list of confirmations is an index of the prospering state of the parishes in Wilmington and vicinity. The congregation of Christ Church, Christiana Hundred, has so increased as to make the need of a new and more spacious Church to be deeply felt. This want it is understood that young and vigorous parish purposes soon to supply.

On my recent visitation I laid the corner-stone of a new church for St. Peter's parish, Lewes. The proposed building will occupy the site of the former, which it will considerably surpass in size and convenience. The old church, removed to the rear of the lot, is still occupied for divine worship. An interesting service was held at the old Broad Creek Church, when that venerable and spacious building was nearly filled, and I confirmed a larger number of persons than ever before in that church. The indefatigable labors of the Rev. Mr. Cadle have not been without fruit and blessing in this long neglected field.

The effort of the Rev. Mr. Hall to raise a new congregation in the neighborhood of Baltimore Mills has been also greatly prospered. My recent visit and confirmation there was highly gratifying; and I know of no point in Sussex County where the promise seems better.

While we have to lament many evils, and labor under discouragements which none can know but from experience, we may still recognize with devout gratitude the favoring hand of our God; we should thank him for the past and take courage for the future. The time we may confidently pray and hope for, when our beloved Church, recovered from her state of long languishing and depression, will yet be enabled to fulfil her holy and benign mission, and prove a joy and a praise. One of my chief sources of anxiety for the Church in my Diocese has ever been the scarcity and moderate support of our ministry. With hearts weighed down by solitudes respecting their families, it is far more difficult for them to devote their energies with singleness and concentration to their proper work. They labor with discomfort and at disadvantage, and are strongly tempted to embrace the more inviting offers they may receive from other Dioceses. I am aware that in most of our parishes the numbers are few and the means far from abundant. But if the value of the gospel were rightly appreciated; if the interests

The Twelfth Annual Report of the Missionary and Education Committee was presented and read :

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MISSIONARY AND EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

The Committee are gratified to report that their receipts during the last year indicate that the missionary cause has not lost its hold upon the hearts of our people. An increased liberality has been manifested, especially towards the department of Foreign Missions. By the better condition of the General Missions of the Church, the Domestic Committee have been enabled to meet their obligations, and the stipend, very small indeed, pledged by them, has been regularly paid. We have, therefore, remitted our contributions directly to their Treasurer, instead of retaining a portion to secure the payment of our own laborers, as was done for several years. The request of the Domestic Committee for an Advent Collection was urged by our own Committee in a circular, and responded to by a number of Churches. This was the only appeal which we have issued during the year. The contributions to Foreign Missions were chiefly made in the Epiphany Collection, asked for by the Foreign Committee of the General Board, and also in consequence of the visits of some of our Missionaries to China and Africa to portions of the Diocese. Of the good effect of such visits in rousing the missionary spirit into more active life, and enlisting a warmer sympathy in behalf of the publication of the glad tidings of salvation, the Committee express their strong conviction. And they are persuaded that an earnest and liberal interest in the work of Foreign Missions will react favorably and happily on the extension of the Church within our own borders, and upon the increase of true piety and zeal.

The contributions of the different parishes have been for the objects herein specified, viz :

GRACE CHURCH, BRANDYWINE HUNDRED, NO REPORT.

CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION, CLAYMONT, BRANDYWINE HUNDRED, NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

This infant Parish has enjoyed but irregular services for want of Church accommodation. Worship which was held for some time in a school-house, was discontinued on the setting in of winter, being found impracticable. Its resumption now awaits the completion of the Church edifice; in the meanwhile our labors are bestowed on another part of the Hundred. The occupation of the Church is fondly anticipated during the summer. It is an imposing structure, after the simple Gothic, occupying a position of much beauty, and affording considerable accommodation. The Rector's attention is divided between this point and the Church at Marcus Hook, Penna.

REMARKS.—The loving kindness of the Lord has been still manifested towards this congregation, and His blessing has more abundantly, than in years past, accompanied his word and ordinances. A very delightful and sustained religious interest has cheered the Pastor's heart, and added largely to the communion of the Church. Of the communicants reported as added during the year, twelve were by removal from abroad, five of whom had previously been communicants of this Church. The remaining forty-one have been newly admitted to the Lord's table. Of these thirty-three are young persons, making the additions of the year preceding about fifty accessions from this interesting class. If they all have grace to be faithful, consistent and persevering disciples of Christ, how much may be hoped for the cause of the Redeemer, and for the advance of his Church, from such an amount of youthful energy consecrated to God. The Sunday Schools and benevolent operations of the Parish have been sustained with much spirit and efficiency. The need of increased accommodation for worshippers is now very pressing, and the congregation have determined, at a meeting held, to consider the subject, that the speedy enlargement of the Church is expedient and necessary.

REMARKS :—The tokens of Divine favor in the past year, have been most encouraging. May their effect be to stimulate to greater efforts of faith and love. Our present accommodations being too limited for the increasing congregation, a movement has been made towards a new Church, which the Rector is happy to say, has met with very great favor, the rich giving of their abundance, and the poor of their penury. May God make it a common blessing, as it has been a common offering.

The subscription, which was only commenced a week or two since, amounts to $5,155.

Public services are celebrated on every Lord's Day in the morning, and on the principal holy days.

The Sunday school was resumed with the opening of the spring under favorable auspices. The attendance is better than usual.

Contributions.—The expenditures of St. Ann's Rectory, falling heavily on a few individuals, have prevented some of the usual demands in aid of the expenses of the Diocese; but there is a disposition entertained to come up to the full share of responsibility. A liberal collection was made for the benefit of certain children connected with the African Mission. Also another for Domestic Missions.

Public services every Sunday morning, Bible class Sunday evening, excepting through the summer. Other days, a Wednesday evening lecture during the winter and spring. The last summer, also, I preached, afternoon and evening, for several Sundays, in Millington, Maryland, and the Chapel in the neighborhood. In Millington I baptized two children and administered the Lord's Supper in the Chapel.

This spring I had a new appointment—a Sunday afternoon service, about three miles from Smyrna, with encouraging success. I accompanied the Bishop on his visitation through Sussex, and preached in Milton and Lewes.

S. T. CARPENTER, Rector.

CHRIST CHURCH, DOVER.

The Missionary officiating in Christ Church, Dover, reports that he has, from want of sufficient encouragement on the part of the congregation, reduced the number of his services to one in each month. In other respects there is no change worthy of note in the state of things in this venerable but decayed parish.

This parish was vacated last year, from Easter until Advent, by my removal from the Diocese; during which time there was divine service but on two occasions. I have since resumed the charge of it, and officiate, as before, regularly once in two weeks. The condition and prospects of the Church are as encouraging as at any former report.

From April to November of last year I officiated in this Church only once a month, having made an engagement in the adjoining Diocese, with a view of removing thither. This design was afterwards relinquished; and for the last six months I have been pursuing the usual routine of appointments in Milford, Georgetown, and other places in the vicinity.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, LEWES.

This Church having been without services for a long time, I assumed the charge of it at Christmas last, and have since given it so much attention as my existing engagements permit. Up to this time I have officiated here only once a month : hereafter there will be service once a fortnight.

The project of building a new church, which has been for several years in contemplation, seems at present in a way of being carried into execution. The old fabric was, some time last summer, removed out of the way, and the foundation of a new edifice is now laid; the corner-stone being placed with appropriate ceremonies by the Bishop on the 27th inst. The plan adopted is a decided improvement on the Church architecture of this quarter of the Diocese; and, when carried out, will be creditable to the taste and zeal of those engaged in it. It will cost $3000 or more.

The number of communicants in this Church is about 30 (as at last report). Contributions (at a recent collection) for Foreign and Domestic Missions, $5. Public services, Sundays, 6. The Rev. D. McIlvaine, Deacon, has also officiated occasionally; and I am indebted to him for frequent assistance in the celebration of Divine service, the administration of the Holy Communion, &c.

REPORT OF REV. G. W. RIDGELY

After the adjournment of the last Convention, I officiated for a time at the Church of the Ascension, until an effective Building Committee was appointed for the erection of a new church-edifice, and I had the satisfaction of giving place to my friend, the Rev. John B. Clemson. Since then I have preached principally in other parts of the county. The field of Missionary labor which I occupied in Brandywine Hundred has now been filled by the Rev. Messrs. Clemson and Colton; and I have been recently making arrangements for operations of the same kind in the vicinity of Newark.

G. W. RIDGELY.

The following is the amount of Assessment on each Parish in the Diocese for the support of the Episcopate, which is to be remitted annually to the Treasurer of the Convention, in accordance with Canon XV :

The Rev. Charles Breck appeared and took his seat.—A constitutional quorum being present, the Convention pursuant to the sixth Article of the Constitution then proceeded to the election of a Secretary.

The Rev. Hiram R. Harrold and Mr. Gregg Chandler were appointed tellers, and on the second ballot reported that Mr. Alexis I. Du Pont had been elected.

Whereupon the Chair declared Mr. Alexis I. Du Pont to be Secretary of the Convention for the ensuing year.

The Rules of Order of the last Convention were, on motion of the Rev. John L. McKim, adopted as the Rules of Order of the present session.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The business of every day shall be introduced with prayer.
2. When the President takes the chair no member shall continue standing, nor shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the chair.
3. No member shall absent himself from the service of the house, unless he have leave, or be unable to attend.
4. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
5. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, without leave of the house.

6. A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of the house, and shall not be again drawn into debate during the same session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the house.

7. If a question in debate contain more parts than one, any member may have the same divided into as many questions as there are parts.

8. While the President is putting any question, no one shall hold private discourse, stand up, walk into, out of, or across the house, or read any book.

9. Every member who shall be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be particularly interested in the decision.

10. No motion shall be considered as before the house unless it be seconded, and reduced to writing when required.

11. When any question is before the house, it shall be determined on before any new thing is introduced, except the question for adjournment.

12. The question on a motion for adjournment shall be taken before any other, and without debate.

13. When the house is about to rise, every member shall keep his seat until the President leaves the chair.

14. The Journals of the Convention shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and a copy sent to each member of the Convention.

15. The charge or sermon, when delivered by the Bishop before the Convention, shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and one copy sent to each clergyman, and ten copies to each vestry in the Diocese.

On motion of the Rev. John L. McKim, it was

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, not belonging to this Diocese, and students of theology, who are candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, who may be present, be and they are hereby invited to attend the sittings of the Convention.

The Committee appointed to audit the Treasurer's account, after examining the same, reported that they had found it correct.

On motion of the Rev. John B. Clemson, the amendment of the 8th Article of the Constitution which was proposed by the Rev. William H. Brooks, and appears on page 14 of the Journal of the last Convention, was then taken up and confirmed by the Convention.

The Eighth Article of the Constitution is therefore amended, by adding after the last sentence the words, "The Standing Committee shall present to each Annual Convention an abstract of the minutes of their proceedings, since the former Convention."

The report of the Standing Committee was presented by Mr. Samuel Baily and read by the Secretary, as follows :

FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

Abstract of the proceedings of the Standing Committee :

June 28th, 1854, the Committee consented to the consecration of the Rev. Henry W. Lee, Rector of St. Luke's Church, Rochester, N. Y., to the Episcopate of the Diocese of Iowa.

July 22d, 1854, they concurred in the election of the Right Rev. Jackson Kemper, D. D., Missionary Bishop of the North West and Bishop in charge of Wisconsin, as Bishop of the Diocese of Wisconsin.

They also recommended Mr. Thomas Mills Martin as a candidate for Holy Orders.

September 29th, 1854, they consented to the consecration of the Rev. Horatio Potter, D. D., Rector of St. Peter's Church, Albany, to the Episcopate, as Provisional Bishop of the Diocese of New York.

October 6th, 1854, they consented to the consecration of the Rev. Thomas March Clark, D. D., Rector of Christ Church, Hartford, Connecticut, to the Episcopate of the Diocese of Rhode Island; they also recommended the Rev. John Atkinson, a Licentiate of the New School Presbyterian Church, as a candidate for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church.

December 28th, 1854, they recommended the Rev. William Henry Brooks, Rector of St. Thomas' Church, Newark, to be admitted to the Holy Order of the Priesthood, and signed testimonials in his behalf.

January 12th, 1855, they recommended Mr. William Marshall as a candidate for Holy Orders; they also signed testimonials in behalf of the Rev. John Atkinson, for his admission to the Order of Deacons in the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Signed, SAMUEL BAILY, Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. John L. McKim, the election of members of the Standing Committee was postponed.

On motion of Mr. Samuel Baily, the election of Deputies to the General Convention was postponed.

On motion of the Rev. John L. McKim, the election of members of the Missionary and Education Committee was postponed.

Mr. Caleb R. Paynter, a Lay Delegate from St. Peter's Church, Lewes, appeared and took his seat.

The Committee appointed to audit the accounts of the Treasurer of the Committee to receive collections for the Rev. Corry Chambers, reported that they had examined the same and found them correct.

On motion of the Rev. John B. Clemson, it was Resolved, That the subject of the providing for the relief of disabled Clergy-men be submitted to a Committee of five members, to be appointed by the Chair.

The Bishop appointed

Rev. John B. Clemons,
 " Charles Breck,
 Capt. S. F. Du Pont,

 George W. Green.

The Committee appointed to report on the subject of an amendment to Sections 1st and 2d, of Canon XI, respectfully submitted, that they would advise the amendment of Section 1st, as follows : by striking out the words, after the clause "not more than nine members," and inserting in lieu thereof, "which number unless specified by articles of association or Charter, shall be designated before the election takes place, who shall continue in office until their successors are appointed, and they shall have power to fill all vacancies which may occur during the year, and be the judges of their own elections; and in such elections, a plurality of votes shall decide the choice."

They deem it inexpedient to make any amendment to Section 2d, of Canon XI.

On motion of Rev. John L. McKim, the amendment of Section 1st, of Canon XI, as reported by the Committee, was concurred in.

The Bishop then called the attention of the Convention to his Annual Address.

ADDRESS

To the Clerical and Lay Members of the Sixty-fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Delaware.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY:

We are called to review another year of our brief allotted term of service in the vineyard of the Lord, a year marked by his grace and goodness; Oh! that it might be added, marked also by our increased faithfulness and diligence. A few years hence how shall we estimate the privilege of having been permitted to engage in so great and blessed a work as the building up the kingdom of our Saviour Christ? What gratitude and praise will be awakened by the retrospect of fidelity and devotedness? And what overwhelming regret and remorse and shame will be our portion if it be then found that we were unfaithful stewards and slothful servants; that we sought our own rather than the things which are Jesus Christ's; that we lived to ourselves and not to him who died for us! How bitter the reflection, if we have known the gospel only to our condemnation, and have been attached to a pure branch of the Church of Christ, without any real share in the covenant of redeeming love! Oh, that we might feel, in our respective positions, the mighty constraining motives to holiness of life and patient continuance in well-doing, which will there stand out so plainly before our souls. Let us bear ever in mind that our Lord soon cometh to reckon with his servants, and that unto whom much is given, of the same will much be required.

The session of your last Convention, in the city of Wilmington, was disturbed by an unlooked for and fearful calamity, nearly affecting him who now addresses you. The prompt expression by your body of so much affectionate interest in the preservation of his family was inexpressibly gratifying and consoling. Although acknowledged at the time, I crave the permission, on meeting you again, to express my lively sense of the kindness drawn forth by this event from every part of the Diocese.

The Ecclesiastical annals of the past twelve-month present no new or striking features; no marked variation from the history of the years that have preceded. The advance of our beloved Church is gradual—in some parts of the Diocese scarce perceptible—and yet I trust that there is general improvement, and a foundation laid upon which the house of God will hereafter rise in goodly proportions. In the city of Wilmington and its vicinity the grounds of encouragement are manifest and cheering. In the feebler parishes the infrequency of ministerial services is a let and hindrance, which it is easier to perceive and deplore than to remedy.

The following is a summary of Episcopal duties rendered since the last Convention :

On the 14th of September, 1854, I consecrated the Church of the Ascension, Claymont, Brandywine Hundred, and preached the consecration sermon. This edifice is remarkable for its beautiful situation, the propriety and good taste of its arrangements, and the convenient accommodation of the worshippers. Its completion, free from debt, is much to the credit of the vestry and congregation, and is especially due to the energy of the Rector, who has given to the work his constant personal attendance. The neighborhood is rapidly improving, and there is reason to hope, through God's blessing on the labors of an experienced Pastor, that this neat and attractive rural sanctuary will ere long be filled.

St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, has been enlarged by the addition of thirty-two pews, and otherwise improved. It was re-opened for divine service, January 14th, 1855.

The Parish of Christ Church, Christiana Hundred, has commenced, and is rapidly proceeding with the erection of a new and substantial stone Church, which will afford greatly increased accommodation.—The crowded state of their present house of worship, and encouraging prosperity of the Parish, make the call for this improvement very pressing.

CHURCHES VISITED.

All the Parishes have been visited, and nearly all more than once. On these occasions I have officiated, by preaching, in the Church of the Ascension, Brandywine Hundred, once; in Trinity Chapel, Wilmington, ten times; in Immanuel Church, New-Castle, twice; in Christ Church, Christiana Hundred, four times; in St. James', Stanton, once; in St. Thomas', Newark, four times; in Christ Church, Delaware City, once; and at Fort Delaware, once; in St. Anne's, Appoquinimink, twice; in St. Peter's, Smyrna, four times; at Dover, once; in Christ Church, Milford, twice; at Milton, twice; in St. Paul's, Georgetown, three times; in St. Peter's, Lewes, three times; in St. George's, Indian River, twice; in Chapel of the Comforter, Long Neck, once; in St. Mark's, Millsboro', twice; in Grace Church, Baltimore Mills, twice; in St. Luke's, Seaford, twice; in St. John's, Little Hill, twice; in Christ Church, Broad Creek, twice; in St. Philip's Chapel, Laurel, twice; in all, exclusive of St. Andrew's, Wilmington, fifty-six times.

On six occasions I administered the Holy Communion.

In St. Peter's Parish, Smyrna, I baptized one adult, a lady extremely ill, and since deceased, and one infant, the child of the Rector.

I also officiated at the burial of an estimable lady, a member of Christ Church, Delaware City, whose loss to that struggling Parish seems almost irreparable.

ORDINATIONS.

January 18th, 1855, in St. Thomas' Church, Newark, I ordained the Rev. William H. Brooks, Presbyter.

Easter Sunday, April 8th, 1855, in St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, I admitted the Rev. John Atkinson to the order of Deacons.

CLERICAL CHANGES.

Added to the Diocese the Rev. Samuel Hazlehurst, from Pennsylvania, November 7th, 1854, and the Rev. J. Atkinson, by ordination.

Removed, the Rev. Breed Batcheler to the Diocese of Maryland, November 15th, 1854, and the Rev. William H. Brooks, to Massachusetts, April 6th, 1855.

The Rev. Samuel Hazlehurst has accepted an invitation from St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, to be assistant minister, and also officiates at the Union Meeting-House in Brandywine Hundred.

The Rev. William H. Brooks resigned the Rectorship of St. Thomas' Church, Newark, March 8th, 1855. The Parish is not yet supplied, although the vestry entertain the hope that it soon will be. Christ Church, Delaware City, is yet without a settled Pastor, but has been, except during the winter, generally supplied with ministerial services. The Rev. A. S. Colton officiated there last summer and fall, and has since been employed in supplying other vacancies. I have already alluded to the loss which the Church, just mentioned, has sustained by death. Immanuel Church, New-Castle, has also been heavily afflicted by similar visitations, several gentlemen, known and respected throughout the State, and some of them members of the vestry, having been summoned hence by the God of the spirits of all flesh. Among them is the name of the late lamented Chief Justice Booth. Scarce can a Conventional Address be penned without calling for the tribute of affectionate regret to brethren or friends departed. "Be ye also ready."

CANDIDATES FOR ORDERS.

There have been admitted as candidates for holy orders :

July 21st, 1854, Thomas Mills Martin.

January 15th, 1855, William Marshall.

William H. D. Hutton, from November 9th, 1853.

William Marshall, " January 5th, 1855.

The times, dear brethren, are of a coloring to appeal strongly to Christian hearts. There is agitation not only on the surface of society, but far down in the depths of the great ocean of humanity.—The flames of a desperate and sanguinary war have blazed up on the other side of the Atlantic. Our own fair land has been, during the last year, almost threatened with famine, and many portions have been scourged with pestilence. There is unwonted stir and commotion ; mighty energies are waking to life and conflict, and rapid changes are taking place.

At such a period our holy religion is the only effectual stay, bulwark and hope. What inducement to those who enjoy its precious privileges and consolations, to be true to their principles, firm in maintaining, zealous and liberal in extending them ? What necessity is laid upon God's commissioned ambassadors, to be in labors more abundant, to preach the word, to be instant in season, out of season, and to devise ways for bringing our embassy to bear with greatest power and success upon the souls and lives of men ? A languid perfunctory discharge of expected duties should not satisfy the earnest minister of Christ. Neither is he to measure the services which he renders by the pecuniary compensation which they receive. Sadly inadequate in many instances is this requital, and too many of those who enjoy Christian ministrations forget that the laborer is worthy of his hire, and that the Lord hath ordained that they who preach the gospel shall live of the gospel.

But all that the ministers of the Lord can do should be done with willing hearts, as our poor return for the unspeakable mercy of our own salvation, from love to our blessed Redeemer, and to the souls for whom he died; for we serve the Lord Christ. At a time of so much interest every enlightened and attached member of our Church must desire that her light shine brightly, and prove a beacon to guide tempest-tossed wanderers into the haven of rest. That the practical working of our Church system might be better adapted to the circumstances in which the Lord hath placed her, her ministrations be rendered more acceptable and efficient, her influence thus widened, and her field enlarged, I entertain no manner of doubt.

The calm, earnest consideration of this subject which marks the present mind of the Church, and which has found expression in various ways, is in my view, a most hopeful indication. May the Lord guide this tendency to blessed results, so that our Church may become more eminently a joy and praise in the land, and the cause of truth, righteousness, and peace be greatly furthered. And to this end may he pour out upon our whole communion a spirit of enlarged and fervent supplication. How much need we, individually, in our parishes, and in our Conventions, the spirit of love, and of power, and of a sound mind. Let our prayers go up unitedly, fervently, perseveringly to the throne of grace, and God will arise and have mercy upon Zion. The time to favor her, yea the set time, will have fully come.

ALFRED LEE.

On motion of the Rev. John L. McKim, the Committee on the Glebe of Christ Church, Dover, was continued.

On motion of the Rev. Hiram R. Harrold, it was Resolved, That 600 copies of the Journal be printed, and distributed according to the rule adopted by the Convention of 1848, and amended by that of 1845.

On motion of the Rev. Hiram R. Harrold, it was Resolved, That the Constitution and Canons of the Church in this Diocese, as amended, be published with the Journal of this Convention.

Mr. Alexis I. Du Pont then brought forward the amendment of the 3d Article of the Constitution, the consideration of which was postponed from last Convention, as appears by reference to page 13 of the Journal.

On motion of Mr. Samuel Baily, the consideration of the proposed amendment was indefinitely postponed.

The Committee appointed to devise means for providing for the relief of disabled Clergymen, reported :

"That they deem the Rev. Corry Chambers entitled to receive assistance from this Diocese.

They recommend that this assistance be furnished in the form of a pension, or definite sum, not exceeding $250 00 per annum.

Also, that this pension be disbursed by a Committee, known as "The Relief Committee for the assistance of infirm and disabled Clergymen."

Also, that it be the duty of the parishes and of the individual members of the Church to contribute to a fund for this object.

This report was adopted, and on motion of Capt. S. F. Du Pont, it was Resolved, That the Committee presenting the report be, and are hereby constituted "The Relief Committee for the Assistance of Infirm and Disabled Clergymen," viz :

Rev. John B. Clemson,
 " Charles Breck,
 Capt. S. F. Du Pont,
 Henry F. Rodney,
 George W. Green.

The bill of Evans & Vernon for advertising, amounting to $2 50; the bill of Rev. William H. Brooks, Secretary, for expenses officially incurred, amounting to $3 50, and the bill of Stavely & McCalla, for printing 750 copies of the Bishop's Third Charge and 600 copies of the Journal, amounting to $124 75, were read, and the Treasurer directed to pay the same.

On motion of Mr. Samuel Baily, the Treasurer was directed to pay the Sexton of Christ Church, Milford, the usual compensation for his attendance during the session of the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. Hiram R. Harrold, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to the wardens and vestry of Christ Church, Milford, and also to the residents of the Town, for their kindness and attention to the members.

The Report of the Missionary and Education Committee was then presented by the Rev. Samuel T. Carpenter :

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MISSIONARY AND EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

The Committee have taken frequent occasion, in presenting their annual reports, to press the claims of the great cause of Christian Missions upon the affections and charities of their brethren, and to present to the notice of the Convention and Parishes different portions of our own Missionary field.

Hence they deem it sufficient to lay before the present meeting a simple abstract of the receipts and expenditures of the past year.

It may be remarked that two of the laborers in our Diocese, the Rev. Messrs. Hall and Cadle, are Missionaries of the Domestic Committee of the General Board.

The contributions of the different parishes have been for the objects herein specified, viz :

PAROCHIAL REPORTS.

CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION, CLAYMONT, BRANDYWINE HUNDRED, NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

This Church was consecrated early in the last Autumn, an encouraging number of pews let, and services commenced, and for a time well sustained. But owing to great discomfort in the cold weather, worship for a time was necessarily suspended. It is now weekly celebrated with good attendance, and we doubt not, but that this infant Parish will eventually become both large and strong. Owing to the intermission in the services, there has been as yet no administration of the Communion, no Sunday School organization, and no formal collections for objects beyond the Parish. All these will shortly receive due attention, and our next report we trust will show something accomplished.

During the past year the enlargement of this Church, to which reference has been made in the preceding report, has been effected, giving thirty-two additional pews, and adding much to the convenience of the building and to the comfort of the congregation. As this improvement could only be effected by taking down the front wall and tower, and extending to the street line, it was rendered considerably more troublesome and expensive than it would have otherwise been. But the interior of the edifice is now better proportioned, as well as more spacious, and the number of attendants on divine worship has much increased. The Sunday School room has also been enlarged, so that it can now accommodate four hundred.

The Church was closed for this purpose, after the first Sunday in August. Divine service was resumed in the lecture room, on the 5th November, and in the Church, on the 14th January. During the time their own Sanctuary was closed, the Parishioners received from the vestry of Trinity Church a kind offer of the Old Swedes' Church for their use, and were indebted to the congregation of Trinity Church, for a courteous welcome to their pews.

The Rev. Samuel Hazlehurst has been assisting the Rector in Parochial duties since November, and has accepted an invitation from the vestry to become Assistant Minister. The blessing of the Lord has, we trust, not been withheld from the ministry of his word and ordinances, and there is much in the review of the last year, to cheer our hearts and strengthen our faith.

REPORT OF THE REV. SAMUEL HAZLEHURST, ASSISTANT MINISTER OF ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, WILMINGTON.

My duties in this Parish, commenced the 12th November, 1854. In addition to reading the service for the Rector and preaching during his absence, I have baptised one infant and officiated at one funeral. I have also held one service every other Sunday, at the Union Meeting house, in Brandywine Hundred.

WILLIAM H. BROOKS, Late Rector.

REMARKS.—This Report extends to March 8th, 1855, at which time I resigned the Rectorship of the Parish, having accepted a call to the Rectorship of Trinity Church, Lenox, Diocese of Massachusetts. During the past winter a Rector's Bible Class was held on Friday evenings; it was occupied with the examination of the book of Genesis. Besides the 25 communicants reported above, there are enrolled on the Parish Register, at their own request, the names of 14 others who consider themselves as connected with the Parish.—These persons have emigrated from Ireland within the last three years, and the most of them, before coming to the United States were communicants of the Established Church of England and Ireland. Owing to the distance at which they live from the Church, and having no conveyances of their own, many of them have not been able to participate in the Communion, whilst the rest have but seldom enjoyed that holy ordinance; it is on this account that they are not reported as communicants, in the full sense of that term. The Rector has endeavored by frequent parochial visits, and the distribution of Bibles, Prayer Books, Tracts and Papers, to supply their spiritual wants.

REPORT OF CLERICAL SERVICES BY THE REV. A. S. COLTON, FOR THE YEAR ENDING MAY 18th, 1855.

From May 7th to October 29th, 1854, I officiated afternoons, every second Sunday, at the Union Church, Brandywine Hundred, and since that occasionally, in company with the Rev. Samuel Hazlehurst.

From May 28th to October 15th, 1854, every second Sunday, in the morning at Fort Delaware, and in the afternoon at Delaware City.

Other services in preaching have been, once at the Alms House, twice at St. Andrew's, twice at Christ Church, Christiana Hundred, eleven times at St. Thomas', Newark, fourteen times at Marcus Hook, Pa., twice at Chester, and three times in Philadelphia.

REMARKS.—Of the five baptisms reported above, it is sad to remark, that three of them were left to be performed in the sick room. A weekly meeting of the Communicants, has been held at the Rector's study, Monday afternoons, for social exercises, prayer and conversation. Much good is looked for from this effort to bring Communicants together. During last winter I performed missionary service several times, on the afternoons of Sunday, at Blackbird. During the summer and fall months, I preached once in two weeks in like manner, at a missionary point about three miles from Smyrna.

I am happy to report decided indications of improvement and progress, in this Congregation. The attendance on the public services continues good. And the spirit of knowledge and true godliness is evidently increased.

The Church has recently been new painted internally, and carpeted, which, with the purchase of a small Organ last summer, has occasioned the expenditure noticed above.

Of the Communicants reported last year, one has recently been removed to her reward in the better world. The present number is about the same as then. The Sunday School of the Parish is in a very flourishing condition, and is indeed the hope of the Church, in this her season of embarrassment and destitution. It is under the excellent management of the Rev. David McIlvaine, Deacon : who also continues to be useful in the various duties of his ministry, most cheerfully and constantly performed. The enterprise of building a new Church progresses slowly, but nevertheless progresses. A considerable portion of the material is procured and paid for, and it is expected the work of laying the wall will be begun in a few days. The hope is entertained that the house may be enclosed before next winter ; and afterwards gradually completed, as the means may be got in hand.

There were two Sunday Schools in this Parish, during the summer of 1854: one at the Church consisting of about twelve children, taught by myself with occasional assistance from others; and another at the distance of several miles from the Church, under the care of a vestryman, sometimes aided in teaching by another person, which school was attended by about twenty children. I have formed a catechetical class at the Church this spring, which as yet is composed of five children.

CONSTITUTION
OF THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE.

ARTICLE I.

Of acceding to the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention.

This Church, as a constituent part of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, accedes to, recognizes and adopts the general Constitution of that Church, and acknowledges its authority accordingly.

ARTICLE II.

Of the Meetings of the Diocesan Convention.

The Annual Convention of this Diocese shall be held on the last Wednesday in May, in each year, Provided, however, that in case of a prevailing contagious disease in the place thus designated; or a domestic insurrection in, or of an invasion of the county so named for holding the Convention, by a public enemy—that the Bishop, with the approbation of the Standing Committee; or the Standing Committee, if there be no Bishop, may appoint such other place for the annual meeting of the Convention, as they may deem expedient; of which change of the place of holding the Convention, due public notice shall be given, and also special notice to the ministers of the several parishes in this State, at such place as a previous Convention may designate. The time of meeting may be altered, from time to time, by the Convention. And special Conventions may be called by the Bishop, or, if there be none, by the Standing Committee; one month's previous notice being given.

ARTICLE III.

Of Members of the Convention.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly settled in some congregation in this Diocese; and of Lay Members, consisting of two Delegates from each congregation, to be which shall consist of three of the clergy, and two of the laity. This committee shall continue in office until the end of the next Annual Convention, or until their successors are duly appointed. In case of a vacancy occurring, by death or otherwise, the remaining members of the committee, shall, by ballot, supply the same. The Standing Committee shall, as soon as may be after their appointment, elect from their own body a president and secretary; and if either of these offices become vacant, the vacancy shall, without delay, be filled by another election. The president shall be a presbyter. The Standing Committee shall present, to each Annual Convention, an abstract of the minutes of their proceedings since the former Convention.

ARTICLE IX.

Of the Election of a Bishop.

The election of a Bishop of this Diocese shall be made in Convention, in the following manner. The order of the clergy shall nominate and appoint, by ballot, some fit and qualified Presbyter for that office; and the votes of two thirds of that order shall be requisite to constitute a choice: and thereupon, such appointment shall be presented to the order of lay delegates, and be considered by them; and if, on a ballot it should appear that the person so nominated be approved of by two-thirds of the lay order, he shall then be declared to be duly elected. And upon a vacancy occurring in the Episcopal Office in this Church, by death or otherwise, such vacancy shall be supplied by an election in the manner before prescribed. No election for a Bishop shall be held, unless there be present at the time three-fourths of all the clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and delegates from three-fourths of all the congregations in union with the same, and contributing to the Convention fund.

ARTICLE X.

Of the trial of Clergymen.

SECTION 1. Any Presbyter or Deacon of this Diocese may be presented for trial, for any crime or other offence, as provided in Canon XXXVII, of 1832, of the General Convention.*

*CANONS OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF 1832.

CANON XXXVII.

Of Offences for which Ministers shall be tried and punished.

SECTION 1. Every minister shall be liable to presentment and trial, for any crime or gross immorality, for disorderly conduct, for drunkenness, for profane

Sec. 2. Every such presentment shall be made, in writing, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, in case of a vacancy in the office of Bishop, to the president of the Standing Committee.

Sec. 3. A presentment shall specify, with clearness and certainty, the offence or offences charged, and shall be signed by the persons making it.

Sec. 4. A presentment shall be made by a majority of the Vestry, in a Vestry meeting duly convened, of the parish with which the person accused is connected; or, if he be not connected with any parish, in which he resides; or, if he do not reside within the limits of any parish, of the parish nearest to his place of residence; or by four or more male communicants of the same; or by two presbyters of this diocese; a presentment being always made by one of the above classes, exclusive of the others; and a Deacon not being permitted to unite in a presentment.

Sec. 5. Upon the receipt of any such presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop, if he shall deem it advisable, after consultation with the Standing Committee, or with the President of the Standing Committee, as the case may be, after such advisement, to take measures for trial, and to furnish a copy of said presentment to the accused, giving him notice of the time and place of trial.

Sec. 6. The Bishop shall thereupon summon all the Presbyters of this Diocese, except such as may have presented, to meet at some convenient place within the same, on some day not less than thirty days after the date of said summons; of which Presbyters, any three or more attending, shall be the Court for the trial of the party accused, to decide upon his guilt or innocence, and, if found guilty, to recommend a sentence by a majority of voices.

Sec. 7. A copy of the presentment, and a notice of the summons of the said Presbyters, shall be served upon the party accused, at least twenty days before the day appointed for trial, by delivering the same to him personally, or by leaving the same at his place of residence, or his last place of residence in this State, if he have left the same, or can not be found.

swearing, for frequenting places most liable to be abused to licentiousness, and for violation of the Constitution or Canons of this Church, or of the Diocese to which he belongs; and on being found guilty, he shall be admonished, suspended or degraded, according to the Canons of the Diocese in which the trial takes place, until otherwise provided for by the General Convention.

which shall consist of three of the clergy, and two of the laity. This committee shall continue in office until the end of the next Annual Convention, or until their successors are duly appointed. In case of a vacancy occurring, by death or otherwise, the remaining members of the committee, shall, by ballot, supply the same. The Standing Committee shall, as soon as may be after their appointment, elect from their own body a president and secretary; and if either of these offices become vacant, the vacancy shall, without delay, be filled by another election. The president shall be a presbyter. The Standing Committee shall present, to each Annual Convention, an abstract of the minutes of their proceedings since the former Convention.

ARTICLE IX.

Of the Election of a Bishop.

The election of a Bishop of this Diocese shall be made in Convention, in the following manner. The order of the clergy shall nominate and appoint, by ballot, some fit and qualified Presbyter for that office; and the votes of two thirds of that order shall be requisite to constitute a choice: and thereupon, such appointment shall be presented to the order of lay delegates, and be considered by them; and if, on a ballot it should appear that the person so nominated be approved of by two-thirds of the lay order, he shall then be declared to be duly elected. And upon a vacancy occurring in the Episcopal Office in this Church, by death or otherwise, such vacancy shall be supplied by an election in the manner before prescribed. No election for a Bishop shall be held, unless there be present at the time three-fourths of all the clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and delegates from three-fourths of all the congregations in union with the same, and contributing to the Convention fund.

ARTICLE X.

Of the trial of Clergymen.

SECTION 1. Any Presbyter or Deacon of this Diocese may be presented for trial, for any crime or other offence, as provided in Canon XXXVII, of 1832, of the General Convention.*

*CANONS OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF 1832.

CANON XXXVII.

Of Offences for which Ministers shall be tried and punished.

SECTION 1. Every minister shall be liable to presentment and trial, for any crime or gross immorality, for disorderly conduct, for drunkenness, for profane

SEC. 2. Every such presentment shall be made, in writing, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, in case of a vacancy in the office of Bishop, to the president of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 3. A presentment shall specify, with clearness and certainty, the offence or offences charged, and shall be signed by the persons making it.

SEC. 4. A presentment shall be made by a majority of the Vestry, in a Vestry meeting duly convened, of the parish with which the person accused is connected; or, if he be not connected with any parish, in which he resides; or, if he do not reside within the limits of any parish, of the parish nearest to his place of residence; or by four or more male communicants of the same; or by two presbyters of this diocese; a presentment being always made by one of the above classes, exclusive of the others; and a Deacon not being permitted to unite in a presentment.

SEC. 5. Upon the receipt of any such presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop, if he shall deem it advisable, after consultation with the Standing Committee, or with the President of the Standing Committee, as the case may be, after such advisement, to take measures for trial, and to furnish a copy of said presentment to the accused, giving him notice of the time and place of trial.

SEC. 6. The Bishop shall thereupon summon all the Presbyters of this Diocese, except such as may have presented, to meet at some convenient place within the same, on some day not less than thirty days after the date of said summons; of which Presbyters, any three or more attending, shall be the Court for the trial of the party accused, to decide upon his guilt or innocence, and, if found guilty, to recommend a sentence by a majority of voices.

SEC. 7. A copy of the presentment, and a notice of the summons of the said Presbyters, shall be served upon the party accused, at least twenty days before the day appointed for trial, by delivering the same to him personally, or by leaving the same at his place of residence, or his last place of residence in this State, if he have left the same, or can not be found.

swearing, for frequenting places most liable to be abused to licentiousness, and for violation of the Constitution or Canons of this Church, or of the Diocese to which he belongs; and on being found guilty, he shall be admonished, suspended or degraded, according to the Canons of the Diocese in which the trial takes place, until otherwise provided for by the General Convention.

SEC. 8. The judgment of the Court shall be delivered to the Bishop with the records of the trial, and the sentence recommended; and the Bishop may pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided such sentence shall not exceed in severity that recommended by the Court of trial; and his sentence shall be final; or, if the Bishop deem it necessary to justice, he may order a new trial, to be held as hereinbefore directed.

SEC. 9. If there be no Bishop, the sentence of the Court shall be submitted to some neighboring Bishop, who may either order a new trial, or ratify and pronounce the said sentence, which shall then be final.

SEC. 10. Witnesses for the prosecution, and for the defence, at the request of the party accused, shall be summoned by the said Court, for a full and impartial hearing of the whole matter.

SEC. 11. The party accused shall have a right to be present at the trial, and to be heard in his defence; and may avail himself of the aid of counsel.

SEC. 12. The records of all proceedings on the presentment of a clergyman shall, after the final decision, be delivered to the Secretary of the Standing Committee, to be preserved with their papers.

SEC. 13. If the accused be acquitted, the Bishop or President of the Standing Committee, as the case may require, shall give him a certificate of acquittal, embracing a copy of the presentment; and he shall not be subject to presentment again, upon the same charge.

ARTICLE XI.

Of a Clergyman accused by public rumor.

SECTION. 1. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that a clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct, for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint two presbyters, as a committee of inquiry, to examine into the truth of such rumors or allegations, according to the provisions of Sec. 2, of Canon XXXVII, of the General Convention, of 1832.*

*SEC. 2. If any minister of this church shall be accused by public rumor, of discontinuing all exercise of the ministerial office without lawful cause, or of living in the habitual disuse of public worship, or of the holy eucharist, according to the offices of this church, or of being guilty of scandalous, disorderly or immoral conduct, or of violating the Canons, or preaching or inculcating hereti-

SEC. 2. Should the crime, offence or misdemeanor, of which said clergyman is accused, be found supported, in whole or in part, upon such inquiry, it shall be the duty of the Bishop, unless upon consultation with the Standing Committee, he shall deem such finding insufficient, to proceed to take measures for trial, as is provided in Article X. of the Constitution.

ARTICLE XII.

Of the admission of new Parishes.

Any Protestant Episcopal congregation within this State, duly organized, but not in union with the Convention of this Diocese at the time of ordaining this Constitution, shall be entitled to the entire benefit thereof, as soon as they shall signify their ratification of it, either in writing, or by sending lay delegates as members of the Convention; and such congregation shall thereafter be benefitted and bound by every rule or canon which shall be framed by any Convention, acting under the Constitution, for the government of this Church in its ecclesiastical concerns.

ARTICLE XIII.

Of Ministers, members of Vestries.

When not forbidden by the charter of any congregation, the presbyter, who is settled as the minister of the parish, shall be a member of the vestry thereof, and, when present, shall preside at its meetings.

ARTICLE XIV.

Of the Mode in which the Constitution may be Changed.

This Constitution shall be unalterable, except in the following manner: A proposition for any change shall be introduced in writing and considered in Convention, and, if approved of, the same shall be published at large in the Journal of the Convention; and, if again approved of in the next ensuing Convention, by a majority of the two orders, voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

cal doctrine, it shall be the duty of the Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, the Clerical Members of the Standing Committee, to see that an inquiry be instituted as to the truth of such public rumor. And in case of the individual being proceeded against and convicted, according to such rules or process as may be provided by the Conventions of the respective Dioceses, he shall be admonished, suspended or degraded as the nature of the case may require, in conformity with their respective Constitutions and Canons.

CANONS
OF THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE.

CANON. I.

A List to be made of the Clergy.

SEC. 1. Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church, canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective cures or parishes, or stations as missionaries, or of the colleges, academies, or general seminaries of learning in which they are engaged, or in regard to those who are not engaged in parishes, missions, or institutions of learning as above mentioned, their places of residence only, distinguishing those who are entitled to seats in the Convention.

SEC. 2. The right of any clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention, shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the third article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself; whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid, or omitted.

SEC. 3. If there be no Bishop, or none having provisional charge of this diocese, the president of the Standing Committee shall prepare the said list, and lay it before the Convention.

CANON II.

Certificates of Lay Delegates.

The appointment of a lay delegate to the Convention of this diocese shall be certified in writing by the rector of the parish of which he is a representative, or by one of the wardens, or by the clerk or secretary of the vestry of such church; and no other certificate of such appointment shall be allowed or received. And no lay delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be eligible to the office of vestryman of the church which he claims to represent.

CANON III.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. There shall be appointed by the Convention a Treasurer of the Church in this State, who shall be a man of good character and responsibility. He shall be removable at the pleasure of the Convention ; but, unless so removed, he shall continue in office until a successor is appointed. He shall keep a fair and exact account of all moneys received and paid by him ; and shall lay before the Convention, annually, or oftener if required, a full and accurate statement of his accounts. He shall pay no money but by order of the Convention, and shall, in all things relating to his office, conform to their rules and directions.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, during the recess of the Convention, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON IV.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Whereas by the XXIXth Canon of the General Convention of 1832, it is made the duty of every minister to keep a register of baptisms, confirmations, communicants, marriages and funerals, within his cure ; agreeably to such rules as may be provided by the Convention of the diocese where his cure lies—it is hereby ordered, that the record shall specify the name and time of birth of the child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors ; the name of the adult baptized ; the names of the persons confirmed ; the names of all the communicants within his cure as nearly as can be ascertained ; the names of the parties married, and the authority under which the rite was celebrated ; the names of the persons buried ; and also the time when each rite was performed, or each new communicant admitted. These records shall be kept by the minister, in a book to be provided for that purpose by the vestry of each church ; which book shall be the parish register, and shall be preserved by the vestry as a part of the records of the church.

Each minister shall also keep, as far as practicable, a list of all the families and adult persons within his cure, to remain for the use of his successor, and to be continued by him, and by the future ministers of the parish.

SEC. 2. And whereas, by the VIII Canon of the General Convention of 1841, it is made the duty of each minister to present or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop, or when there is none to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of baptisms, confirmations, marriages and funerals, and of the number of communicants in his cure, and of all other matters that may throw light on its condition : it is hereby further ordered, that in reporting the number of communicants, the minister shall state, beside the whole number at the time, the number of additions, removals, and deaths, since the last report.

SEC. 3. The above report shall also mention the number of teachers and scholars in Sunday Schools, and other Catechumens connected with the parish—and the amount of Contributions for religious and charitable objects, specifying them.

SEC. 4. When a parish is destitute of a minister, the register contemplated by this canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose. And the annual parochial report shall be presented or forwarded, as ordered in Sec. 2, by the Wardens.

CANON V.

Of the Report to the General Convention.

A committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same, next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, to draft with the advice and approbation of the Bishop if there be one, a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON VI.

Of the Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. Deputies to the General Convention shall be chosen by the concurrent ballot of the clerical and lay votes, at every stated Convention of this Diocese; and their appointment shall continue until the next stated Convention, or until others are chosen in their places.

SEC. 2. Should any deputy elected discover, one month before the meeting of the General Convention, his inability to attend, he shall notify the President of the Standing Committee of such inability, and it shall be the duty of the Committee to supply the vacancy occurring in this or in any other way, before the meeting of the Convention.

SEC. 3. Should a vacancy occur, by death or otherwise, in the deputation to the General Convention, it shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the remaining clerical and lay deputies, when it shall be practicable.

SEC. 4. Clerical deputies to the General Convention may present an account of their expenses, in their travel and attendance, to the Standing Committee, who shall make a reasonable allowance for the same, to be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention out of its funds.

CANON VII.

Of Lay Discipline.

SEC. 1. If a layman, repelled from the Holy Communion according to the rubric, shall complain thereof to the Bishop according to Canon XLII of the General Convention of 1832, the Bishop, (or his assistant Bishop,) whether belonging to the diocese or having provisional charge thereof, shall, unless he restore him to the Communion according to said canon, appoint two disinterested clergymen and two disinterested laymen who are communicants, to enquire into and try the case. If they report to the Bishop that the repelled person should be restored, the Bishop shall so direct; and no minister of this diocese shall deny him the holy Communion. If they report otherwise, or make no report within three months from their appointment, the repulsion shall continue in force.

If this judicatory for the trial of a layman shall be equally divided concerning the guilt of the accused, or the propriety of restoring him to the Communion, they may elect as umpire any other disinterested male communicant in this diocese, whether clerical or lay, and make their report within three months as aforesaid. And, at any time after conviction, if the judicatory do not define the term of the repulsion, the Bishop, (or his assistant Bishop,) or the minister of the parish being a presbyter, may restore the repelled person to the Holy Communion, according to the rubric.

SEC. 2. Communicants neglecting the Holy Communion or the public worship of the Church for the space of six months, without a reason satisfactory to their parochial minister, or leading inconsistent and immoral lives, may, after admonition, be suspended by the minister from the Communion; and if, within a reasonable time, there is no satisfactory proof given of reformation, their names shall be removed from the Parochial Register of Communicants; and they shall be considered as repelled, and notified thereof. Notice in all such cases to be given to the Bishop according to the provision of the rubric concerning repulsion, and the same proceedings may be had as provided in Sec. 1.

SEC. 3. A layman under repulsion from the Holy Communion, if visited with extreme or mortal sickness, may be re-admitted to that ordinance without trial, or after conviction, if the Presbyter attending him deem him truly penitent, and in charity with all men.

CANON VIII.

Of Trials and Penalties.

SEC. 1. All trials, whether of clergymen or laymen, shall be in public, if the party accused so require, unless the judicatory are of opinion that such publicity will occasion unholy scoffing, and be contrary to edification. When a public trial is refused, the accused may have present any six male communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and the party presenting or prosecuting may have present the same number of other such communicants.

SEC. 2. Witnesses at any trial may, if demanded by either party, be put on oath. Written evidence may be admitted, on either side, the other party having had sufficient notice of the time and place of taking the same, and being allowed to attend when it was taken; and the persons examined for the written evidence may also be put on oath.

SEC. 3. Counsel shall be allowed the accused, if he require it; in which case, the party presenting or prosecuting shall be allowed the same privilege. And every judicatory may have counsel, as they shall desire.

CANON IX.

Of the Missionary and Education Committee.

SEC. 1. At each Annual Convention there shall be appointed a Committee, consisting of the Bishop of the Diocese, ex-officio, and two clergymen and two laymen elected by ballot, to be called the Missionary and Education Committee, to which shall be entrusted the charge of conducting the operations of the Church in behalf of Missions, Education, and benevolent objects connected therewith.— This committee shall elect a Secretary and Treasurer, and report their doings to the next stated Convention, and their appointment shall continue until the next annual Convention, or until others are chosen in their places.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Parish to raise contributions for the purposes designated in the following section, by collection or otherwise, monthly or oftener, which shall be remitted quarterly to the Treasurer.

Sec. 3. The committee shall employ the funds so transmitted to them in support of Missionaries laboring within this Diocese, (such Missionaries being always nominated by the Bishop,) or transmit the same, or a portion thereof, to the Domestic or the Foreign Committee of the General Board of Missions; or employ a portion thereof in assisting deserving and indigent candidates for the sacred ministry in their necessary preparation for the same; or in the erection or repair of churches in feeble Parishes, at their discretion. But any Parish or donor may direct the application, wholly or in part, of their contributions, which directions shall be strictly observed.

CANON X.

Of the Convention Fund.

Each congregation in the Diocese shall pay annually the sum of five dollars, and in addition to that sum, each congregation having over twenty communicants and not exceeding thirty, shall pay one dollar; and every congregation having over thirty and not exceeding forty communicants, shall pay three dollars; and every congregation having over forty and not exceeding sixty communicants, shall pay five dollars; and every congregation having over sixty and not exceeding one hundred communicants, shall pay seven dollars; and every congregation having over one hundred communicants shall pay ten dollars, for defraying the expenses and charges to which the Convention is liable.

CANON XI.

Of the Vestry of a Church.

Sec. 1. In every church in this Diocese there shall be an annual election, on Easter Monday, unless some other day be appointed, of a Vestry, consisting of not less than five, nor more than nine members, which number, unless specified by articles of association or by Charter, shall be designated before the election takes place, who shall continue in office until their successors are appointed; and they shall have power to fill all vacancies which may occur during the year, and be judges of their own election; and in such elections a plurality of votes shall decide the choice. Two of these Vestrymen shall be designated at the election to serve as Wardens,—one of whom shall be designated the Senior Warden of the Parish—who, in the absence of the Rector, shall preside at the meetings of the Vestry. In the absence of both, the Junior Warden shall preside. The Vestry shall elect a Secretary, whose duty it shall be to take and record the minutes of their proceedings—attest the public acts of the Vestry—preserve all records and papers belonging to the Parish—perform such other duty as shall be legally assigned him, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and documents of the Parish that may be in his possession.

SEC. 2. No person shall be entitled to vote at such election who is not a pew or seat holder, or renter, or an annual subscriber to the support of the minister of the church, or a male communicant of the same.

SEC. 3. No person shall be eligible as a Vestryman who is not a qualified voter in the parish, according to the provision of Sec. 2, and an habitual attendant upon the services of the church for which he is elected.

SEC. 4. If any Vestryman shall be guilty of scandalous or immoral conduct, or shall be notoriously immoral in his general character, or entirely neglect attendance upon public worship, it shall be the duty of the minister, or in case there shall be no minister, of the Senior Warden, to present him to the Vestry, who shall have power, on being satisfied of his guilt, to expel him, provided always, that at least a majority of the whole number concur in such expulsion, and that the person expelled shall have a right to appeal to the Bishop.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Vestry to take charge of the property of the church, to regulate all its temporal concerns, to elect and call a minister, and to provide for his maintenance, to keep order in the church during the celebration of divine worship, and in general, to act as helpers to the minister, in whatever is appropriate to laymen, for the furtherance of the Gospel; it being understood, always, that the spiritual concerns of the church are under the exclusive direction of the minister, in subordination to the ecclesiastical authority and laws of the Diocese.

It shall be the duty of the Wardens especially, to provide the elements for the Lord's Supper, to collect the alms and offerings at the administration of the same, to keep and disburse such alms in case the church is destitute of a minister, and while the church is destitute of a minister, to provide for the celebration of public worship by ecasional clerical services, or by lay reading, under the advice of the Bishop.

Meetings of the Vestry shall be called by the Rector, or, in his absence, by the Senior Warden—and meetings shall be called at the request of two Vestrymen. The Vestry may adjourn, from time to time, at their pleasure.

(Parishes now in union with the Convention are excepted from any parts of this Canon interfering with their charters, articles of association, or by-laws.)

CANON XII.

Of Lay Readers.

No one shall be considered as authorized to officiate as a Lay Reader in this Diocese, except in cases of particular emergency, without a written license from the Bishop; and lay readers shall, in all cases, conform to the provisions of Canon XI of 1832, of the General Convention.

CANON XIII.

Of Trustees of Bishop's Fund, &c.

At the present, and at each future annual Convention, five Trustees of the "fund for the support of a Bishop, and to aid missionaries and necessitous ministers, their widows and children," shall be elected by concurrent ballot of both orders: to continue in office until the next annual Convention thereafter, or until their successors are duly appointed. In case of vacancy, by death or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the remaining Trustees to notify the Standing Committee of the Diocese thereof, and it shall be the duty of the said committee to supply such vacancy, as soon as they shall have knowledge of the same, by such notice, or otherwise.

CANON XIV.

Of Elections.

In all Elections, not otherwise provided for and regulated by the constitution of the P. E. Church in this State, the votes of a majority of all the members present; or, if voting by orders, of a majority of all present of the respective orders, shall be necessary to a choice.

CANON XV.

Of Episcopal Contributions.

It shall be the duty of the Wardens of every Parish, to collect at the rate of fifty cents annually for each communicant therein, together with such other voluntary contributions as may be made to them for the same object, either privately or by public collections for that object, in their respective parishes, and pay the same over annually to the Treasurer of the Convention for the time being, subject to the Bishop's order, for his own private use.

CANON XVI.

Of Alterations and Additions to the Canons.

No proposition to alter or add to the Canons of the Diocese shall be considered by the Convention except at a stated meeting, ~~nor~~ (unless by unanimous consent) until it shall have been reported on by a committee. Nor shall such alteration or addition be ~~adopted~~ during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the members ~~present~~, shall not concur therein; but in such case, the same, (unless ~~negatived~~ by a majority of the votes,) shall lie over for consideration ~~at~~ the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Repealing former Canons.

JOURNAL

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, LEWES, MAY 28, 1856.

THIS being the day fixed by the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Delaware, for the meeting of the Annual Convention of the same, the Bishop of the Diocese, with a number of the Clergy and Lay Delegates, assembled at 9 o'clock, A. M., in St. Peter's Church, Lewes.

The Convention having been called to order by the Bishop, no Secretary being present, the Rev. A. S. Colton was appointed Secretary pro tem, who called the names of such of the Clergy as are entitled to seats in the Convention, under the Constitution, when the following gentlemen answered to their names, viz :

The Rt. Rev. Alfred Lee, D. D.,
" Samuel C. Brinckle,
" Thomas F. Billopp,
" Charles Breck,
" Richard F. Cadle,
" Samuel T. Carpenter,
" John B. Clemson, D. D.,
" Asa S. Colton,
" George Sheets,
" Samuel R. Slack,
" William Wright.

The Rev. S. C. Brinckle and William T. Read, Esq., were appointed a committee to receive and examine the certificates of Lay Delegates.

Of the Lay Delegates reported by the Committee as duly elected, the following gentlemen answered to their names and took seats in the Convention, viz :

Ascension Church, Brandywine Hundred,
 St. Andrew's, Wilmington,
 Trinity Church, Wilmington,
 Christ Church, Christiana Hundred,
 Immanuel, New Castle,
 St. Thomas', Newark,
 St. Paul's, Georgetown,
 St. Peter's, Lewes,
 St. Mark's, Millsboro,
 Grace Church, Baltimore Mills,
 St. Luke's, Seaford,
 Christ Church, Broad Creek,
 St. George's, Indian River,

Thomas G. Clemson.
 { Samuel Bailly,
 John B. Lewis.
 H. H. J. Naff.
 Capt. S. F. Du Pont.
 William T. Read.
 { Benjamin Caulk,

A constitutional quorum being present, the Convention pursuant to the sixth Article of the Constitution then proceeded to the election of a Secretary.

The Rev. Thomas F. Billopp and Henry F. Rodney were appointed tellers, and on the first ballot reported the Rev. Asa S. Colton unanimously elected.

Whereupon, the Chair declared the Rev. Asa S. Colton to be Secretary of the Convention for the ensuing year.

On motion of the Rev. Thomas F. Billopp, it was

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, not belonging to this Diocese, and students of theology, who are candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, who may be present, be and they are hereby invited to attend the sittings of the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. S. C. Brinckle, it was Resolved, That the order of the day for the opening of the afternoon session be the election of Delegates for the General Convention.

The Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted as the Rules of Order of the present session.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The business of every day shall be introduced with prayer.
2. When the President takes the chair no member shall continue standing nor shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the chair.

3. No member shall absent himself from the service of the house, unless he have leave, or be unable to attend.

4. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, shall with due respect address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

5. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, without leave of the house.

6. A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of the house, and shall not be again drawn into debate during the same session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the house.

7. If a question in debate contain more parts than one, any member may have the same divided into as many questions as there are parts.

8. While the President is putting any question, no one shall hold private discourse, stand up, walk into, out of, or across the house, or read any book.

9. Every member who shall be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be particularly interested in the decision.

10. No motion shall be considered as before the house, unless it be seconded, and reduced to writing, when required.

11. When any question is before the house, it shall be determined on before any new thing is introduced, except the question for adjournment.

12. The question on a motion for adjournment shall be taken before any other and without debate.

13. When the house is about to rise, every member shall keep his seat until the President leaves the chair.

14. The Journals of the Convention shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and a copy sent to each member of the Convention.

15. The charge or sermon, when delivered by the Bishop before the Convention, shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and one copy sent to each clergyman, and ten copies to each vestry in the Diocese.

The Convention then took a recess for Divine service.

The order for daily morning prayer was read as far as the Creed, by the Rev. J. B. Clemson, D. D., and concluded by the Rev. Charles Breck. The Ante-Communion service was read, and the sermon preached by the Bishop. The Holy Communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. R. F. Cadle.

The Congregation having been dismissed, the Bishop resumed the Chair, and after calling the house to order, the Convention again proceeded to business.

On motion of the Rev. C. Breck, Calvary Church, Brandywine Hundred, and St. John's Church, Brandywine Village, were admitted into Union with the Convention.

Certificates of the election of Lay Delegates by these Parishes were then presented, and the names of the delegates being called by the Secretary, the following gentlemen answered to their names, and took their seats in the Convention.

Manlove R. Carlisle, Lay Delegate from Christ Church, Milford, also appeared and took his seat.

The Convention then adjourned till 2½ o'clock, P. M.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, LEWES, MAY 28, 1856. }
2½ o'clock, P. M. }

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

The Bishop took the Chair and called the house to order.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

On motion, the Convention took up the order of the day, viz: the election of Delegates to the General Convention.

Rev. John B. Clemson, D. D., and Rev. William Wright were appointed tellers for the Clergy, and Benjamin Caulk, Esq., and C. Rodney Layton, Esq., on the part of the Laity.

On the first ballot, the Rev. George Sheets, the Rev. S. C. Brinckle and the Rev. Samuel T. Carpenter of the Clergy, and Capt. S. F. Du Pont and Mr. Solomon M. Curtis of the Laity, were declared by the Chair duly elected.

On the second ballot, Mr. A. I. Du Pont was duly elected Lay Delegate; and, on the fifth ballot, the Rev. John B. Clemson, D. D., of the Clergy and James F. Burton, Esq., of the Laity were chosen.

On motion of Mr. John B. Lewis,

Resolved, That the account of Henry Eckel, $80, for printing the Journal of 1855 be allowed; as also, the account of the Secretary of the last year, $10.70.

The President appointed as a committee to audit the Treasurer's Accounts, Mr. Benjamin Burton and Mr. Chas. Wright.

On motion of the Rev. S. T. Carpenter, it was

Resolved, That the Convention hear the report of the Missionary Committee.

It was accordingly read by the mover of the resolution.

On motion of the Rev. S. R. Slack,

Resolved, That the Secretary append to the report of the Missionary Committee the additional sums contributed by the Parishes to Foreign and Domestic Missions, which are not embraced in the report of the committee.

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MISSIONARY AND EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

Your Committee are encouraged to believe that the interest of our Clergy and Congregations in the great cause of Christian Missions, has been during the last twelve months sustained and increasing. While we have reason to be humbled before God that our charity is not more fervent and our alms more abundant, we are still assured that the Missionary work is dear to the hearts of many of our people, and we are glad to notice some advance in the amount contributed, over several previous years, particularly in the Department of Foreign Missions. This branch of our efforts has been promoted by the zealous and efficient co-operation of the Rev. John B. Clemson, who has been appointed by the Foreign Committee of our Board, their agent in Delaware. As our Missionaries in Sussex held direct appointments from the Domestic Committee, the office of your committee during the last year, as well as several preceding, has been chiefly that of transmitting to the Central Committees, and to other objects, the funds put into their hands, according to the direction of the donors. If all the Missionary collections of the Diocese passed through the Treasurer's hands, there would be the advantage of presenting in their Annual Reports a perfect exhibit of what we are doing for the extension of the Gospel beyond the limit of our respective parishes. There have been directly forwarded to the Central Committees, or for other purposes, considerable amounts in addition to those which we report.

The only direct appointment made by your committee since their last report, has been that of the Rev. A. S. Colton, as Missionary at the New Castle County Alms House. As our Lord has expressly told us, that unto the poor the gospel is preached, and has specially commended them to the benevolence of his more favored disciples, the committee gladly availed themselves of the opportunity of securing, so far as they might, the regular ministrations of the Gospel for the infirm and indigent.

Annexed is a statement of receipts and appropriations since the last Convention.

Mr. S. M. Curtis and Mr. James Stuart were appointed a committee to audit the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Fund for the Relief of Disabled Clergymen.

They reported the accounts correct, and the report was accepted.

The Rev. Thomas F. Billopp moved that the IVth Article of the Constitution, entitled, "Of a Quorum," be altered so as to read "six members of the Clerical and twelve of the Lay order shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, &c." This was adopted, and laid over for final action at the next Convention.

The Rev. John L. McKim appeared and took his seat.

Mr. Samuel Baily presented and read the Annual Report of the Standing Committee, as follows :

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware respectfully submit to the Convention an abstract of their proceedings since the last Convention. The committee have had but two sessions the present year.

On the 10th day of April, 1856, the committee signed testimonials recommending Mr. William Allibone Newbold, a candidate for orders.

On the 13th of May, 1856, the committee signed testimonials of Thomas G. Clemson, a candidate for orders, also testimonials were signed on behalf of Messrs. William H. D. Hatton and William Marshall, recommending them for the sacred order of Deacons in the Church of God.

SAMUEL BAILY, Sec'ry.

William T. Read, Esq., moved the following resolution, which was adopted, viz :

WHEREAS, The books and papers pertaining to the Diocese of Delaware, have accumulated and are annually increasing in number, by the Journals of Convention of the other Dioceses, forwarded to the Secretary of the Convention of this Diocese: And whereas, this accumulation renders the transfer of the said books and papers, by the Secretary of the Diocesan Convention to his successor, cumbersome and attended with risk to their safety, therefore, in order to provide for the more safe preservation of the same; be it

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to examine, arrange and classify the Journals of the General and Diocesan Conventions now in possession of the Secretary of the Convention, and to procure those that are missing, from the proper persons, and have the same bound in volumes of convenient size.

On this committee, the Chair appointed the Rev. A. S. Colton, A. I. Du Pont and Wm. T. Read, Esqs.

Mr. Samuel Baily read a communication from the Secretary of the General Convention, touching certain amendments of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, proposed at the last General Convention, 1853, adopted by both houses, and sent to the several Diocesan Conventions. They were read to the Convention as follows: (the changes from the present terms of the Constitution being italicised.)

PROPOSED ARTICLE II.

The Church in each Diocese shall be entitled to a representation of both the clergy and the laity. Such representation shall consist of not more than four clergymen and four laymen,—Communicants in this Church, residents in the Diocese, and chosen in the manner prescribed by the Convention thereof; and in all questions when required by the clerical and lay representation from any Diocese, each order shall have one vote; and the majority of suffrages by Dioceses shall be conclusive in each order, provided such majority comprehend a majority of the Dioceses represented in that order. The concurrence of both orders shall be necessary to constitute a vote of the Convention. If the Convention of any Diocese should neglect or decline to appoint clerical deputies, or if they should neglect or decline to appoint lay deputies, or if any of those of either order appointed should neglect to attend or be prevented by sickness or any other accident, such Diocese shall nevertheless be considered as duly represented by such deputy or deputies as may attend, whether lay or clerical. And if, through the neglect of the Convention of any of the Churches which shall have adopted, or may hereafter adopt this Constitution, no deputies, either lay or clerical, should attend at any General Convention, the Church in such Diocese shall nevertheless be bound by the acts of such Convention.

PROPOSED ARTICLE V.

A Protestant Episcopal Church in any of the United States, or any territory thereof, not now represented, may, at any time hereafter, be admitted on acceding to this Constitution: and a new Diocese to be formed from one or more existing Dioceses, may be admitted under the following restrictions.

No new Diocese shall be formed or erected within the limits of any other Diocese, nor shall any Diocese be formed by the junction of two or more Dioceses, or parts of Dioceses, unless with the consent of the Bishop and Convention of each of the Dioceses concerned, as well as of the General Convention.

No such new Diocese shall be formed which shall contain less than fifteen self-supporting parishes, or less than fifteen presbyters who have been for at least one year canonically resident within the bounds of such new Diocese, regularly settled in a parish or congregation, and qualified to vote for a Bishop. Nor shall such new Diocese be formed if thereby any existing Diocese shall be so reduced as to contain less than thirty self-supporting parishes, or less than twenty presbyters who have been residing therein and settled and qualified as above mentioned, provided that no city shall form more than one Diocese.

In case one Diocese shall be divided into two Dioceses, the Diocesan of the Diocese divided may elect the one to which he will be attached, and shall thereupon become the Diocesan thereof. And the Assistant Bishop, if there be one may elect the one, to which he will be attached; and if it be not the one elected by the Bishop, he shall be the Diocesan thereof.

Whenever the division of the Diocese into two Dioceses shall be ratified by the General Convention, each of the two Dioceses shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese so divided, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same may be altered in either Diocese by the Convention thereof. And whenever a Diocese shall be formed out of two or more existing Dioceses, the new Diocese shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of that one of the said existing Dioceses, to which the greater number of Clergymen shall have belonged prior to the erection of such new Diocese, until the same may be altered by the Convention of the new Diocese.

ARTICLE VI.

The mode of trying Bishops shall be provided by the General Convention. The Court appointed for that purpose, shall be composed of Bishops only. In every Diocese, the mode of trying Presbyters and Deacons may be instituted by the Convention of the Diocese until the General Convention shall provide a uniform mode of trial. None but a Bishop shall pronounce sentence of admonition, suspension, or degradation from the ministry, on any clergyman, whether Bishop, Presbyter, or Deacon.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Clemson, the election of the Standing Committee, as also of the Missionary Committee for the ensuing year, was indefinitely postponed.

The Rev. John B. Clemson, D. D., read the report of the Committee for the Relief of Disabled Clergymen, which was accepted, and the committee was discharged.

On motion of the Rev. John L. McKim,

Resolved, That the Rev Charles Breck, Mr. John B. Lewis and Mr. Samuel Baily, be a committee to receive and disburse such funds as may be obtained by contributions from the Churches of the Diocese and from other sources, for the benefit of disabled Clergymen during the ensuing Conventional year.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Clemson, that the next Annual Meeting of this Convention be held in Newark, on the 1st Wednesday in June, 1857, at 9 o'clock, A. M.

Mr. Samuel Baily moved to amend by inserting in the place of Newark, St. Andrew's Church Wilmington, which amendment was adopted, and the resolution, as amended, passed.

The Bishop read his Annual Address.

ADDRESS

To the Clerical and Lay Members of the sixty-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Delaware.

DEAR BRETHREN :

Among the first thoughts that occur to us at our present meeting is the void that hath been made since we last convened, in the little band of our clerical laborers, by the Providence of Almighty God—the first event of the kind for thirteen years. We miss one of our number who had united in our counsels and shared our toils and cares. The earthly work of the Rev. Hiram R. Harrold was sooner done than any of us had thought of. Having little more than passed the meridian of life, in the full and active discharge of his ministerial duties, he was suddenly prostrated by severe disease, and after a very short illness was released from the sufferings and conflicts of this mortal life. Our departed brother was of blameless life and conversation, and diligent in the performance of the duties of his sacred office. Until the week before his death he continued to labor in the ministry of reconciliation, and to feed the flock of Christ. The unexpected rupture of the bond between himself and his people, has awakened their sincere grief and regret. May this affecting Providence lead us all, pastors and people, to aim more earnestly that our mutual connection be not unblessed, since it may be so speedily dissolved. May we together work while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work. If any of us who labor in the ministry of reconciliation should be summoned, as our deceased brother was, at an unlooked for moment, to give an account of our stewardship, may we be found with our loins girt about and our lamps burning, busy in the Lord's vineyard, preaching not ourselves but Christ crucified, making full proof of our ministry. And may the members of our respective flocks receive with meekness the engrafted word which is able to save their souls, sustain their pastors with their prayers and kind offices, and esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake, so that pastors and people may together meet in the Kingdom of Christ. In addition to this inroad, Death has claimed his usual tribute during the year. St. Ann's Church has not only been bereaved of its Rector, but of highly valued members. One of these, the late Mrs. Gibbs, had been widely known as a Mother in Israel, and full of years and ripened in grace, hath fallen asleep, with the sincere regret and affectionate veneration of all who knew her.

St. Mark's Church, Millsboro', has lost its Warden, Mr. Joshua Wharton, a man whose amiable character, unspotted life and devotion to the interests of the Church for many years, cause him to be sorely missed and deeply regretted.

During the past Winter and Spring I have to some extent assisted the Rt. Rev. Bishop Potter, of Pennsylvania, whose health called for some respite from his abundant and exhausting duties. As the Dio cess of Delaware was for so many years indebted to the Bishops of Pennsylvania, for freely rendered services, it was gratifying to me, as I doubt not it will be to the Convention, that I was able to make any return for the same.

In October last, I was present at the meeting of the Board of Missions in the city of New York, an occasion to be remembered for the manifestation of brotherly love and fervent zeal for the extension of our Redeemer's Kingdom. If the spirit of that meeting could be diffused throughout our Church, it would be the dawn of a new era in her history.

In our Diocese several new parishes have been organized, which it is hoped will eventually become stable congregations. In the village of Newport, where an Episcopal Church once existed, a convenient and modest edifice has been purchased on very reasonable terms, and the Rev. Mr. Hazlehurst has been officiating regularly for the last six months, with a growing attendance and interest. In Brandywine Village and at the Union Meeting House in the same Hundred, steps have been taken for the organization of parishes.

On Sunday, May 4th, I took part in the first celebration of Divine Service in Christ Church, Christiana Hundred. For beauty of situation, good architecture, chaste and simple elegance and completeness of finish, this building is not surpassed by any in our Diocese. It can accommodate a large congregation, and promises to be filled. Great perseverance and liberality have been displayed in carrying onward the work to its successful completion, and the first opening of the edifice for the worship of God was a day of praise and thanksgiving to many hearts. We look in expecting faith for an abundant blessing on the labors of its experienced and devoted pastor, sustained as they are by an affectionate and zealous people.

The new parish of Grace Church, Baltimore Mills, still continues to promise well, and may eventually become one of the strongest in Sussex County. The extensive district in which the Rev. Mr. Hall had labored, was after a short interval, I am gratified to state, supplied by the acceptable services of the Rev. Mr. Wright.

CHURCHES VISITED.

The usual visitations of the Diocese have been made. On these occasions I have officiated by preaching at Ascension Church, Claymont; Trinity Church, Wilmington, twice; Christ Church, Christiana Hundred, three times; Immanuel Church, New Castle; St. James' Church, Stanton; St. Thomas' Church, Newark, five times; Christ Church, Delaware City, twice; Fort Delaware in the same parish, twice; St. Ann's Church, Middletown, three times; St. Peter's Church, Smyrna, four times; at Dover; Christ Church, Milford, twice; at Milton, twice; St. Paul's Church, Georgetown, twice; St. Peter's Church, Lewes, three times; St. George's, Indian River, twice; Chapel, at Long Neck, twice; St. Mark's, Millsboro, twice; Grace Church, Baltimore Mills, twice; St. John's, Little Hill, twice; St. Luke's Seaford, twice; Christ Church, Broad Creek, twice; St. Phillip's Laurel, twice: in all, exclusive of St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, fifty times.

At St. Ann's, Middletown, on the 30th April, I performed the mournful duty of committing to the earth the mortal remains of our deceased brother, the late Rector of that Church. Several of the Clergy of the Diocese were present and took part in the solemn services of the day. On the occasion of my recent visitation of the same parish, I baptized an adult who was also confirmed, and administered the Holy Communion. At Fort Delaware I baptized two infants; at Milton, one.

In the Diocese of Pennsylvania, I ordained one Presbyter and one Deacon, confirmed 268 persons, and delivered thirty-six sermons and addresses. I have also preached three times in New York, four times in Connecticut and twice in Maryland.

CLERICAL CHANGES.

There have been received into the Diocese since the last Convention, the Rev. Samuel R. Slack, by letter of dismissal from the Bishop of Virginia, accepted August 29th, 1855; and, the Rev. Wm. Wright, by letter from Bishop Payne, of the African Mission, accepted November 7th, 1855. The Rev. John Atkinson has been transferred to the Diocese of Maryland, letter accepted by Bishop Whittingham, September 18th, 1855. The Rev. George Hall has been transferred to Pennsylvania, letter accepted by Bishop Potter, October 1855.

The Rev Mr. Slack has become the Rector of St Thomas' Church, Newark. The Rev. Mr. Hall has resigned the charge of St. George's, Indian River, St. Mark's, Millsboro', and Grace Church, Baltimore Mills, and is succeeded in these parishes by Rev. William Wright. The Rev. Samuel Hazlehurst has resigned the office of assistant to the Rector of St. Andrew's, Wilmington, and is now officiating at Newport and, as mentioned in the last year's address, in Brandywine Hundred.

The only vacant parishes are St. Ann's, Middletown, and Christ Church, Delaware City. Services in the latter Church have only been occasional during the past year, although I have been in correspondence with several gentlemen in relation to taking charge of it, and hope it will not be much longer vacant.

CANDIDATES FOR ORDERS.

There have been admitted as candidates for holy orders: Mr. William Allibone Newbold, April 10th, 1856; and Mr. Thomas Green Clemson, May 13th, 1856.

The number at present belonging to the Diocese is five, viz:

William H. D. Hatton, from November 9th, 1853.

Thomas M. Martin, " July 21st, 1854.

William Marshall, " January 5th, 1855.

Wm. Allibone Newbold, " April 10th, 1856.

Thomas G. Clemson, " May 13th, 1856.

On the review of the year we thank God and take courage. It is not for us, in our limited Diocese, and with our previous hindrances and discouragements, to despise the day of small things, or to overlook any indications of the favoring hand of God. Let it be ours, by faithful labor and earnest prayer, to seek the blessing of our Great Head. We are not straitened in Him. But the reward will be proportioned to the labor, the faith, the devotedness of his people. It is only as the great doctrines of the cross of Christ are zealously and faithfully proclaimed, and the lives of professed disciples glorify the name of the Lord, that we may look for power from on high and the outpouring of the Spirit of grace. May He who has engaged that where two or three are gathered together in His name He will be in the midst, now graciously fulfil his promise. For the work which now calls us together and the guidance of our deliberations, may He grant us "the wisdom from above, which is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy."

ALFRED LEE.

On motion of Rev. Charles Breck,

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to draft resolutions expressing the sense of the Convention touching the death of the Rev. Hiram R. Harrold, late Rector of the parish of St. Ann's, Middletown, in this Diocese.

The President appointed the Rev. Messrs. Carpenter, Clemson and Billopp.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Clemson,

Resolved. That the Convention nominate two Trustees for the General Theological Seminary.

The Rev. S. T. Carpenter and Mr. T. G. Clemson were appointed as tellers, who subsequently reported that the Rev. Thomas F. Billopp and E. G. Bradford, Esq., were duly nominated.

The Committee appointed to audit the Treasurer's account, reported it correct.

On motion of Mr. H. H. J. Naff,

Resolved, That the usual number of copies of the Journal of the Convention be published and distributed as heretofore.

Convention adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock P. M., for the stated missionary service.

EIGHT O'CLOCK, P. M.

Convention re-assembled. The opening devotional exercise was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Clemson, and the rite of Confirmation administered by the Bishop. Addresses were then made on the subject of Missions by the Rev. Messrs. Clemson, Colton, Slack and Wright. A collection was then made for missionary purposes, and after singing the 107th hymn, the service was closed with a short address and the benediction by the Bishop.

The congregation having been dismissed, the Convention was again called to order by the Bishop. The minutes of the previous sessions were read and approved.

On motion,

Resolved, That the Treasurer be requested to pay to the sexton of St. Peter's Church, Lewes, $5 for his services during the Session.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the citizens of this town, and to the wardens of St. Peter's Church, for their kindness and hospitality to the members thereof.

On motion,

Resolved, That the following gentlemen be elected Trustees of the Bishop's Fund, viz: Hon. Caleb S. Layten, Hon. Edward Wootten, William T. Read, Esq., J. W. Thomson, M. D., and Mr. Alexis I. Du Pont.

The Committee appointed to prepare resolutions touching the death of the Rev. H. R. Harrold, reported as follows:

The Rev. Hiram R. Harrold, since the meeting of the last Convention, having been called by Divine Providence from the scene of his earthly labors, this Convention deems it proper to express its sense of his worth, and of the bereavement of the Church and of his family.

Resolved, That we bear our testimony to the faithfulness and devotion with which he consecrated himself and his all to the Church and the Gospel, as the cause of his Lord and Master.

Resolved, That we humbly adore the Hand, that doeth all things well, in removing our brother from labor to reward; and humbly do we pray that those whom he has left behind may so follow his good example, that they fail not of the heavenly promises.

Resolved, That we express our deep sympathy with the widow of our departed brother, in this sore affliction; and earnestly do we commend her to God, and to the word of His grace, for that consolation which is promised by the widow's God.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to convey to the widow a copy of these resolutions, together with the action of the Convention.

S. T. CARPENTER,
THOS. F. BILLOPP, } Committee.
J. B. CLEMON,

These resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The minutes were then read and approved.

On motion, the Convention adjourned sine die.

Attest,

ASA S. COLTON, Secretary.

The past year has been one of much harmony and satisfaction, and of quiet, steady growth. The increased accommodations provided for the congregation and Sunday School, have added greatly to our comfort. A neat and substantial iron fence has much improved the appearance and added to the safety of the church edifice. The Rev. Samuel Hazlehurst resigned his office as assistant to the Rector, on the first of January last, much to the regret of the Rector and congregation.

A thorough revision of the old list of communicants accounts for the discrepancy in this report, as contrasted with that of last year.—Last summer the Chapel was painted and carpeted, and a new furnace was procured. A Parish Library has been founded this Spring, and a room is about to be made for the same. The children of the Sunday School contributed ten dollars for the completion of the Church at Portage, Wisconsin, and ten for the same purpose at Lewes, Delaware.

REMARKS.—Our new Church, mentioned in the last report as being commenced the August before, is now happily completed, and was opened for worship on the 4th of May—a day long to be remembered as the consummation of so many prayers. Five years ago this Parish was organized, under circumstances not calculated to inspire much hope—except that in very weakness we threw ourselves upon the true Source of strength, a covenant-keeping God. But for this, we had often fainted in our work. May His presence be with us still, and His blessing, without which they labor in vain who build the house.

The Church is a beautiful structure of the hard blue rock of the Brandywine, on the high bank of which, amidst a grove of our native trees it is situated. The plan was kindly furnished by one born among us, though now living in a neighboring State. The extreme length of the church, including the tower and chancel-building, is 120 feet; breadth, 40 feet; tower 25 feet square, run up with stone 70 feet, with a spire of wood, making the whole elevation 140 feet. On one side of the chancel is a neat and commodious vestry-room; and on the other is the choir, with a fine organ, built by Jardine, of New York. The font and chancel furniture are the gifts of several kind friends. The pews will seat 500 persons, making the accommodations larger than our present wants; but to these, by the Divine blessing, we hope in time to grow. The whole cost of the Church has been something over $16,000.

THOMAS F. BILLOPP, Rector.

REPORT OF REV. ASA S. COLTON.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir:

My services during the year may be briefly stated as follows:

At St. Thomas', Newark, and as Missionary at the Alms House, I have conducted service and preached, say about 40 times. On other occasions in the Diocese and in various circumstances about 15 times.

At Newark I performed the marriage ceremony twice.

RT. REV. A. LEE, D. D.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH, NEWPORT.

Communicants,	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	5
Sunday School.—Teachers 4, Scholars 30.

This parish has been resuscitated by purchase in November last, of a good substantial stone building with a half acre of ground, occupied formerly by the "Protestant Methodists." It is in excellent order, well furnished, and will accommodate about 150 persons, and is entirely free from debt. It is now being enclosed with a good substantial fence. Divine services were commenced here, on the first Sunday in December, and have been continued, with but occasional exceptions, every Sunday morning since. The Rev. Bethel Judd, D. D., has given me much kind assistance in continuing these services.

S. HAZLEHURST, Missionary.

The three denominations, Episcopal, Methodist and Presbyterian, form a Sunday School in Stanton, meeting in the District School room, on the American Sunday School Union principle, of a well organized character, but neither of these denominations are, at the present time, in this place, sufficiently numerous, to organize and operate efficiently, in a separate and independent manner.

Public Services, in the Church on Sunday mornings, and in the District School Room, on the alternate Sunday evenings.

We have just sustained a serious loss, to this feeble parish, in the death of Mrs. Catharine Justis, a pious widow lady, who, for about twenty years past, has had charge of our communion furniture, and made provision for the Lord's table. But she has gone to her everlasting rest, in the sweetest peace.

G. SHEETS, Rector.

Fifteen of the above communicants are persons from Ireland, living remote from the parish Church, and who have not hitherto been reported as communicants. The Rector has held a number of services in their vicinity,—at the Union School House, Mill Creek Hundred,—which have been well attended by them and others. He proposes to administer to them, from time to time, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, as he has already that of Baptism: and it has been thought best to enroll and report them as under his pastoral care, and that of the Bishop of the Diocese.

The present incumbent entered upon his duties the first Sunday in October last. In outward things the parish seems to have a blessing from our God, and inwardly we are at peace. May the still richer blessing of God's spiritual presence be vouchsafed this portion of his Zion.

The destruction of the roof of this Church by a gale in January last, has imposed upon us the necessity of more extensive and costly repairs than were previously intended. On this account public services have been discontinued in Georgetown, and my Sunday appointments allotted entirely to Milford and Lewes. In the meantime, we have been carefully collecting the funds for re-building, and have now so far succeeded that the work will be begun in a few days. Divine service will be resumed in Georgetown,—in one of the public buildings—on the first of June. It is hoped the Church will be ready for use again before the return of cold weather.

Several contributions have been made by this congregation, and also by the Sunday School, to different missionary objects, but I have not the precise figures. Soon after the date of my last report, the work in the new church building was re-commenced, and in the course of the summer the walls were raised and roofed, and the tower carried up to the base of the uppermost story; at which point the approach of winter and the exhaustion of our funds put a stop to the work for the season. The Committee have recently obtained some fresh supplies, and the building will presently be resumed, and continued as the means can be procured. The structure is a substantial and beautiful one, and has been erected so far without debt. That it may be completed without debt, we appeal to the hearts of all who can appreciate the importance of this work, not only as securing the prosperity of the parish itself, but as establishing a fortress of the Diocese, and an outpost of the Church at large. To as many as “go down to the sea in ships, and occupy their business" there, as well as to the thousands "who travel by land and by water," a Church at Lewes should have a peculiar interest; which we hope will be felt by them, and acknowledged with christian liberality.

As to the spiritual condition of the parish, it is very gratifying; an unusual number of persons having desired and received confirmation, and an increased interest in divine things having been recently manifested in the congregation. - JOHN L. McKIM, Rector.

A constitutional quorum being present, the Convention pursuant to the sixth article of the Constitution then proceeded to the election of a Secretary.

The Rev. Samuel R. Slack and James F. Wilson, M. D., were appointed tellers, and on the first ballot reported that Mr. Alexis I. du Pont had been elected.

Whereupon the chair declared Mr. Alexis I. du Pont to be Secretary of the Convention for the ensuing year.

On motion of the Rev. Charles Breck, it was

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, not belonging to this Diocese, and Students of Theology, who are candidates for Holy Orders in this church, who may be present, be and they are hereby invited to attend the sittings of the Convention.

The Rev. William Marshall and the Rev. William Allibone Newbold, of the Diocese of Delaware, the Rev. John Owen and the Rev. Greenbury W. Ridgely, of the Diocese of Maryland were present.

The Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted as the Rules of Order of the present session, and on request were read by the Secretary.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The business of every day shall be introduced with prayer.
2. When the president takes the chair, no member shall continue standing, nor shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the chair.
3. No member shall absent himself from the service of the house, unless he have leave, or be unable to attend.
4. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, shall, with due respect address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
5. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, without leave of the house.
6. A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of the house, and shall not be again drawn into debate during the same session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the house.
7. If a question in debate contain more parts than one, any member may have the same divided into as many questions as there are parts.
8. While the President is putting any question no one shall hold private discourse, stand up, walk into, out of, or across the house, or read any book.
9. Every member who shall be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be particularly interested in the decision.
10. No motion shall be considered as before the house unless it be seconded and reduced to writing when required.
11. When any question is before the house it shall be determined on before any new thing is introduced, except the question for adjournment.
12. The question on a motion for adjournment shall be taken before any other, and without debate.
13. When the house is about to rise, every member shall keep his seat until the President leaves the chair.
14. The Journals of the Convention shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and a copy sent to each member of the Convention.
15. The charge or sermon, when delivered by the Bishop before the Convention, shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and one copy sent to each clergyman, and ten copies to each vestry in the Diocese.

The Rev. Richard F. Cadle presented an application from St. Mark's Church, Little Creek Hundred, for admission into union with the Convention, which on motion was referred to the following Committee: Rev. Samuel C. Brinckle, Mr. William T. Read and Mr. Charles Wright.

The Convention then took a recess for divine service.

The order for Daily Morning Prayer was read by the Rev. Benjamin Franklin, Rector of Immanuel Church, New Castle, as far as the Litany, and concluded by the Rev. George Sheets, Rector of St. James' Church, Stanton.

The 106th Psalm was then sung.

The Ante-Communion Service was read by the Bishop, the Rev. George Sheets assisting in the Epistle and Gospel.

The congregation united in singing the 100th Hymn. The Bishop then delivered his Fourth Triennial charge to the clergy of the Diocese.

The Holy Communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Benjamin Franklin, Rector of Immanuel Church, New Castle.

The congregation having been dismissed, the Bishop resumed the chair, and after calling the house to order, the Convention again proceeded to business.

The following Clergymen appeared and took their seats:

Rev. Thomas F. Billopp,

Rev. W. H. D. Hatton.

The committee to whom the application of St. Mark's Church, Little Creek Hundred, Sussex, was referred, reported favorably thereon.

On motion of the Rev. Samuel C. Brinckle, it was Resolved, That St. Mark's Church, Little Creek Hundred, Sussex, be admitted into union with the Convention.

The report of the Standing Committee was presented by Mr. Samuel Baily, and read by the Secretary, as follows:

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment. The Bishop took the chair and called the house to order.

The minutes of the morning session were read by the Secretary and approved.

The Rev. George Hall, a Clergyman of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Thomas Mills Martin, a candidate for Holy Orders in the Diocese of Delaware, were present.

Certificates of the election of Lay Delegates from the Parish of St. Ann's, Middletown, were presented, viz :

St. Ann's, Middletown,	{ Benjamin Gibbs,
	{ Joseph Hanson.

The Secretary having called their names, Mr. Benjamin Gibbs answered and took his seat.

The Bishop then read his Annual Address.

ADDRESS

To the Clerical and Lay Members of the Sixty-seventh Annual Convention of the Diocese of Delaware..

DEAR BRETHREN :

I now ask your brief attention to the statement of my official acts, and of the condition of the Diocese, which it is my duty to lay before you. I have much reason gratefully to acknowledge the kind, sustaining hand of God, enabling me to perform the duties of the past year without interruption, and to meet all the calls of the Diocese, as well as of my own Parish, with undiminished health and strength.

There have been no very marked occurrences during the period which I now review. We have pursued the even tenor of our way without let or hindrance, and the year has been one, I am encouraged to believe, of quiet, steady growth. A rapid expansion we can scarcely look for in a State so limited as our own in extent and population, and where so much of the ground is already occupied by other bodies of Christians; our progress must be step by step, rather than by bounds and leaps. Yet it is my impression that the number of souls brought within our influence is yearly increasing, and that we are laying a foundation on which the Church of our affections shall hereafter rise in fair proportions, and be a joy and praise. Our ministers are laboring earnestly in their different spheres of duty, and if we are faithful to our adorable Lord, and determine to know nothing among men, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified, we cannot doubt that our labors will be crowned with his abundant blessing.

On the 28th June, 1856, in the Church of the Ascension, Claymont, I admitted to the order of Deacons, two or the candidates for orders reported in my last address, viz: William H. D. Hatton and William Marshall. The Rev. Mr. Hatton was shortly after appointed missionary at Christ Church, Delaware City, and vicinity, and has accepted a call from that church. The great want of this parish, a resident pastor, is now therefore, supplied, and through his earnest labors, I hope the congregation will increase, and souls be gathered into the kingdom of Christ. The attendance has been, I learn, increasing, and eight persons during the year have received the rite of Confirmation. I have visited the church three times, on one of which occasions services were continued for two days, with the assistance of several of the clergy of the County.

On the 27th December, I delivered an address at the opening of the School House, connected with St. John's Church, Brandywine Village. This is a neat and convenient building, intended both for Parochial and Sunday Schools, and has been since used on the Lord's day for divine service. The Rector, Rev. C. Breck, has the assistance of the Rev. Stevens Parker in his parochial cares, by whose aid he is enabled to open old Trinity Church every Sunday, as well as sustain services at Brandywine Village. Preparation has been made for the erection of a large, beautiful and substantial stone Church for St. John's Parish.

The Missionary Station, at the Union Meeting House in Brandywine Hundred, and at Newport, occupied by the Rev. S. Hazlehurst, have become vacant by his removal from the Diocese. I officiated for some months at the latter, once in two weeks. We can scarcely yet judge what might be effected by persevering efforts at these points.

St. Peter's Church, Smyrna, was resigned by its late Rector, the Rev. S. T. Carpenter, in November last, and no successor has yet been chosen. The pulpit has been supplied, during the greater part of the time since Mr. Carpenter's resignation, by Rev. A. S. Colton.

On my visit to Dover in November last, two applicants for the rite of confirmation knelt at the long deserted chancel. They were the first upon whom my hands have been laid in that venerable edifice. May the event be the dawn of a better and brighter day. I am exceedingly desirous to see some well qualified and earnest laborer at work there, and am not without hope of witnessing it.

In Sussex County, the Rev. W. Wright is now minister of St. John's Church, Little Hill, resigned by the Rev. Mr. Cadl. The latter gentleman has organized a new parish in Little Creek Hundred, about six miles South of Laurel. On the 22nd May, I preached in a private house in the neighborhood of the site of the proposed church to a numerous congregation.

The church at Georgetown, injured by a gale, and for a year not occupied, has been handsomely repaired, and considerable progress has been made in the new church at Lewes. The congregations in Sussex county seem on the whole to be increasing, but the accessions to the church during the past year have been few.

How do we need the mighty power of the Holy Ghost, to accompany the message of God that the word preached may profit those who hear it, being mixed with faith!

The usual Spring and Autumnal visitations of Kent and Sussex counties have been made, and with little exception all the churches and stations have been visited twice and some oftener.

On these occasions I have preached fifty-three times, exclusive of St. Andrew's, Wilmington, and also delivered addresses; have administered the Holy Communion four times; baptized two infants; officiated at one marriage, and two funerals.

On Easter Sunday, April 12, 1857, I admitted to the order of Deacons in St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, William Allibone Newbold. The candidate was presented and the sermon preached by the kinsman of Mr. Newbold, the Rev. J. Howard Smith, of the city of New York. Mr. Newbold has received and accepted a call from the vestry of St. Andrew's, to be my assistant in that parish.

CLERICAL CHANGES.

ADDED.

The Rev. Stevens Parker, from the Diocese of New York, letter accepted August 4th, 1856.

The Rev. Benjamin Franklin, from the Diocese of Pennsylvania, letter accepted October 10th, 1856.

The Rev. Messrs. Hatton, Marshall and Newbold by Ordination.

DISMISSED.

The Rev. Greenbury W. Ridgely to the Diocese of Maryland, letter accepted by Bishop Whittingham, September 23, 1856.

The Rev. Samuel T. Carpenter to the Diocese of Michigan, by letter dated December 15th, 1856. Notice of acceptance has not reached me.

The Rev. Samuel Hazlehurst to the Diocese of Pennsylvania, letter accepted by Bishop Potter, March 21, 1857.

The Rev. Thomas F. Billopp has resigned the rectorship of Immanuel Church, New Castle, and has accepted a call to St. Ann's Church, Middletown.

The Rev. Benjamin Franklin has become the Rector of Immanuel Church, and entered upon his duties in October last.

The Rev. Stevens Parker became assistant minister of Trinity Church in August, 1856, and the Rev. William A. Newbold of St. Andrew's, immediately after Easter.

The Rev. W. H. D. Hatton entered upon his duties as minister of Christ Church, Delaware City, about August 1st, 1856, and the Rev. W. Wright took charge of St. John's, Little Hill, in December last.

The other pastoral relations remain as last reported.

CANDIDATES FOR ORDERS.

No new Candidates have been received since the last Convention, and three having been ordained, there now remain but two on our list, viz :

Thomas M. Martin, from July 21st, 1854.

Thomas G. Clemson " May 13, 1856.

From October 1st to 22nd, I was in attendance upon the General Convention in the city of Philadelphia.

On the 12th of January, 1857, I attended in the city of New York the organizing of the Board of Trustees of a fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of deceased clergymen, and of aged, infirm and disabled clergymen. This Board was constituted by the General Convention, and it is hoped may be enabled to effect somewhat for the truly benevolent and desirable object of its creation. There can be no doubt of the want of a general provision of this kind. Some of the larger Dioceses have considerable endowments and contributions for this purpose, but the great body of our clergy are cut off from aid at the time when their strength faileth.

On the 18th April, 1857, I gave my concurrence in the election of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Kip, as Diocesan Bishop of California.

With this abstract of my official acts, I commend your deliberations to the guidance of the Spirit of wisdom and grace. May our past experience of the divine goodness animate us to more entire devotedness to the cause of Christ, and to more vigorous exertion. Much do we need the quickening influences of the Holy Ghost, to fan the flame of true religion, and crown the labors of our ministers with abundant success. The Lord grant it of his mercy unspeakable, through Jesus Christ.

ALFRED LEE.

On motion of the Rev. Charles Breck, the Convention went into an election for members of the Standing Committee. The President appointed as tellers, the Rev. Thomas F. Billopp and the Rev. Willam Wright on the part of the clergy, and Mr. Benjamin Caulk and Mr. George D. Armstrong on the part of the laity.

Mr. John B. Lewis, Treasurer of the fund for the relief of disabled clergymen, presented his report.

On motion of Mr. Alexis I. du Pont, the report was referred to a committee of three for examination.

The President appointed the Rev. Benjamin Franklin, Mr. Solomon M. Curtis and William Cummins, M. D.

The committee reported the account to be correct.

On motion of the Rev. Thomas F. Billopp, the account of the Rev. Asa S. Colton, late Secretary, amounting to $15.06 was allowed and ordered to be paid.

On motion of Mr. Alexis I. du Pont, the bill of Mr. Henry Eckel, amounting to $68 for printing the Journal of 1856, was allowed and ordered to be paid.

On the first ballot for members of the Standing Committee there was no choice in consequence of the informality of part of the tickets.

Mr. Alexis I. du Pont presented the report of the committee, appointed at the last Convention, relative to binding the Journals of the several Diocesan Conventions in possession of the Secretary.

The committee respectfully report that they have examined the Journals of the different Dioceses, and find that there are many wanting; as they deem it desirable, if possible, to have a full series, from the commencement of the Episcopate in this Diocese, they herewith submit a list of those required to complete the same.

On motion of Mr. Samuel Baily the President appointed Mr. James Stuart and Mr. William W. Dulany, to audit the same.

On motion of the Rev. Samuel R. Slack, it was

Resolved, That the Convention hear the report of the Missionary Committee.

The Bishop then read the said report.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MISSIONARY AND EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

Your Committee present the report of the past year with an humble acknowledgment of the favoring hand of God. They are encouraged to believe that interest in the work of Christian Missions is advancing within our borders, that their claims are better understood and appreciated, and that the good results of our former efforts, confessedly inadequate as they have been, are becoming more manifest. The sketch which is embraced in your Committee's report of the field to which their attention has been directed, with the comparison of its condition at the time when our first systematic efforts were put forth, will, they think, bring the minds of the members of this Convention to the same conclusion.

Before presenting their customary statement of receipts and appropriations they recognize with pleasure the continued assistance of the Domestic Committee of our General Board of Missions, which we have been enjoying for the last fifteen years, and which has been to us of almost indispensable importance and necessity.

Their Treasurer reports the following contributions from the Churches, viz : from

In our previous Annual Reports, we have alluded, from time to time, to the different Missionary Stations, to which our efforts have been mainly directed. For the information of many who are unacquainted with these periodical statements, it may be well to present, at a single view, a succinct account of our Diocesan Missionary field.

In New Castle County, we may include therein a part of Brandywine Hundred, Newport, the young parish at Delaware City, and its vicinity, and the County Alms House. Ascension Church, Brandywine Hundred, is sustained independently of our assistance, by its union with the church at Marcus Hook, Pa., under the care of the same Rector, the Rev. Dr. Clemson. Grace Church has but a nominal existence, but it is our rule never to relinquish hope. The services at the Union Meeting House, where a Parish was organised by the Rev. S. Hazlehurst, under the name of Calvary Church, have been interrupted by that gentleman's removal from the Diocese. The unfavorable weather and bad roads have been adverse, through the Winter and Spring, to the obtaining of services there from settled clergymen. Newport was supplied during the last Summer and Fall, by the Bishop or some one deputed by him, with Divine service on the alternate Sundays. There is some prospect of the station being shortly occupied. A fair trial has not yet been made at this point, but a neat stone building, commodious and pleasant, has been secured. Christ Church, Delaware City, has now, for the first time in its history, a resident Pastor. From the zealous labors of the Rev. Mr. Hatton we confidently look for its growth and firmer establishment. At Port Penn, and elsewhere in the vicinity, are families attached to our Church, to whom the Minister of this Parish may have access.—This rich and beautiful region of our State has not been heretofore a very encouraging field to our own Communion, but we hope that in due season we shall reap there, if we faint not.

Of the three Churches in Kent county two are not applicants for our aid. Dover still remains unoccupied. But the Bishop has been encouraged by liberal members of our Church to renew his efforts to secure stated ministerial services in that ancient Parish. The forlorn and uncomfortable condition of the time-worn church, and neglected state of the burial yard, are no small discouragement and hindrance to our success. Could they be put in decent repair, and the aspect of dilapidation and neglect be removed, it would be more cheering to the heart of the laborer.

Nearly the whole of Sussex County has been embraced within our field, and from its peculiar condition is likely to continue so. The number of Churches is nearly as great as in New Castle County, but the congregations are smaller and more scattered. Had it not been for the aid extended by your committee, since it was organised in 1842, and the Domestic Committee of the General Board, the Church in this part of the State would in human probability have all but come to an end. As it is, a brief survey of what has been accomplished may reasonably inspire gratitude and hope.

Of the Churches in this County, all but Georgetown and Lewes have been assisted during the year past. Of our Missionaries there, the Rev. W. Wright has charge of what may be called the Eastern, and the Rev. R. F. Cadle of the Western district. To the fidelity, diligence and indefatigable energy of these gentlemen your committee feel it a duty to bear their testimony. The wide districts committed to their care have been traversed and explored through summer's suns and winter's snows, and their appointments observed with the most scrupulous and self-denying regularity.

Mr. Wright's charge, too extensive for a single laborer, comprises St. George's Parish, Indian River; Grace Church, Baltimore Mills; St. Mark's, Millsboro, and St. John's Little Hill.

St. George's is one of the oldest Parishes in the County. The present Church building was erected about sixty years since, and is a large, substantial structure of brick, and has been within a few years refitted, and put in good repair. Most of the congregation live at a considerable distance from the Church, which renders it difficult to sustain a Sunday School. It was originally a Chapel to the Church at Lewes, and is still, in the neighborhood, commonly known by that name, although it has been for many years a distinct Parish. It reports this year 21 communicants.

Connected with St. Georges is the Chapel of the Comforter, Long Neck. This is a more convenient place of worship to a large part of the congregation than the Parish Church, and has fully as good an attendance. It is an unpretending little edifice, of 30 by 20 feet, surrounded by trees, is usually filled on occasions of Divine Service, and has a flourishing Sunday School. It is indeed the only place of worship on "the Neck," and brings the means of grace and the privileges of the Sanctuary within the reach of many who would be otherwise nearly cut off from them. This Chapel was erected under the ministry of the Rev. John A. Childs, and consecrated in 1847.

St. Mark's Church, Millsboro, is eight miles West from St. George's. This Church was also erected during the ministry of Mr. Childs, and was opened for service in 1848. Together with Grace Church, Baltimore Mills, eight miles south, it has taken the place of the old frame Church, at Dagsboro, which is now falling into rapid decay.—The Church at Millsboro is a comfortable edifice, and has been generally well attended, but it has lost a very unusual proportion of its members by death and removal. May the blessing of the Lord upon the labors of his servant there repair these discouraging breaches.

Grace Church, Baltimore Mills, is situated about three miles south of the old Dagsboro Church. It was erected under the ministry of the Rev. George Hall, and consecrated in 1853. It is a plain frame building, can conveniently accommodate about two hundred and fifty persons, and has been usually well attended. It is upon comparatively new ground, the present generation having been unaccustomed to the services of our Church, and the accessions to the communion have hitherto been few, but it presents an interesting and inviting field of labor.

St. John's, Little Hill, is situated eleven miles south-west of Millsboro. This Church was originally erected as an off-shoot from Christ Church, Broad Creek, about the year 1808, under the ministry of a devoted and faithful servant of Christ, whose memory is still precious in that region, the Rev. Hamilton Bell. Mr. Bell's labors were cut short by his death, at the early age of twenty-nine years, in 1811, and his removal was a sad blow to these Churches. After Mr. Bell's death, Little Hill and Broad Creek were occasionally visited by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Stone, afterwards Bishop of Maryland, who resided not very far from the boundary line between the two States. The good Bishop made his journeys on horseback through all weathers, and is still affectionately remembered.

The Church at Little Hill had so greatly declined that in the Diocesan Convention of 1841 it was pronounced defunct. No service had been held for years, the building was without doors or windows, and left open to the intrusion of Cattle or Swine. There were hearts

On the second ballot for members of the Standing Committee, the two Orders concurred in electing the Rev. John B. Clemson, D. D., the Rev. Charles Breck, the Rev. Samuel R. Slack and Mr. Solomon M. Curtis.

On the third ballot for one Lay member of the Standing Committee, the two orders concurred in electing Mr. William T. Read; whereupon, the Chair declared the following gentlemen duly elected members of the Standing Committee, for the ensuing year.

Rev. John B. Clemson, D. D.,
 Rev. Charles Breck,
 Rev. Samuel R. Slack,
 Mr. Solomon M. Curtis,
 Mr. William T. Read.

Mr. Samuel Baily, moved the election of members of the Missionary Committee be indefinitely postponed, which was lost.

On motion of Rev. Charles Breck, the house went into an election for members of the Missionary Committee.

The President appointed the Rev. John B. Clemson, D.D., and Mr. Solomon M. Curtis, as tellers.

On the first ballot for members of the Missionary Committee, the following named gentlemen received a majority of votes, and were declared by the Chair duly elected members of the Missionary Committee for the ensuing year :

Rev. Benjamin Franklin,
 " Samuel C. Brinckle,
 James F. Wilson, M. D.,
 George D. Armstrong.

The Rev. Thomas F. Billopp brought up the proposed alteration of the IVth Article of the Constitution, which occurs on page 12 of the last Journal, that the Article shall read, "six members of the Clerical, and twelve of the Lay order shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business," &c., which was confirmed by the unanimous vote of both orders of the Convention.

The Rev. John B. Clemson, D.D., moved that the house go into an election for Trustees of the Bishop's Fund. Mr. Alexis I. du Pont moved that that election be made the order of the day, at 3 o'clock to-morrow, which was decided in the negative. The resolution having prevailed, the house went into an election for Trustees of the Bishop's Fund.

Mr. James Stuart and Mr. William W. Dulany, the Committee appointed to audit the Treasurer's accounts, reported that they had performed that duty, and that they were correct.

On motion of the Rev. Stevens Parker, it was Resolved, That pending the election for Trustees of the Bishop's Fund, the house adjourn, to attend the Missionary Meeting to be held at 8 o'clock this evening, and re-assemble for business session, at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The Convention then adjourned.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, Wilmington, }
June 3d, 1857, 8 o'clock, P. M. }

The Convention assembled this evening to attend the Missionary meeting.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Bishop.

The choir sang the 103d Psalm.

The Rev. John B. Clemson, D.D., then delivered an address, after which the 106th hymn was sung.

The Rev. Benjamin Franklin, then delivered an address, and was followed by the Rev. Wm. Wright.

The Rt. Rev. Alfred Lee, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, next addressed the meeting, after which was sung the 107th hymn.

The congregation was then dismissed by the Bishop, with the benediction.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, Thursday, June 4, 1857. }
9 o'clock, A. M. }

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment. The President called the house to order.

The minutes of the afternoon session were read by the Secretary, and approved.

The tellers in the election for Trustees of the Bishop's Fund presented their return, whereupon the Chair declared that the following gentlemen were duly elected Trustees of the Bishop's Fund, to serve for the ensuing year :

Hon. Caleb S. Layton,
Hon. Edward Wooten,
Mr. William T. Read,
Mr. Clement Reeves,
Mr. Alexis I. du Pont.

The Rev. Asa S. Colton presented the following preambles and resolution :

Whereas, The object of our Diocesan Convention is the promotion of the Kingdom of Christ, in the performance of our duties in His Church, whether

Clerical or Lay: And whereas, questions will arise, from time to time, as to the best method of doing our work, and the just application of the principles of the Gospel to the performance of our duties: And whereas, such questions often require very careful and patient deliberation, with intervals for prayerful thought; therefore

Resolved, That the Second Article of the Constitution be amended by substituting Tuesday for Wednesday, as the day of our Annual Meeting.

On motion of the Rev. John B. Clemson, D.D., the resolution was laid on the table, subject to the call of the mover.

On motion of the Rev. John B. Clemson, D.D., the house went into an election for Deputies to the General Convention.

The President appointed as tellers, the Rev. Thomas F. Billopp, and the Rev. Wm. Wright, of the Clergy, and Mr. Benjamin Caulk, and Mr. George D. Armstrong, of the Laity.

The President read a letter from the Rev. M. A. D. W. Howe, Secretary of the General Convention, requesting an additional assessment of 50 cents on each clergyman in the Diocese of Delaware, to aid in extinguishing the debt incurred by the Sessions of 1853 and 1856.

On motion of Rev. Charles Breck, the Treasurer was authorized to pay the additional quota, amounting to $9, and forward the same to the Secretary of the General Convention.

The tellers in the election of Deputies to the General Convention presented the return.

On the first ballot the two orders concurred in electing the Rev. George Sheets, the Rev. John B. Clemson, D.D., and the Rev. Samuel C. Brinckle, of the Clergy, and Mr. Alexis I. du Pont, Mr. James F. Barton, and Mr. Solomon M. Curtis, of the Laity.

The Convention proceeded to a second ballot in the election of Deputies to the General Convention, for one Clerical and one Lay Deputy.

On motion of William Cummins, M. D., it was resolved, that the next Annual Meeting of this Convention assemble in St. Peter's Church, Smyrna, on the first Wednesday in June, 1858, at 9 o'clock, A. M.

On motion of Mr. William T. Read, the committee for the relief of disabled clergymen was continued.

On motion of the Rev. Charles Breck, pending the return of the second ballot in the election for Deputies to the General Convention, it was resolved, that the Convention proceed to meet at St. John's Sunday School, Brandywine Village, to attend the laying of the corner stone of St. John's Church, and re-assemble for business at 3 o'clock, P. M.

The Convention then adjourned.

The Convention met at St. John's Sunday School, Brandywine Village, at 11 o'clock, A. M., and formed in procession in the following order:

The Vestry of St. John's Church, the Lay Delegates to the Convention, the Clergy and Bishop of the Diocese, proceeded to the site of the church, repeating the 122nd Psalm, responsively; on reaching which, the Laity opened their line, and allowed the Bishop and the Clergy to pass through, when the Bishop commenced the "office set forth and allowed to be used for laying the corner stone of a church or chapel."

The Rev. John B. Clemson, D.D., read the appointed lesson from Ezra, III. 8-11. Then was sung the 102nd Psalm.

Mr. Alexis I. du Pont read a list of the articles placed in the box, and deposited in the corner stone.

The Bishop then concluded the "office set forth for laying the corner stone."

The Rev. Benjamin Franklin delivered an address, which was followed by another from the Bishop ; after which, part of the 25th hymn was sung, and the Bishop pronounced the benediction.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, Thursday, June 4, 1857, }
3 o'clock, P. M. }

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment. The President called the house to order.

The minutes of the Missionary meeting held last evening, and of the morning session, with the proceedings in laying the corner stone of St. John's Church, Brandywine Village, were read by the Secretary and approved.

The tellers presented the returns of the second ballot in the election for Deputies to the General Convention, and there was no choice.

The Rev. Asa S. Colton moved that further balloting in the election for Deputies to the General Convention be dispensed with; which was decided in the negative.

The house proceeded to a third ballot. Certificates of the election of Lay Delegates from the parish of Christ Church, Milford, were presented.

Christ Church, Milford, } George R. Fisher,
James R. Lofland.

The Secretary then called the names. Mr. James R. Lofland answered, and took his seat.

On motion of the Rev. John B. Clemson, D.D., the resolution of the Rev. Asa F. Colton, relative to changing the day of holding the meetings of the Annual Convention, which was laid on the table at the morning session, was taken up.

The tellers presented the return of the third ballot in the election for Deputies to the General Convention, and it was found that the two orders had concurred in the election of Capt. S. F. du Pont, of the Laity, there still remaining one vacancy in the Clerical Delegates.

The house proceeded to a fourth ballot.

Mr. Alexis I. du Pont proposed as an amendment to the alteration of Article II. of the Constitution, proposed by the Rev. Asa S. Colton, that the words "from time to time," in the 12th and 13th lines of said article, be stricken out.

On motion of the Rev. John B. Clemson, D.D., the whole subject of the amendment of Article II. was indefinitely postponed.

The tellers reported on the fourth ballot in the election for Deputies to the General Convention, and it was found there was no choice.

The house proceeded to a fifth ballot.

The Rev. Richardson Graham, a clergyman of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, took his seat as a visitor.

On motion of the Rev. Stevens Parker. the committee on the Glebe of Christ Church, Dover, was continued.

Mr. Alexis I. du Pont moved that the vote continuing the committee for the Relief of Disabled Clergymen be reconsidered.

Which was decided in the negative.

The tellers reported on the fifth ballot in the election for Deputies to the General Convention, and it was found there was no choice.

Mr. Samuel Baily moved that further balloting in the election for Deputies to the General Convention be dispensed with, which was decided in the negative.

The house proceeded to a sixth ballot, in which there was no choice.

On the seventh ballot the two orders concurred in electing the Rev. Benjamin Franklin.

The President then declared that the following gentlemen had received the concurrent vote of both orders, as Deputies to the General Convention.

Rev. George Sheets,	} Of the Clergy.
" John B. Clemson, D.D.,
" Samuel C. Brinckle,
" Benjamin Franklin,
Mr. Alexis I. du Pont,	} Of the Laity.
" James F. Burton,
" Solomon M. Curtis,
Capt. S. F. du Pont,

The Delegates from St. George's, Indian River, asked leave of absence, and were excused from further attendance on the house.

Mr. Alexis I. du Pont moved that the Treasurer assess the sum of $250 annually, on the several Parishes in union with the Convention, in the ratio of the amounts paid the Rectors thereof, said sum to be paid to the committee for the relief of disabled clergymen; and when not required by them, to the Trustees of the Bishop's Fund.

Which was decided in the negative.

On motion of the Rev. Charles Breck, it was resolved, that the Trustees of the Bishop's Fund consider the expediency of revising the XVth Canon, and report thereon at the next Annual Convention.

On motion of James F. Wilson, M. D., it was Resolved, That the Treasurer pay to the Sexton of St. Andrew's Church the usual compensation allowed for his attendance during the session of the Convention.

On motion of Mr. Alexis I. du Pont, it was Resolved, That the Constitution and Canons be appended to the Journal, and the usual number of copies printed and distributed as heretofore.

On motion of Mr. James Stuart, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the Wardens and Vestry of St. Andrew's Church, for the use of their Church, and to the citizens of Wilmington and its vicinity, for their kindness and hospitality to the members thereof.

On motion, it was resolved, that after reading the minutes of the present session, and the usual religious exercises, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The Secretary then read the minutes, which were amended and approved.

Prayer was offered, and the benediction pronounced by the Bishop, after which the Convention adjourned.

PAROCHIAL REPORTS.

CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION, CLAYMONT, BRANDYWINE HUNDRED, NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

This Parish may be regarded as flourishing. The attendance on public services, except in the winter, is large and encouraging. The Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, Burials and number of Communicants, are considerably affected by the contiguity of the church at Marcus Hook, of which until recently, this was a part. This influence will gradually decline and ere long the Parish be strong and independent. The Sunday School is well managed and sustained, and is very promising for the welfare of the Church and neighborhood. Recently the church has received the addition of an Organ, an instrument well adapted in size and quality to its position. The church has also received the valuable present of a large stone Font, of sufficient size for the immersion of an infant. Altogether there is much ground for hope and encouragement.

A commodious Sunday School Room was erected during the last autumn, and opened by the Bishop for Divine service on the festival of St. John. Since the first of the year the Rev. Stevens Parker has attended with me in holding Divine service, on the afternoon of each Lord's Day and catechising the children of the Sunday School.

February 10th, the above named Presbyter was duly elected assistant minister by the Vestry. A Parish School has been opened.

On the 25th of March full possession of the lot was obtained, when immediate steps were taken for tearing down the "Green Tree Tavern," that the Church might take its place. Contracts have been made for the building of a large and beautiful gothic Church designed by "Notman" of Philadelphia. The Communicants residing in this Parish are still connected with Trinity, Wilmington.

The Rev. Stevens Parker entered upon his duties as Assistant, on the first of August last, and has since that time rendered most efficient aid in the Parish.

The "Old Church," during the months of July and August, was thoroughly painted, the walls and ceilings whitened, and otherwise repaired, since which time Divine service has been held in it regularly, and the Lord's Supper been administered once a month, and on the chief festivals.

A triangular piece of ground, adjoining the church wall, and bounded by Sixth and Church Streets, on which there is a good dwelling-house, has been purchased for the sum of $2,400; the half of this sum has been paid, and the remainder is on mortgage.

This was a most important purchase, preserving the church from a great variety of annoyances, and rendering the grave yard far more private.

The exterior of Trinity Chapel and Parsonage has been painted.

In the Sunday School room a floor has been laid, a new stove procured, a book-case and library purchased, and a valuable map hung upon the wall.

The Vestry room has been re-furnished with a carpet, and an appropriate table, and an engraving of the Bishop of the Diocese.

A room has been made for the Parish Library, and furnished with book-cases capable of holding six or seven hundred volumes. The library now contains 290 volumes of choice moral and religious works, selected with the greatest care.

A new organ has been erected in the Chapel, and for the price of fifteen hundred dollars, is a very sweet and powerful instrument.

Mr. John Gustave Lindgren, a native Swede, has been engaged for some months in translating the old Parish Record, beginning with the year of our Lord, 1713.

On Easter Sunday, an offering was made to the church of two handsome chairs for the chancel.

Why are not more hearts moved to honor the Lord with their substance, by appropriate gifts to the house which is called by His name?

Within the last month, a lot worth thirteen hundred dollars was presented to Trinity Corporation by a member of the church, on which, at some future day, we hope to erect a school house, and a home for the aged and infirm poor of the Parish.

The above services include those at the Union School House, in Mill Creek Hundred, where a number of families and communicants reside. I have also preached 25 times in other parishes within and without the Diocese, and delivered 11 addresses on various occasions, during the year. The plan for an enlargement of the church meets with favor. Owing to sickness and affliction in my family, I have not been able to be absent from them, in order to complete the subscriptions for this object. We need for the work about $1500. Our present number of pews is 32 of which 7 are reserved for free seats for the young persons attending the schools in Newark, and other strangers who occasionally worship with us. We have therefore but 25 pews for 37 families and some other adult persons, who would be glad to have sittings in the church.

Death has snatched from us the last year two of our devoted and pious laymen, Christopher Brooks and Solomon Leche, Esqrs, both of whom, after a work well done on earth, we believe are now rejoicing with the Church in glory.

Public services on Sundays 53, other days 8, total 61. The present incumbent took charge of the above parish in July, 1856. The state of things then, was such, that there was very little to encourage. A debt of over $500 on the Church edifice remained unpaid. The building still unfinished, and receiving injury from every storm; with but a few church members, all females, and no person to take much interest in the secular work of the Parish.

Through the blessing of God, however, things begin to look a little more encouragingly. The membership of the Church has greatly increased, the congregations are large, with a new but flourishing Sunday School organized. The four individuals also who went security for the debt, have made the very liberal offer to liquidate it, on condition that the Church raise a like amount for the purposes of finishing the building and furnishing it with a bell. This small sum I have no doubt our sister Churches will help us to raise, in view of getting our church out of debt, as well as enabling us to finish it before the coming winter. A few dollars from each parish with what we can obtain at home, will suffice. We hope therefore, that we shall be encouraged by our brethren in Christ. I have resumed the services at Fort Delaware Island, with fair prospects; I also intend commencing service at St. George's. May the good Lord in whom we trust give us strength to persevere in his blessed work.

Public services on Sundays and other festivals during the year.

The connection of the present Rector with this old and interesting Parish commenced on the first of July, 1856. In the discharge of professional duty since that period, he has met with many evidences of the fidelity and zeal of his lamented predecessor, whose untiring energy in his Master's cause will long be gratefully remembered by his parishioners.

The congregation of St. Ann's has considerably increased, and the number of strangers attending the public service of the Church, sanctions the belief, that the beauty of our Liturgy, and the solemnity of our worship, are both more clearly seen and more justly appreciated.

A number of pews that have long been vacant are now occupied by prominent and influential families; and the Vestry are at present making efforts to repair and improve the Church building, and render it more comfortable and convenient.

Several hundred dollars have been subscribed for the purchase of an organ, and the liberality and zeal of those engaged in the undertaking render the prospect of its ultimate attainment highly favorable.

Improvements upon the Rectory are also in contemplation, and several liberal contributions have been voluntarily offered for that purpose.

From these and various other evidences of augmented regard for the Church, combined with the well-known hospitality and kind feeling of the parishioners generally toward their Pastor, the Rector is justified in believing that a growing interest in things spiritual and eternal is spreading itself among the congregation, and will soon be manifested by a more faithful discharge of their "Duty towards God and their duty towards their neighbor."

This parish presents a field very encouraging, and I may say, "white unto the harvest;" but I regret to add that the labor which it demands is not to be obtained. Public service, but once in two weeks, is far too little for so important and promising a place as Milford; and I can only lament the necessity which compels me to devote to other engagements, the time and labor which might be so profitably expended in this Parish.

The repairs of this Church mentioned in my last annual report were not completed until after Christmas, so that public service was not resumed before the second Sunday in January last. But we have now a very decent and comfortable house of worship, and the prospects of the parish are quite encouraging.

In this connection it gives me pleasure to acknowledge the generosity of Trinity Church, Wilmington, to which we are indebted for the handsome contribution of $100, and also the friendly aid of certain brethren in Philadelphia, whose donations have been promptly added to save us from an embarrassing debt.

I continued to officiate in this Church as according to my last report, once in every two weeks, until Advent, since which time my appointments there have been less frequent. My duties at Georgetown since the re-opening of the Church, have now obliged me to relinquish services at Lewes altogether. The Rev. Mr. Mollvaine, however, officiates frequently on Sundays, and the Rev. Mr. Wright on occasional week days, so that the Church is far from destitute of acceptable ministrations.

The Lord's Supper has been administered publicly three times in Christ Church, Broad Creek, and once in St. Phillip's Chapel, Laurel.

The Bishop visited Christ Church, Broad Creek, in the afternoon of Sunday, Nov. 22d, 1856, and in the afternoon of Wednesday, May 20, 1857, and preached; and on one of these occasions, he administered the Holy Communion. He visited St. Phillip's, Laurel, in the evening of Sunday, November 23d, 1856, and in the evening of Thursday, May 21st, 1857, and preached.

Meetings were established at Laurel, in October last, at which approved religious books, selected by myself, were read; which continued until the middle of December. A Bible Class was formed, at Laurel, on the 25th of April, 1856, which is still in existence, and effecting, it is believed, some degree of good.

On Saturday, April 18th, last, I commenced teaching a small school in St. Phillip's Chapel, Laurel. The object of its institution was the giving the same religious instruction that Sunday Schools aim at imparting to the young. From twelve to twenty children have attended the later meetings of this school.

A few services have been performed by me in addition, out of the Parishes forming my charge, and beyond the limits of the State of Delaware.

The Bishop visited this church, and preached on the morning of Saturday, November 22d, 1856, and on the morning of Wednesday, May 20th, 1857.

The service for the Holy Communion has been performed six times publicly in this church, during the past year ; on one of which occasions the Lord's Supper was administered by the Bishop of the Diocese.

A Sunday School was organized in October last, which, though still quite small, is, I trust, pursuing a course of usefulness.

The Sunday services at Lewisville, within the limit of the congregation of Christ Church, Broad Creek, have been deducted from the services that would have been performed at Seaford, if the consent of the Church at this last-mentioned place had not been kindly given to such arrangement.

These are the services performed since the organizing of the congregation, previously to which event, three Sunday services and seven services on other days were performed in the same locality, then considered as a part of the Parish of Christ Church, Broad Creek, as noticed in the report of said church.

On the 13th of January last, this church was organized at a private house, six miles south of Laurel. A Vestry was elected, and subscriptions were commenced for the building of a small, plain church, the cost of which was not to exceed five hundred dollars. From the amount subscribed for this object, I am encouraged to hope that the building of this church will be begun within a short time. A liberal offer of assistance has also been received from the Rector of one of the churches of the city of New York, for which the Vestry and congregation feel much gratitude.

The Lord's Supper has been administered once in private to a dying person, four other persons partaking at the same time.

I am not certain that the whole number of communicants has been yet ascertained, but in the course of the summer I hope to obtain more full information than I now possess, with regard to this point, and to the number of families and individuals composing the congregation of St. Mark's Church.

On the evening of Friday the 22d day of May, the Bishop preached to this congregation, on which occasion the attendance was large.

In the place which, I trust, will soon be set apart to the service of God, may His holy name be worshipped in truth and purity, through all generations, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

REPORT OF REV. ASA S. COLTON.

My services during the past Conventional year have been as follows :

At the Alms-House on Sunday, once in two weeks, when not otherwise engaged, with visits on week days ; and since last December, with an interval of about three weeks, every Sunday, two services in St. Peter's Church, Smyrna. Number of services, with preaching, during the year, 98 ; five of them being in Pennsylvania.

ASA S. COLTON.

REPORT OF REV. WILLIAM MARSHALL, DEACON.

I would respectfully report that I am statedly engaged in scholastic duties. Sundays have been improved in assisting the Rev. John B. Clemson, D. D. Have several times ministered elsewhere, and have at all times endeavored to fulfil the claims on my office. For the future I expect to officiate at Newport. Have officiated at one Baptism, and also at two funerals.

WILLIAM MARSHALL.

CONSTITUTION
OF THE
Protestant Episcopal Church,
IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE.

ARTICLE I.

Of acceding to the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention.

This Church, as a constituent part of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, accedes to, recognizes and adopts the general Constitution of that Church, and acknowledges its authority accordingly.

ARTICLE II.

Of the meetings of the Diocesan Convention.

The Annual Convention of this Diocese shall be held on the last Wednesday in May, in each year; alternately in each County in this State; Provided, however, that in case of a prevailing contagious disease in the place thus designated; or a domestic insurrection in, or of an invasion of the county so named for holding the Convention, by a public enemy—that the Bishop, with the approbation of the Standing Committee, or the Standing Committee, if there be no Bishop, may appoint such other place for the annual meeting of the Convention as they may deem expedient; of which change of the place of holding the Convention, due public notice shall be given, and also special notice to the ministers of the several parishes in this State—at such place as a previous Convention may designate. The time of meeting may be altered, from time to time, by the Convention. And special Conventions may be called by the Bishop, or, if there be none, by the Standing Committee; one month's previous notice being given.

ARTICLE III.

Of members of the Convention.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly settled in some congregation in this Diocese; and of Lay Members, consisting of two Delegates from each congregation, to be chosen by the Vestry thereof; or, if there be no Vestry, by the congregation. And clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese, who are engaged as Professors, or Instructors of youth, in any Diocesan Institution, or in any Academy or Seminary of learning, officially recommended by the Bishop of the Diocese, or, if there be no Bishop, by the Standing Committee; and also Missionaries, under the ecclesiastical authority of this Diocese, and Chaplains in the Navy or Army of the United States, may be members of the Convention.

Provided, that all such Parochial Clergymen shall have been actually and personally resident, within this State, for not less than six calendar months, next before the meeting of the Convention, and that all such clergymen, engaged in the work of instruction only, and Chaplains, shall have been actually and personally resident in this State, not less than twelve calendar months, next before such meeting.

The Bishop, and the Assistant Bishop, when there is one, whether belonging to this Diocese, or having charge of it provisionally, shall have a seat and vote in the Convention; and one of them shall preside. If there be none, the Convention shall elect for its President one of the Presbyters attending.

No Clergyman of advanced years, or infirm health, who has been once entitled to a seat in the Convention, shall lose his right thereto by reason of having ceased from the active duties of his calling.

ARTICLE IV.

Of a Quorum.

Six members of the clerical, and twelve of the lay order, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn.

ARTICLE V.

Of the deliberations of the Convention.

In all matters that shall come before the Convention, the clergy and laity shall deliberate in one body: but if upon any question it be required by two members, the two orders shall vote separately; (the lay delegation from each parish being entitled to but one vote,) when required by the delegates of two parishes, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to give validity to any measure.

ARTICLE VI.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

A Secretary shall be chosen, immediately upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, by a joint ballot, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, to publish the annual Journal under the supervision of the Bishop or presiding officer of the Convention, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of each Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal. He shall also transmit to every General Convention a certificate signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid, or secured to be paid, (distinguishing them,) to the General Theological Seminary; and also a like certificate of the appointment of clerical and lay deputies. It shall also be his duty to give at least one month's notice, in one or more newspapers published in this State, of the time and place of holding every Convention, whether stated or special.

When a vacancy occurs, during the recess of Convention, in the office of Secretary, the Secretary of the Standing Committee shall perform the duties of the office, until the next meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

Of the Opening of the Convention.

Every Convention shall be opened by the celebration of Divine service, and of the Lord's Supper. And it shall be the duty of the Bishop, either to deliver a charge or sermon, or to appoint one of his Clergy to preach, at the opening of the Convention. If there be no Bishop, or none having provisional charge of the Diocese, the Standing Committee shall appoint the preacher.

ARTICLE VIII.

Of the Standing Committee.

Before the adjournment of each Annual Convention, a Standing Committee shall be appointed, by a concurrent ballot of both orders,

CONSTITUTION
OF THE
Protestant Episcopal Church,
IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE.

ARTICLE I.

Of acceding to the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention.

This Church, as a constituent part of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, accedes to, recognizes and adopts the general Constitution of that Church, and acknowledges its authority accordingly.

ARTICLE II.

Of the meetings of the Diocesan Convention.

The Annual Convention of this Diocese shall be held on the last Wednesday in May, in each year; alternately in each County in this State; Provided, however, that in case of a prevailing contagious disease in the place thus designated; or a domestic insurrection in, or of an invasion of the county so named for holding the Convention, by a public enemy—that the Bishop, with the approbation of the Standing Committee, or the Standing Committee, if there be no Bishop, may appoint such other place for the annual meeting of the Convention as they may deem expedient; of which change of the place of holding the Convention, due public notice shall be given, and also special notice to the ministers of the several parishes in this State—at such place as a previous Convention may designate. The time of meeting may be altered, from time to time, by the Convention. And special Conventions may be called by the Bishop, or, if there be none, by the Standing Committee; one month's previous notice being given.

ARTICLE III.

Of members of the Convention.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly settled in some congregation in this Diocese; and of Lay Members, consisting of two Delegates from each congregation, to be chosen by the Vestry thereof; or, if there be no Vestry, by the congregation. And clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese, who are engaged as Professors, or Instructors of youth, in any Diocesan Institution, or in any Academy or Seminary of learning, officially recommended by the Bishop of the Diocese, or, if there be no Bishop, by the Standing Committee; and also Missionaries, under the ecclesiastical authority of this Diocese, and Chaplains in the Navy or Army of the United States, may be members of the Convention.

Provided, that all such Parochial Clergymen shall have been actually and personally resident, within this State, for not less than six calendar months, next before the meeting of the Convention, and that all such clergymen, engaged in the work of instruction only, and Chaplains, shall have been actually and personally resident in this State, not less than twelve calendar months, next before such meeting.

The Bishop, and the Assistant Bishop, when there is one, whether belonging to this Diocese, or having charge of it provisionally, shall have a seat and vote in the Convention; and one of them shall preside. If there be none, the Convention shall elect for its President one of the Presbyters attending.

No Clergyman of advanced years, or infirm health, who has been once entitled to a seat in the Convention, shall lose his right thereto by reason of having ceased from the active duties of his calling.

ARTICLE IV.

Of a Quorum.

Six members of the clerical, and twelve of the lay order, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn.

ARTICLE V.

Of the deliberations of the Convention.

In all matters that shall come before the Convention, the clergy and laity shall deliberate in one body: but if upon any question it be required by two members, the two orders shall vote separately; (the lay delegation from each parish being entitled to but one vote,) when required by the delegates of two parishes, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to give validity to any measure.

ARTICLE VI.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

A Secretary shall be chosen, immediately upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, by a joint ballot, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, to publish the annual Journal under the supervision of the Bishop or presiding officer of the Convention, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of each Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal. He shall also transmit to every General Convention a certificate signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid, or secured to be paid, (distinguishing them,) to the General Theological Seminary; and also a like certificate of the appointment of clerical and lay deputies. It shall also be his duty to give at least one month's notice, in one or more newspapers published in this State, of the time and place of holding every Convention, whether stated or special.

When a vacancy occurs, during the recess of Convention, in the office of Secretary, the Secretary of the Standing Committee shall perform the duties of the office, until the next meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

Of the Opening of the Convention.

Every Convention shall be opened by the celebration of Divine service, and of the Lord's Supper. And it shall be the duty of the Bishop, either to deliver a charge or sermon, or to appoint one of his Clergy to preach, at the opening of the Convention. If there be no Bishop, or none having provisional charge of the Diocese, the Standing Committee shall appoint the preacher.

ARTICLE VIII.

Of the Standing Committee.

Before the adjournment of each Annual Convention, a Standing Committee shall be appointed, by a concurrent ballot of both orders, which shall consist of three of the clergy, and two of the laity. This committee shall continue in office until the end of the next Annual Convention, or until their successors are duly appointed. In case of a vacancy occurring, by death or otherwise, the remaining members of the committee shall, by ballot, supply the same. The Standing Committee shall, as soon as may be after their appointment, elect from their own body a president and secretary; and if either of these offices become vacant, the vacancy shall, without delay, be filled by another election. The president shall be a Presbyter. The Standing Committee shall present to each Annual Convention an abstract of the minutes of their proceedings since the former Convention.

ARTICLE IX.

Of the Election of a Bishop.

The election of a Bishop of this Diocese shall be made in Convention in the following manner. The order of the clergy shall nominate and appoint, by ballot, some fit and qualified Presbyter for that office; and the votes of two-thirds of that order shall be requisite to constitute a choice: and thereupon, such appointment shall be presented to the order of lay delegates, and be considered by them; and if, on a ballot, it should appear that the person so nominated be approved of by two-thirds of the lay order, he shall then be declared to be duly elected. And upon a vacancy occurring in the Episcopal Office in this Church, by death or otherwise, such vacancy shall be supplied by an election in the manner before prescribed. No election for a Bishop shall be held, unless there be present at the time three-fourths of all the clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and delegates from three-fourths of all the congregations in union with the same, and contributing to the Convention Fund.

ARTICLE X.

Of the trial of Clergymen.

SECTION 1. Any Presbyter or Deacon of this Diocese may be presented for trial, for any crime or other offence, as provided in Canon XXXVII, of 1832, of the General Convention.*

*CANONS OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF 1832.

CANON XXXVII.

Of offences for which Ministers shall be tried and punished.

SECTION 1. Every Minister shall be liable to presentment and trial, for any crime or gross immorality, for disorderly conduct, for drunkenness, for profane

SEC. 2. Every such presentment shall be made in writing to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, in case of a vacancy in the office of Bishop, to the president of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 3. A presentment shall specify, with clearness and certainty, the offence or offences charged, and shall be signed by the persons making it.

SEC. 4. A presentment shall be made by a majority of the Vestry, in a Vestry meeting duly convened, of the Parish with which the person accused is connected; or, if he be not connected with any parish, in which he resides; or, if he do not reside within the limits of any parish, of the parish nearest to his place of residence; or by four or more male communicants of the same; or by two presbyters of this Diocese; a presentment being always made by one of the above classes, exclusive of the others; and a Deacon not being permitted to unite in a presentment.

SEC. 5. Upon the receipt of any such presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop, if he shall deem it advisable after consultation with the Standing Committee, or of the president of the Standing Committee, as the case may be, after such advisement, to take measures for trial, and to furnish a copy of said presentment to the accused, giving him notice of the time and place of trial.

SEC. 6. The Bishop shall thereupon summon all the Presbyters of this Diocese, except such as may have presented, to meet at some convenient place within the same, on some day not less than thirty days after the date of said summons; of which Presbyters, any three or more attending shall be the Court for the trial of the party accused, to decide upon his guilt or innocence, and, if found guilty, to recommend a sentence by a majority of voices.

SEC. 7. A copy of the presentment, and a notice of the summons of the said Presbyters, shall be served upon the party accused, at least twenty days before the day appointed for trial, by delivering the same to him personally, or by leaving the same at his place of residence, or his last place of residence in this State, if he have left the same, or cannot be found.

swearing, for frequenting places most liable to be abused to licentiousness, and for violation of the Constitution or Canons of this Church, or of the Diocese to which he belongs; and on being found guilty, he shall be admonished, suspended or degraded, according to the Canons of the Diocese in which the trial takes place, until otherwise provided for by the General Convention.

SEC. 8. The judgment of the Court shall be delivered to the Bishop, with the records of the trial and the sentence recommended; and the Bishop may pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided such sentence shall not exceed in severity that recommended by the Court of trial; and his sentence shall be final; or, if the Bishop deem it necessary to justice, he may order a new trial, to be held as hereinbefore directed.

SEC. 9. If there be no Bishop, the sentence of the Court shall be submitted to some neighboring Bishop, who may either order a new trial, or ratify and pronounce the said sentence, which shall then be final.

SEC. 10. Witnesses for the prosecution, and for the defence at the request of the party accused, shall be summoned by the said Court, for a full and impartial hearing of the whole matter.

SEC. 11. The party accused shall have a right to be present at the trial, and to be heard in his defence; and may avail himself of the aid of counsel.

SEC. 12. The records of all proceedings on the presentment of a clergyman shall, after the final decision, be delivered to the Secretary of the Standing Committee, to be preserved with their papers.

SEC. 13. If the accused be acquitted, the Bishop, or President of the Standing Committee, as the case may require, shall give him a certificate of acquittal, embracing a copy of the presentment; and he shall not be subject to presentment again upon the same charge.

ARTICLE XI.

Of a Clergyman accused by public rumor.

SECTION 1. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that a clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct, for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint two presbyters, as a committee of inquiry, to examine into the truth of such rumors or allegations, according to the provisions of Sec. 2, of Canon XXXVII, of the General Convention of 1832.*

*Sec. 2. If any minister of this Church shall be accused by public rumor, of discontinuing all exercise of the ministerial office without lawful cause, or of living in the habitual disuse of public worship, or of the holy eucharist according to the offices of this church, or of being guilty of scandalous, disorderly or immoral conduct, or of violating the Canons, or preaching or in-

SEC. 2. Should the crime, offence or misdemeanor, of which said clergyman is accused, be found supported, in whole or in part upon such inquiry, it shall be the duty of the Bishop, unless upon consultation with the Standing Committee he shall deem such finding insufficient, to proceed to take measures for trial, as is provided in Article X. of the Constitution.

ARTICLE XII.

Of the admission of new Parishes.

Any Protestant Episcopal congregation within this State, duly organized, but not in union with the Convention of this Diocese at the time of ordaining this Constitution, shall be entitled to the entire benefit thereof, as soon as they shall signify their ratification of it, either in writing, or by sending lay delegates as members of the Convention; and such congregation shall thereafter be benefitted and bound by every rule or canon which shall be framed by any Convention, acting under the Constitution, for the government of this Church in its ecclesiastical concerns.

ARTICLE XIII.

Of Ministers, members of Vestries.

When not forbidden by the charter of any congregation, the presbyter, who is settled as the minister of the parish, shall be a member of the Vestry thereof, and, when present, shall preside at its meetings.

ARTICLE XIV.

Of the mode in which the Constitution may be changed.

This Constitution shall be unalterable, except in the following manner: A proposition for any change shall be introduced in writing and considered in Convention, and, if approved of, the same shall be published at large in the Journal of the Convention; and, if again approved of in the next ensuing Convention, by a majority of the two orders, voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

culcating heretical doctrine, it shall be the duty of the Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, the Clerical members of the Standing Committee, to see that an inquiry be instituted as to the truth of such public rumor. And in case of the individual being proceeded against and convicted, according to such rules or process as may be provided by the Conventions of the respective Dioceses, he shall be admonished, suspended, or degraded as the nature of the case may require, in conformity with their respective Constitutions and Canons.

CANONS
OF THE
Protestant Episcopal Church,
IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE.

CANON I.

A List to be made of the Clergy.

SEC. 1. Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective cures or parishes, or stations as missionaries, or of the colleges, academies, or general seminaries of learning in which they are engaged; or in regard to those who are not engaged in parishes, missions, or institutions of learning as above mentioned, their places of residence only, distinguishing those who are entitled to seats in the Convention.

SEC. 2. The right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention, shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the third article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself; whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid, or omitted.

SEC. 3. If there be no Bishop, or none having provisional charge of this Diocese, the President of the Standing Committee shall prepare the said list, and lay it before the Convention.

CANON II.

Certificates of Lay Delegates.

The appointment of a lay delegate to the Convention of this Diocese shall be certified in writing by the Rector of the parish of which he is a representative, or by one of the wardens, or by the clerk or secretary of the vestry of such church; and no other certificate of such appointment shall be allowed or received. And no lay delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be eligible to the office of vestryman of the church which he claims to represent.

CANON III.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. There shall be appointed by the Convention a Treasurer of the Church in this State, who shall be a man of good character and responsibility. He shall be removed at the pleasure of the Convention; but, unless so removed, he shall continue in office until a successor is appointed. He shall keep a fair and exact account of all moneys received and paid by him; and shall lay before the Convention, annually, or oftener if required, a full and accurate statement of his accounts. He shall pay no money but by order of the Convention, and shall, in all things relating to his office, conform to their rules and directions.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, during the recess of the Convention, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON IV.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Whereas, by the XXIXth Canon of the General Convention of 1832, it is made the duty of every minister to keep a register of baptisms, confirmations, communicants, marriages and funerals, within his cure; agreeably to such rules as may be provided by the Convention of the Diocese where his cure lies—it is hereby ordered, that the record shall specify the name and time of birth of the child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized; the names of the persons confirmed; the names of all the communicants within his cure, as nearly as can be ascertained; the names of the parties married, and the authority under which the rite was celebrated; the names of the persons buried; and also the time when each rite was performed, or each new communicant admitted. These records shall be kept by the minister, in a book to be provided for that purpose by the vestry of each church; which book shall be the parish register, and shall be preserved by the vestry as a part of the records of the church.

Each minister shall also keep, as far as practicable, a list of all the families and adult persons within his cure, to remain for the use of his successor, and to be continued by him, and by the future ministers of the parish.

SEC. 2. And whereas, by the XIIth Canon of the General Convention of 1853, it is made the duty of each minister to present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop, or when there is none, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of baptisms, confirmations, marriages, and funerals, and of the number of communicants in his cure, and of all other matters that may throw light on its condition; it is hereby further ordered, that in reporting the number of communicants, the minister shall state, besides the whole number at the time, the number of additions, removals and deaths, since the last report.

SEC. 3. The above report shall also mention the number of teachers and scholars in Sunday Schools, and other catechumens connected with the parish—and the amount of contributions for religious and charitable objects, specifying them.

SEC. 4. When a parish is destitute of a minister, the register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose; and the annual parochial report shall be presented or forwarded, as ordered in Sec. 2, by the Wardens.

CANON V.

Of the Report to the General Convention.

A committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meetings of the same, next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, to draft, with the advice and approbation of the Bishop if there be one, a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON VI.

Of the Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. Deputies to the General Convention shall be chosen by the concurrent ballot of the clerical and lay votes, at every stated Convention of this Diocese; and their appointment shall continue until the next stated Convention, or until others are chosen in their places.

SEC. 2. Should any deputy elected discover, one month before the meeting of the General Convention, his inability to attend, he shall notify the president of the Standing Committee of such inability, and it shall be the duty of the Committee to supply the vacancy occurring in this or in any other way, before the meeting of the Convention.

SEC. 3. Should a vacancy occur, by death or otherwise, in the deputation to the General Convention, it shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the remaining clerical and lay deputies when it shall be practicable.

SEC. 4. Clerical deputies to the General Convention may present an account of their expenses, in their travel and attendance, to the Standing Committee, who shall make a reasonable allowance for the same, to be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention out of its funds.

CANON VII.

Of Lay Discipline.

SEC. 1. If a layman, repelled from the Holy Communion according to the rubric, shall complain thereof to the Bishop, according to Canon XLII of the General Convention of 1832, the Bishop, (or his assistant Bishop,) whether belonging to this Diocese, or having provisional charge thereof, shall, unless he restore him to the Communion according to said canon, appoint two disinterested clergymen, and two disinterested laymen who are communicants, to inquire into and try the case. If they report to the Bishop that the repelled person should be restored, the Bishop shall so direct; and no minister of this Diocese shall deny him the Holy Communion. If they report otherwise, or make no report within three months from their appointment, the repulsion shall continue in force.

If this judicatory for the trial of a layman shall be equally divided concerning the guilt of the accused, or the propriety of restoring him to the Communion, they may elect as umpire any other disinterested male communicant in this diocese, whether clerical or lay, and make their report within three months as aforesaid. And, at any time after conviction, if the judicatory do not define the term of the repulsion, the Bishop, (or his assistant Bishop,) or the minister of the parish, being a presbyter, may restore the repelled person to the Holy Communion, according to the rubric.

SEC. 2. Communicants neglecting the Holy Communion or the public worship of the church for the space of six months, without a reason satisfactory to their parochial minister, or leading inconsistent and immoral lives, may, after admonition, be suspended by the minister from the Communion; and if, within a reasonable time, there is no satisfactory proof given of reformation, their names shall be removed from the Parochial Register of Communicants; and they shall be considered as repelled, and notified thereof. Notice is in all such cases to be given to the Bishop according to the provision of the rubric concerning repulsion, and the same proceedings may be had as provided in Sec. 1.

SEC. 3. A layman under repulsion from the Holy Communion, if visited with extreme or mortal sickness, may be re-admitted to that ordinance without trial, or after conviction, if the Presbyter attending him deem him truly penitent, and in charity with all men.

CANON VIII.

Of Trials and Penalties.

SEC. 1. All trials, whether of clergymen or laymen, shall be in public, if the party accused so require, unless the judicatory are of opinion that such publicity will occasion unholy scoffing, and be contrary to edification. When a public trial is refused, the accused may have present any six male communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and the party presenting or prosecuting may have present the same number of other such communicants.

SEC. 2. Witnesses at any trial may, if demanded by either party, be put on oath. Written evidence may be admitted, on either side, the other party having had sufficient notice of the time and place of taking the same, and being allowed to attend when it is taken; and the persons examined for the written evidence may also be put on oath.

SEC. 3. Counsel shall be allowed the accused, if he require it; in which case, the party presenting or prosecuting shall be allowed the same privilege. And every judicatory may have counsel as they shall desire.

CANON IX.

Of the Missionary and Education Committee.

SEC. 1. At each Annual Convention there shall be appointed a committee, consisting of the Bishop of the Diocese, ex-officio, and two clergymen and two laymen elected by ballot, to be called the Missionary and Education Committee, to which shall be entrusted the charge of conducting the operations of the Church in behalf of Missions, Education, and benevolent objects connected therewith. This committee shall elect a Secretary and Treasurer, and report their doings to the next stated Convention, and their appointment shall continue until the next annual Convention, or until others are chosen in their places.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Parish to raise contributions for the purpose designated in the following section, by collection or otherwise, monthly or oftener, which shall be remitted quarterly to the Treasurer.

SEC. 3. The committee shall employ the funds so transmitted to them in support of Missionaries laboring within this Diocese, (such Missionaries being always nominated by the Bishop,) or transmit the same, or a portion thereof, to the Domestic or the Foreign Committee of the General Board of Missions; or employ a portion thereof in assisting deserving and indigent candidates for the sacred ministry, in their necessary preparation for the same; or in the erection or repair of churches in feeble Parishes, at their discretion. But any Parish or donor may direct the application, wholly or in part, of their contributions, which directions shall be strictly observed.

CANON X.

Of the Convention Fund.

Each congregation in the Diocese shall pay annually the sum of five dollars, and in addition to that sum, each congregation having over twenty communicants and not exceeding thirty, shall pay one dollar; and every congregation having over thirty and not exceeding forty communicants, shall pay three dollars; and every congregation having over forty and not exceeding sixty communicants, shall pay five dollars; and every congregation having over sixty and not exceeding one hundred communicants, shall pay seven dollars; and every congregation having over one hundred communicants shall pay ten dollars, for defraying the expenses and charges to which the Convention is liable.

CANON XI.

Of the Vestry of a Church.

SEC. 1. In every church in this Diocese there shall be an annual election, on Easter Monday, unless some other day be appointed, of a Vestry, consisting of not less than five, nor more than nine members, which number, unless specified by articles of association or by charter, shall be designated before the election takes place, who shall continue in office until their successors are appointed; and they shall have power to fill all vacancies which may occur during the year, and be judges of their own election; and in such elections a plurality of votes shall decide the choice. Two of these Vestrymen shall be designated at the election to serve as Wardens, one of whom shall be designated as the Senior Warden of the Parish—who, in the absence of the Rector, shall preside at the meetings of the Vestry. In the absence of both, the Junior Warden shall preside. The Vestry shall elect a Secretary, whose duty it shall be to take and record the minutes of their proceedings—attest the public acts of the Vestry—preserve all records and papers belonging to the Parish—perform such other duty as shall be legally assigned him, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and documents of the Parish that may be in his possession.

SEC. 2. No person shall be entitled to vote at such election who is not a pew or seat holder or renter, or an annual subscriber to the support of the minister of the church, or a male communicant of the same.

SEC. 3. No person shall be eligible as a Vestrymen who is not a qualified voter in the parish, according to the provisions of Sec. 2, and an habitual attendant upon the services of the church for which he is elected.

SEC. 4. If any Vestryman shall be guilty of scandalous or immoral conduct, or shall be notoriously immoral in his general character, or entirely neglect attendance upon public worship, it shall be the duty of the minister, or in case there shall be no minister, of the Senior Warden, to present him to the Vestry, who shall have power, on being satisfied of his guilt, to expel him, provided always, that at least a majority of the whole number concur in such expulsion, and that the person expelled shall have a right to appeal to the Bishop.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Vestry to take charge of the property of the church, to regulate all its temporal concerns, to elect and call a minister, and to provide for his maintenance, to keep order in the church during the celebration of divine worship, and in general to act as helpers to the minister, in whatever is appropriate to laymen, for the furtherance of the Gospel; it being understood, always, that the spiritual concerns of the church are under the exclusive direction of the minister, in subordination to the ecclesiastical authority and laws of the Diocese.

It shall be the duty of the Wardens, especially, to provide the elements for the Lord's Supper, to collect the alms and offerings at the administration of the same, to keep and disburse such alms in case the church is destitute of a minister, and while the church is destitute of a minister, to provide for the celebration of public worship by occasional clerical services, or by lay reading, under the advice of the Bishop.

Meetings of the Vestry shall be called by the Rector, or, in his absence, by the Senior Warden, and meetings shall be called at the request of two Vestrymen. The Vestry may adjourn, from time to time, at their pleasure.

(Parishes now in union with the Convention are excepted from any parts of this Canon interfering with their charters, articles of association, or by-laws.)

CANON XII.

Of Lay Readers.

No one shall be considered as authorized to officiate as a Lay Reader in this Diocese, except in cases of particular emergency, without a written license from the Bishop; and lay readers shall, in all cases, conform to the provisions of Sec. 12 of Canon III of 1856, of the General Convention.

CANON XIII.

Of Trustees of Bishop's Fund, &c.

At the present, and at each future annual Convention, five Trustees of the "Fund for the support of a Bishop, and to aid missionaries and necessitous ministers, their widows and children," shall be elected by concurrent ballot of both orders: to continue in office until the next annual Convention thereafter, or until their successors are duly appointed. In case of vacancy, by death or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the remaining Trustees to notify the Standing Committee of the Diocese thereof, and it shall be the duty of the said committee to supply such vacancy, as soon as they shall have knowledge of the same, by such notice, or otherwise.

CANON XIV.

Of Elections.

In all elections, not otherwise provided for and regulated by the constitution of the P. E. Church in this State, the votes of a majority of all the members present; or, if voting by orders, of a majority of all present of the respective orders, shall be necessary to a choice.

CANON XV.

Of Episcopal Contributions.

It shall be the duty of the Wardens of every Parish to collect at the rate of fifty cents annually for each communicant therein, together with such other voluntary contributions as may be made to them for the same object, either privately or by public collections for that object, in their respective parishes, and pay the same over annually to the Treasurer of the Convention for the time being, subject to the Bishop's order, for his own private use.

CANON XVI.

Of Alterations and Additions to the Canons.

No proposition to alter or add to the Canons of the Diocese shall be considered by the Convention except at a stated meeting, nor (unless by unanimous consent,) until it shall have been reported on by a committee. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the members present shall not concur therein; but in such case, the same, (unless negatived by a majority of the votes,) shall lie over for consideration till the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Repealing former Canons.

All former Canons of this Diocese, not included in these Canons, are hereby repealed.

A constitutional quorum being present, the Convention, pursuant to the sixth Article of the Constitution, proceeded to the election of a Secretary.

The Rev. Stevens Parker and Mr. Gregg Chandler, were appointed tellers, and upon counting the votes reported that Dr. J. F. Wilson had been duly elected.

Whereupon the chair declared, Dr. J. F. Wilson to be Secretary of the Convention for the ensuing year.

The Rev. Mr. Breck offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of our sense of the loss sustained by this Diocese, in the death of Alexis I. du Pont.

The Chair appointed as the Committee the Rev. Charles Breck, Rev. S. C. Brinckle and Wm. T. Read, Esq.

The Rev. Mr. Slack moved that a Committee of three be appointed to prepare resolutions expressive of the loss the Diocese has sustained, in the death of the Rev. Richard F. Cadle.

The Rev. S. R. Slack, Rev. J. L. McKim and Charles Wright, Esq., were appointed the Committee.

On motion of the Rev. S. Parker, it was

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, not belonging to this Diocese, and Students of Theology, who are candidates for Holy Orders in this church, who may be present, be and they are hereby invited to attend the sittings of the Convention.

The Rev. Robert L. Goldsborough of the Diocese of Delaware, Rev. George D. Cummins, D. D., and Rev. J. E. Grammar, of Washington City, D. C., Rev. Thomas F. Billopp, of the Diocese of New Jersey, and the Rev. Daniel Washburn of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, were present.

The Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted as the Rules of Order of the present session, and on request were read by the Secretary.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The business of every day shall be introduced with prayer.
2. When the president takes the chair, no member shall continue standing, nor shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.
3. No member shall absent himself from the service of the house, unless he have leave, or be unable to attend.
4. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
5. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, without leave of the house.

6. A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of the house, and shall not be again drawn into debate during the same session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the house.

7. If a question in debate contain more parts than one, any member may have the same divided into as many questions as there are parts.

8. While the President is putting any question, no one shall hold private discourse, stand up, walk into, out of, or across the house, or read any book.

9. Every member who shall be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be particularly interested in the decision.

10. No motion shall be considered as before the house unless it be seconded, and reduced to writing when required.

11. When any question is before the house it shall be determined on before any new thing is introduced, except the question for adjournment.

12. The question on a motion for adjournment shall be taken before any other, and without debate.

13. When the house is about to rise, every member shall keep his seat until the President leaves the chair.

14. The Journals of the Convention shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and a copy sent to each member of the Convention.

15. The charge or sermon, when delivered by the Bishop before the Convention, shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and one copy sent to each clergyman, and ten copies to each vestry in the Diocese.

The Convention then took a recess for divine service.

The order for Daily Morning Prayer was read by the Rev. Charles Breck, Rector of Trinity Church, Wilmington, as far as the Litany, and concluded by the Rev. John B. Clemson, D. D., Rector of the Church of the Ascension, Brandywine Hundred.

The congregation then united in singing the first four verses of the 99th Psalm, after which the Ante-Communion Service was read by the Bishop.

After the singing of 78th Hymn, the Sermon was delivered by the Rev. George D. Cummins, D. D., Rector of Trinity Church, Washington, D. C.

The Holy Communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Cummins.

The congregation having been dismissed, the Bishop resumed the chair, and called the house to order.

The Rev. Dr. Clemson moved that when the Convention adjourn, it adjourn until five o'clock this afternoon. The motion was amended by inserting the word three, in lieu of five, and passed.

The Convention then adjourned.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, SMYRNA, June 2, 1858, }
3 o'clock, P. M. }

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment. The Bishop took the chair and called the house to order.

The minutes of the morning session were read by the Secretary. Mr. Alfred C. Nowland moved to amend, by striking out all that refers to the election of a Secretary pro tem. The motion to amend, was on motion of the Rev. S. C. Brinckle, laid on the table, and the minutes approved.

The Bishop then read his Annual Address.

ADDRESS

To the Clerical and Lay Members of the Sixty-eighth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Delaware.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY:

In the Providence of God we meet again in our Annual Convention. But we meet not as we parted. Some of our former associates, with whom we exchanged farewells a year ago, are not here to extend to us the hand of welcome. The voice that should have been heard at the opening of this body calling the roll of its members is mute, and we look in vain for the manly form of our late Secretary. In the mysterious Providence of Almighty God, Alexis I. Du Pont was suddenly snatched away from the bosom of his family and from the church militant here upon earth. In the full vigor of health, in the prime of life, in the flow of energy, in the height of usefulness, his place is left vacant. We cannot but deeply lament our loss, for men like him are rare. Much had we reason to anticipate from that course of Christian activity upon which he had entered with so much heart and devotedness. But we bow with submission before Him whose ways are past finding out. We bless God for the good example of His departed servant, for the consecrated energy of his life, for the peace and hope of his departure, and we desire to repose our whole trust in Him who is dependant on no earthly instruments.

From our Clerical ranks we miss the beloved and venerated Cadle. Of his unfeigned piety and unobtrusive excellence all who knew him are witnesses. Without using the language of exaggerated eulogy I may safely say of him, "He was a good man and full of faith and of the Holy Ghost." He was an earnest minister of Christ, a pioneer Missionary "in labors more abundant," "in all things shewing himself a pattern of good works, in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, sound speech that could not be condemned." The illness of our deceased brother was brief, and was probably brought on by exposure in the performance of his duties. On my fall visitation, although suffering from an attack of disease, he began to accompany me, and the day before he was seized with his final sickness, he led me to the little church which he had recently founded and which will stand as his memorial pillar. May it remind those to whom he had spoken the word of God, of the holy lessons delivered by his lips and enforced by his life, so that they may be able after his decease to have these things always in remembrance.

We have also paid the last office of respect and affection to another revered brother in the ministry, who, although not on our list of Clergy, by his recent sojourning in the Diocese and his ending his days among us, seemed as one of ourselves. The venerable Dr. Judd was, at the time of his decease, the Senior Presbyter of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. For sixty years he had been engaged in the duties of his sacred office, and at four-score there was no flagging of his zeal and devotion. He had labored in different parts of our Union, in the Northern, the Middle and the Southern States; had founded numerous parishes, had presided over institutions of learning, and was held in reputation as a scholar, a theologian and a preacher of the gospel. Such representatives of a former age are precious. We would gladly retain them, that we might profit by their rich experience and their ripened wisdom. But our venerable father had passed the usual limit of life, although permitted to retain in a remarkable degree his faculties of body and mind. Having served God and his generation, he has fallen asleep in Jesus, leaving to his family and friends the memory of an unspotted life, and to his brethren in the ministry an example of diligence, zeal, patient continuance in well doing, and earnest maintenance of the faith once delivered to the saints. May we have grace to follow our departed brethren as they followed Christ.

The usual visitations have been made of the Churches and Missionary stations of the Diocese. On these occasions, I have officiated by preaching, in Ascension Church, Claymont, twice; Trinity Church, Wilmington, once, and Trinity Chapel, three times; Christ Church, Christiana Hundred, four times; Immanuel Church, New Castle, three times; St. James, Newport, twice; St. James, Stanton, once; St. Thomas', Newark, four times, and in Mill Creek Hundred, once; Christ Church, Delaware City, three times; St. Anne's, Middletown, twice; at Smyrna, (in the Presbyterian Church of which the use was kindly offered), twice; in Christ Church, Dover, once; Christ Church Milford, twice; Milton, twice; St. Paul's, Georgetown, three times; St. Peter's, Lewes, five times; St. George's, Indian River, twice; Long Neck Chapel, once; St. Mark's, Millsborough, twice; St. John's, Little Hill, twice; St. Luke's, Seaford, three times; Christ Church, Broad Creek, twice; St. Philip's Chapel, Laurel, twice; in all (exclusive of St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, and the City Mission sustained by St. Andrew's,) fifty-six times.

ORDINATIONS.

On the 12th of July, 1857, Mr. Thomas Mills Martin was ordained Deacon, in St. Thomas' Church, Newark.

On the 26th day of July, 1857, the Rev. Wm. H. D. Hatton was ordained Presbyter in Christ Church, Delaware City.

CLERICAL CHANGES.

ADDED.

The Rev. Robert L. Goldsborough from the Diocese of Maryland; letter accepted March 3d, 1858. The Rev. Thomas M. Martin, by ordination.

DISMISSED.

The Rev. Thomas F. Billopp to the Diocese of New Jersey, letter accepted by Bishop Doane, December 11th, 1857.

The Rev. George Sheets to the Diocese of Missouri, letter dated March 18th, 1858. Notice of acceptance has not yet reached me.

The Rev. R. F. Cadle removed by death.

The Rev. T. F. Billopp resigned, in October last, the Rectorship of St. Ann's Church, Middletown, and has removed from this Diocese, in which he has left behind him many warmly attached friends. He has been succeeded at St. Ann's by the Rev. R. L. Goldsborough who entered upon his duties in February last.

The Rev. Samuel R. Slack resigned, in November, the Rectorship of St. Thomas' Church, Newark, but has been generally supplying the pulpit of that Parish during the winter. Mr. Slack has recently accepted an invitation from the Churches made vacant by the decease of Rev. Mr. Cadle, and is now Rector of St. Luke's, Seaford; Christ Church, Broad Creek, and St. Mark's, Little Creek Hundred. It has been gratifying that Mr. Slack's services are not lost to the Diocese, and his labors will, I trust, be prospered in the wide and interesting field upon which he has now entered. St. John's Church, Little Hill, is also added to Mr. Slack's charge, having been recently resigned by the Rev. Wm. Wright, its distance from Mr. Wright's other Churches rendering it very inconvenient for him to officiate there.

The Rev. George Sheets has resigned the charge of St. James', Stanton. He has been succeeded by the Rev. William Marshall, who is also officiating regularly at St. James', Newport. Both of these Churches have been refitted, and the worship of the Sanctuary made more attractive. The interior of the Church at Stanton in particular is very greatly improved, and the congregations in both Churches appear to be increasing. At Newport a Parish has been organized, or rather the old Parish of St. James, to which still pertains a small piece of land, has been revived. Persons residing in the vicinity are now taking a warm interest in the welfare of this little church, and I cannot but trust it will be prospered and made a blessing.

The Rev. Thomas M. Martin has accepted a call from St. Peter's Church, Lewes, resigned by the Rev. J. L. McKim. Mr. Martin entered upon his duties at St. Peter's in October last, and has since been laboring there with zeal and energy, and with much encouragement. The new St. Peter's Church, has been occupied by the congregation for divine service since last November, and in chaste and simple beauty and convenient arrangement is all that they could desire. The increased attendance, and the number who came forward to receive the laying on of hands, rendered my last visitation one of much interest and gratification. The pastor being still in Deacon's orders I administered the Holy Communion, to which sacred rite a good number of new communicants, including nearly all who had been confirmed on the previous day, were received. The old Church edifice has been very appropriately fitted up for use of schools and week-day services. It is thus preserved to the Parish, and, apart from the interesting associations connected with it, which make its preservation desirable, is exceedingly convenient and useful. The members and friends of this ancient Parish may well be congratulated upon its present prosperous condition.

The work upon the large and substantial Church commenced for St. John's Parish, Brandywine Village, the corner stone of which was laid at our last Convention, has not been interrupted by the lamented decease of the gentleman who was the principal contributor towards it.

Through the liberality of his widow and family the enterprise has been carried forward on the original plan, and the building is now rapidly approaching its completion.

An interesting service was held in old Trinity Church, Wilmington, on the 18th of April last, when the rite of Confirmation was administered for the first time in forty years. On this occasion an estimable lady was present who had received the laying on of hands from Bishop White in the same place in 1793, and another who had been confirmed there by Bishop Claggett in 1803.

Christ Church, Delaware City, having been put in good repair, and the remaining indebtedness thereon having been generously released, it was consecrated on Sunday, the 12th of December, 1857.

The labors of the Rev. W. H. D. Hatton (advanced to the rank of Presbyter) have been continued with his usual diligence and zeal. The small number of families attached to the Church renders it difficult to secure an adequate support to a Pastor, and it is not so situated as to admit of being very conveniently connected with another Parish. Yet the result of past efforts should certainly encourage the members and friends of the Church there. A very neat and spacious Church edifice has been built, and is now free from debt; a good Sunday School has been gathered, an encouraging number of additions has been made to the Communion, and a foundation laid for future growth and usefulness. Under these favoring circumstances it is hoped that the congregation will not despond or relax their efforts, but will continue and redouble them.

The Parish of St. Peter's, Smyrna, has been without a Pastor since the last Convention, but was supplied with services for a considerable part of the time by the Rev. A. S. Colton. The old and contracted church has been succeeded by the present greatly enlarged and improved edifice, in which the Convention is now holding its session. The members of this congregation will have the hearty sympathy of their brethren throughout the Diocese in this decided and commendable improvement. May the new sanctuary be occupied by an earnest Pastor and a full and interested congregation, and the work of building up the spiritual house go on with energy and with the blessing of God.

On Friday, May 28th, I consecrated to the worship of Almighty

God the little church to which allusion has been made in my notice of the lamented Mr. Cadle. St. Mark's, Little Creek Hundred, is a simple and unpretending edifice, but convenient and comfortable. It is situated in a neighborhood where the want of an Episcopal Church has been felt, and bids fair to secure a good congregation. Hallowed by memories of the sainted dead, and founded in prayer and faith, may we not confidently trust that a blessing will rest upon its worshippers, and that it will prove to many none other than the house of God and the gate of Heaven.

I am not able to report either St. Thomas' Church, Newark, or St. Peter's, Smyrna, as being yet supplied with settled pastors, but am happy to be informed that the want in each case will probably be soon and acceptably supplied.

The only candidate for orders now connected with the Diocese is Mr. Thomas G. Clemson, from May 11th, 1856.

The Review of the year presents one Ordination of Deacon and one of Presbyter, two churches consecrated, three others approaching completion or quite complete although not yet consecrated, and one hundred and twenty-nine persons confirmed. This number exceeds that of any former year of my connexion with the diocese. May we receive it as an indication that we are not wholly shut out from that blessing of the Almighty which seems to have been poured out of late so abundantly and powerfully.

In the Diocese of Pennsylvania, at the request of Bishop Potter, I administered Confirmation at Chester to thirty persons.

On my visitations I have several times administered the Lord's Supper, have baptized two infants and officiated at two funerals.

The year that has elapsed since our last meeting has been an eventful one in the world's calendar. It will be ever memorable for that portentous outbreak in the East of Mahomedan and Heathen ferocity, startling civilized nations by atrocities that make the ears of the hearer to tingle. Thus has God permitted an unchristian policy, which has always thwarted and discouraged the missionary of the cross, to bring down a fearful punishment. A mighty testimony has been gained for the gospel as the only effectual civilizer of the barbarous, the true bulwark of social order, security and peace, and a new impulse has been already given to efforts to evangelize those benighted and neglected millions.

Over our own country has swept a rushing wave of commercial embarrassment, whelming beneath it the sanguine hopes and imagined wealth of thousands of Mammon's eager worshippers, and mightily enforcing the divine lessons of the uncertainty of riches and the sure disappointments of covetousness. This financial revulsion has been succeeded by a widely extended and remarkable interest upon the subject of religion. Eternal salvation became suddenly the absorbing theme. Men left their places of business, in the most active hours of the day, to unite in prayer and in hearing the word of God. Can we ascribe this very extensive and profound movement to any other agent than the Spirit of God! It has been to a great degree free from fanatical excitement, enthusiastic delusion and sectarian strife. It has been quiet, earnest, affectionate, and marvellously propagated. We may trace indeed a connexion with certain antecedents, with the business revulsion for instance. But it is not in the heart of man, unguided from above, to turn earthly calamities to spiritual profit. We may account for the rapid diffusion of awakened feeling by the free intercommunication of our people, by railroads, electric wires and steam-power presses. But this does not explain the novel fact that these agencies should be subservient to the spread of religious emotion and interest in the things which accompany salvation. To my apprehension there has not been brought before the minds of Christian men for more than one generation a subject so entitled to their earnest, reverent consideration. The great point for them to settle, to their own satisfaction and with a deep sense of accountability, is, shall this work be ascribed to God? If so, it should enlist our warm sympathy and co-operation. To discountenance and ignore it cannot in such an event but be most prejudicial to ourselves. In many of our congregations throughout the land this movement has been most powerfully and beneficially felt. Unexampled ingatherings into the fold of Christ have rejoiced the hearts of laborious pastors, and the net of the fishers of men has been almost broken by reason of the multitude it contained. May God give to His people, and especially to His ministers, in times so remarkable, the wisdom that is from above; "the spirit of love and of power and of a sound mind," and may they who are appointed to teach others be themselves fully taught "what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God."

Your affectionate friend and pastor,

ALFRED LEE.

Mr. J. Cloud Elliot, a Lay Delegate from St. John's Church, Brandywine Village, and Mr. Benjamin Gibbs a Lay Delegate from St. Ann's Church, Middletown, appeared and took their seats in the Convention.

Wm. T. Read, Esq., Secretary of the Standing Committee, read an abstract of the proceedings of the Committee during the past year, as follows:

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware respectfully report to the Convention of the aforesaid Diocese an abstract of their proceedings during the past year.

The Committee met the 4th day of June, 1857, was duly organized by the choice of the Rev. John B. Clemson, D. D., as President, and William T. Read, as Secretary; recommended the Rev. W. H. D. Hatton to be admitted to the sacred order of Priests, and gave their consent, in writing, that he should be ordained Priest within one year from the time he was ordained Deacon.

July 18th, 1857, they recommended the Rev. William Allibone Newbold to be admitted a candidate for the sacred order of Priests, and signed a testimonial in his behalf, to take effect from the 12th day of April, 1857.

July 18th, 1857, they recommended the Rev. Thomas Mills Martin to be admitted a candidate for the holy Order of the Priesthood, and signed a testimonial in his favor, to take effect from the 12th of April, 1857.

May 17th, 1858, a testimonial of the meetness of the Rev. Sullivan H. Weston, for the office of a Bishop in the Church of God, certified by the President and Secretary of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Texas, was laid before the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware, but not being accompanied with evidence of the election of the said Sullivan H. Weston to the Episcopate of Texas, the Committee resolved not to proceed in this matter at that time, and ordered a copy of this Resolution to be sent to the Secretary of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Texas.

June 2d 1858—The Journal of the Convention of the Diocese of Texas, held at Houston, on the 16th day of April, 1858, showing the election of the said Sullivan H. Weston to the Episcopate of Texas, was laid before the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware, who (the canonical requirements in the case being satisfied) approved of his election, and consented to his consecration to the Episcopate, and signed a testimonial of his meetness for the office of a Bishop.

WILLIAM T. READ,

Secretary of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware.

June 2d 1858.

The Rev. J. L. McKim offered the following resolution which was adopted :

Resolved, That it be referred to a committee to inquire into the expediency of so altering the third Article of the Constitution, as to render a residence of "at least six months" necessary for the admission of every clergyman to a seat in this Convention.

The chair appointed as the committee the Rev. J. L. McKim, Rev. S. R. Slack, and Mr. Henry F. Rodney.

Wm. T. Read, Esq. proposed the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That this Convention has received with profound sorrow, intelligence of the death of the Right Rev. George W. Freeman D. D., Missionary Bishop for the South West, at Little Rock, Arkansas, on the 29th of April last.

Resolved, That by this dispensation of Divine Providence, to which we bow submissively, the Church has lost one of her brightest ornaments, a chief Pastor eminently qualified for the exalted and responsible station, to which the Church called him with remarkable unanimity, and who discharged its duties with diligence, ability, uprightness and zeal, directed by sound judgment, and animated by ardent love of God and man.

Resolved, That this Convention condoles with the Church and the family of Bishop Freeman in this great bereavement, but is consoled by the trust that this faithful soldier and servant of Jesus Christ has fought a good fight, has kept the faith, has finished his course with joy, and entered into rest, with enjoyment of the promise, that "they who turn many to righteousness shall shine, like the stars, forever."

On motion of Mr. Henry F. Rodney, it was Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolutions be sent to the Rev. Andrew F. Freeman, of Arkansas.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee for the ensuing year. The President appointed as tellers on the part of the clergy the Rev. Samuel R. Slack and the Rev. William A. Newbold; and on the part of the Laity, Mr. H. H. J. Naff and William Cummins, M. D.

The Secretary read the following communication from M. A. De Wolfe Howe, D. D., Secretary of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, which on motion was directed to be inserted in the Journal of the Convention.

Philadelphia, April 30th, 1858.

RIGHT REV. AND DEAR SIR,

It is made my duty by the 50th Canon of 1832, to give you, as "the Ecclesiastical Authority in the Diocese" of Delaware, "particular notice," that the following Amendments of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church were "proposed," at the General Convention of the same, held in the City of Philadelphia, in October of 1856. To wit:—instead of "Article III," as now in force, the following,

ARTICLE III.

Whenever General Conventions are held, the Bishops of this Church shall form a separate House, with the right to originate and propose acts for the concurrence of the House of Deputies, and all acts must pass both Houses.

And instead of "Article VI" the following,

ARTICLE VI.

The mode of trying Bishops shall be provided by the General Convention. The Court appointed for that purpose shall be composed of Bishops only. In every Diocese the mode of trying Presbyters and Deacons may be instituted by the Convention of the Diocese, but the General Convention may establish a Court of Appeals for the revision of the decision of Diocesan Courts. None but a Bishop shall pronounce sentence of admonition, suspension, or degradation from the Ministry, on any Clergyman, whether Bishop, Presbyter, or Deacon. Such Court of Appeals not to revise the determination of any question of fact.

I remain, Right Rev. and Dear Sir,

Very Respectfully, your Obed't Servant,

M. A. D. WOLFE HOWE,

Secretary of House of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

The Right Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese of Delaware.

On motion of the Rev. J. B. Clemson, D. D., it was Resolved, That the next Annual Convention be held in St. Luke's Church, Seaford, on the first Wednesday in June, 1859.

On the first ballot for members of the Standing Committee, the two Orders concurred in electing the Rev. J. B. Clemson, D. D., and the Rev. Charles Breck of the clergy; Solomon M. Curtis and Wm. T. Read of the Laity.

The Convention proceeded to another ballot for one clerical member of the Standing Committee.

Mr. John B. Lewis, Treasurer of the Convention presented his account.

On motion of Mr. Gregg Chandler, the Treasurer's account was referred to a committee for examination.

The chair appointed Mr. George W. Cummins and William Burton, M. D.

On the second ballot for one clerical member of the Standing Committee there was no choice.

On the third ballot there was no choice.

The committee appointed to inquire into the expediency of amending Article III of the Constitution, presented the following report, which was accepted and the resolution adopted.

The committee appointed to inquire into the expediency of amending Article III of the Constitution, respectfully report:

That upon examination of the subject, they have come to the conclusion, that the original intention of said article was not to discriminate between "parochial" clergymen and those called "missionaries" under the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese ; but to require of all of them a residence of at least six months, to qualify them for a seat in Convention. This qualification, the committee consider, would be distinctly expressed by striking out the word parochial in the second section of Article III, which is a term more commonly used to distinguish rectors and pastors from missionaries.

The committee would therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the second paragraph of Article III of the Constitution be amended by striking out the word parochial, so as to read: Provided, that all such clergymen shall have been actually and personally resident, within this State, for not less than six calendar months, next before the meeting of the Convention, and that all such clergymen, engaged in the work of instruction only, and Chaplains shall have been actually and personally resident in this State, not less than twelve calendar months, next before such meeting.

The Rev. J. B. Clemson, D. D., moved that the resolution to meet in St. Luke's Church, Seaford, be reconsidered. After some discussion the motion to reconsider was lost.

On the fourth ballot for one clerical member of the Standing Committee, there was no choice.

On motion of the Rev. Stevens Parker the election of the Standing Committee was postponed until the next Convention.

On motion of the Rev. William Wright, the election of Deputies to the General Convention was postponed.

On motion of the Rev. Stevens Parker, the election of the Missionary and Education Committee, and also the Relief Committee for the Assistance of Infirm and Disabled Clergymen, was postponed.

On motion of the Rev. C. Breck, the Rev. Stevens Parker was elected Trustee of the General Theological Seminary.

On motion of the Rev. J. L. McKim, it was Resolved, That a committee be appointed to consider and report to the next Convention a scheme for dividing and designating by metes and bounds all the parishes in this Diocese.

The chair appointed the Rev. J. L. McKim, the Rev. William Wright and Mr. Solomon M. Curtis.

The bill of Henry Eckel & Co., for printing the Journal of 1857 and Bishop Lee's Fourth Triennial Charge, was allowed and ordered to be paid.

The Rev. Charles Breck, on behalf of the committee appointed under his resolution passed this morning, presented the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, and the Secretary instructed to forward a copy of the same to the family of the deceased.

WHEREAS in the Providence of Almighty God, Alexis I. du Pont, late Secretary of the Convention of this Diocese, has been removed from his earthly labors:

Resolved, That while we feel his loss to be irreparable, we bow with submissive minds to this dispensation.

Resolved, That in him, we recognize the liberal founder of Christ Church, Christiansa Hundred, and of St. John's, Brandywine Village. These are noble structures, of large size, great beauty, and calculated to last for ages.

Resolved, That his liberal donations to the Church, made in a spirit of religious duty, even to the day of his death, are well suited to impress upon the hearts and minds of the wealthy, a desire to follow so pious and holy an example.

Resolved, That we tender to his bereaved family and friends the fullest expression of our sympathy, and invoke upon his afflicted widow and children the richest blessings of Heaven.

Resolved, That in his triumphant Christian death, we do but witness the fruit of a most devoted Christian life.

CHARLES BRECK,
S. C. BRINCKLE,
WILLIAM T. READ.

The Bishop then read the 16th Annual Report of the Missionary and Education Committee as follows:

The contributions handed to your Committee, the Convention will observe, fall considerably below the amount of some previous years. Several parishes have, it is presumed, forwarded their usual assistance to the General Committees of the Church, and to other objects without the Diocese. There has also been activity and liberality on the part of parishes and individuals, not flowing through any organized channel, but directly extended to the Church or Missionary assisted. This may be often the most effective mode, and it is desirable that they who are "ready to give and glad to distribute" should have the freest scope for the exercise of their charity. The committee would however present to parishes the duty which is expressly enjoined by Canon, of remembering their peculiar claims. It would seem that, without interfering with other opportunities of doing good, the wants of the Diocese should be more constantly and liberally responded to. With a view of awakening a deeper interest in our own waste places, and to shew what had been accomplished by past efforts, our last Report presented a rather full sketch and history of our Diocesan Missionary field. It is the trust of the Committee that other causes, besides indifference to the subject, have prevented such a response as they could have desired, and as would have enabled them to strengthen more fully the hands that hang down. Asking of ministers and members of the Church a candid and conscientious consideration of their duty in this matter, your Committee respectfully submit the foregoing statement.

ALFRED LEE,
S. C. BRINCKLE,
JAMES F. WILSON.

The Rev. B. Franklin was prevented by an afflictive Providence from attending the Convention and concurring in the Report.

The Rev. S. R. Slack, on behalf of the committee appointed to prepare resolutions, expressive of the loss of the Diocese in the death of the late Rev. Richard F. Cadle, presented the following, which was unanimously adopted, and the Secretary directed to send a copy to the relatives of the deceased.

WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from his earthly labors to his heavenly reward the Rev. Richard F. Cadle, for five years a faithful Presbyter of this Diocese:

Resolved, by this Convention, that we cherish the memory of our venerable departed brother, of his holy walk and abundant labors, and would mingle our sympathies with those of his surviving relatives and his bereaved parishioners, and hopefully look upward and prayerfully ask for grace to follow his devoted example.

On motion of the Rev. William Wright, the Committee on the glebe of Christ Church, Dover, was continued.

The Committee to audit the Treasurer's account, reported it correct.

The Committee on the glebe of Christ Church, Dover, presented the following Report, which was accepted.

The Committee on the Glebe of Christ Church, Dover, respectfully submit the following report:

A visit was lately made to the property ; fencing in ordinary repair; the small house, only one on the premises, dilapidated and tenantless, and the land evidently much reduced, quite inadequate for profit in its tillage. We found the property used as pasture ground, no part of it being tilled. Mr. Geo. B. Dickson, of Dover, has the Glebe still under rent at seventy-five dollars per annum. The rent for 1856 was collected and paid to the Rev. S. T. Carpenter, who officiated in the church at Dover, about every other Sunday, in pleasant weather. The rent for 1857 has not yet been collected, but five dollars thereof were advanced towards making a new fence around the church.

The committee on the State of the church and of the Glebe, have no suggestions to make differing from former views.

WILLIAM T. READ,
GEORGE W. CUMMINS.

June, 1858.

On motion of Mr. Henry F. Rodney, the Committee on the glebe of Christ Church, Dover, were authorized to lease the glebe for a term of years not exceeding twenty.

The Convention then adjourned to re-assemble at the close of the Missionary meeting this evening.

8 o'clock, P. M. }

The Convention assembled to attend the Missionary Meeting.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Bishop, and by singing part of the 102nd Hymn.

Addresses were delivered by the Rev. A. S. Colton, the Rev. Daniel Washburn of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and the Rev. Geo. D. Cummins of Washington, D. C. A collection was then made. After singing the 107th Hymn the congregation was dismissed by the Bishop with the benediction.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, SMYRNA, June 2d, 1858. }
 9½ o'clock, P. M. }

After the congregation was dismissed, the Convention was called to order by the Bishop.

On motion of Mr. Gregg Chandler it was Resolved, That the Treasurer pay to the Sexton of St. Peter's Church, the usual compensation allowed for his attendance during the session of the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. Thomas M. Martin, it was

Resolved, That the Secretary append to the report of the Missionary Committee the additional sums contributed by the Parishes to Foreign and Domestic Missions, which are not embraced in the report of the Committee.

On motion of Mr. Gregg Chandler, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the Wardens and Vestry of St. Peter's Church, for the use of their Church, and to the citizens of Smyrna and its vicinity, for their kindness and hospitality to the members thereof.

On motion of the Rev. Stevens Parker, it was Resolved, That the annual assessment on the different parishes for the Convention Fund be paid in advance.

On motion it was

Resolved, That after the reading of the Minutes, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The Secretary then read the minutes, which were approved.

The Bishop made a brief address to the members, and pronounced the benediction, after which the Convention adjourned.

Attest,

JAMES F. WILSON, SECRETARY.

CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION, CLAYMONT, BRANDYWINE HUNDRED,
NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

This Church is gradually attaining size and strength. Its summer congregations are particularly large. It has a well conducted and flourishing Sunday School, which already has yielded fruits of piety. The services are assisted by an admirable Choir. With the growth of the neighborhood there is the promise of an increasing Parish.

Services in the church, twice on Sunday, on Friday evenings, on Wednesdays through Lent, on the principal Holy Days, and also frequently during the last winter and spring. At Front Street Room on Sunday, P. M.

A highly encouraging religious interest has been manifested, and a good number it is trusted have entered with sincerity and decision upon the Christian life. The readiness of many of his people to co-operate in works of charity and the activity and zeal displayed have greatly cheered the pastor's heart. Early in the summer a Sunday School was commenced in a room at the corner of Front and Jefferson streets, and has since been continued with much encouragement. On the afternoon of each Lord's day divine service is held in the same place by the Rector or his assistant. The congregations have been usually large and have shewn much interest in the services, and we have reason to believe that the word preached has been, to some who previously attended no place of worship, a savor of life unto life.

In the death of Alexis I. du Pont, the senior warden of this Parish, we have met with a loss that cannot be estimated.

His zeal for every good work was a light shining before men that led many to glorify our Father which is in Heaven.

We are rejoiced to behold the fruit of his example in the increased liberality of the members of the congregation.

The Rev. Stevens Parker has continued to render the most earnest and devoted service at the Old Church.

Eight were confirmed this spring—the first confirmation since 1820—and the fifth ever held there.

Bishop White confirmed in 1793, 1819 and 1820. Bishop Claggett in 1803.

As will be noted above, we have commenced a Parish Library, numbering at present 103 vols., and containing, among others, the principal publications of the Evangelical Knowledge Society.

The Brotherhood, organized several years since, has rendered much efficient service in seeking out and aiding those who were thrown out of employment by the closing of the factories.

Owing to the financial distress, which is severely felt in this congregation, we have been obliged to make repeated collections for the poor. This has caused our Missionary contributions to be smaller than usual. The past year has been to our people one of temporal darkness and trial, but we know that it is "the Lord" who "maketh poor and maketh rich: He bringeth low, and lifteth up: He maketh sore, and bindeth up," and we have reason to hope that here, as in so many other places, this visitation will not be in vain.

Through the kind assistance of friends, we have been enabled to provide a suitable chancel, neatly furnished, for our little Church, and also an excellent Melodcon.

A Female Bible Class is held weekly. Number attending, 15.

Our congregations are increasing and we look forward with hope; services have been held weekly since the last Convention. When we look back on the past year we thank God and take fresh courage.

Through the praise-worthy exertions of a few individuals, the interior of this Church has been greatly improved at a considerable expense; and a melodeon has also been purchased. This, with the depression of the times, (which has been severely felt here) has caused our contributions for objects out of the Parish, to be so small.

The attendance on our services is much larger. A good feeling pervades our congregations; and from their earnest attention and zealous eye, we trust that the Holy Spirit is at work in our midst.

God grant that this may be the dawning of a glorious day to old St. James'.

The large number of communicants reported does not give a fair representation of the strength of the Parish, as 17 of them are only communicants of the Church of England, living in the neighborhood, never attending church or contributing for its support; and indeed a number of them are in the Diocese of Maryland. The Rev. Mr. Slack resigned the charge of the Parish in October last, since which time the pulpit has been supplied by several Clergymen, chiefly by the Rev. Mr. Colton, whose ministrations have been very gratefully appreciated.

A gentleman preparing for Holy Orders, has been invited, after ordination, to accept the charge of this Parish, and is expected to enter upon his duties about the 1st of August.

Services on Sundays, 63 ; other days, 12.

This Church after remaining in an unfinished state for over eight years is now substantially finished, and the debt which so long embarrassed the congregation is liquidated.

The present prospects of the parish are somewhat encouraging. The attendance on the services of the sanctuary is good, and an increased interest manifested in the prayers and offices of our beautiful Liturgy.

Two branch Sunday Schools have been organized and are in successful operation. The Sunday School Library at Delaware City has been largely augmented now containing about 500 volumes.

The draft on the pecuniary resources of the parish during the last year has been very great, when its feebleness is taken into consideration, and the few who were able and willing to assist.

It is to be hoped, however, that since the church building is completed, the congregation will be able to pay their present rector or his successor, the amount pledged more punctually. I have been compelled to resign my charge of the parish for want of adequate support. It is to be hoped that the kind and Christian sympathy of the Church at other points will be more cordially extended to this important and encouraging parish for a year or two, in which time it will be, doubtless, self-supporting.

JOHN LINN McKIM, Rector.

ST. PETER'S, LEWES.

There was no report of this Parish in the last Journal. My charge commenced on the 2nd Sunday of September last, and this report contains all that has transpired within the Parish between September 13, 1857, and May 30, 1858. The new church has been arranged for Divine service, and is finished except as to the spire, the rough-casting, and the graining of the pews.

The building is an oblong square, with recess chancel, gothic architecture, stained windows and diamond panes. Back of the chancel is a comfortable vestry room. The Communion table is a heavy gothic table made by a mechanic of the town; it is of black walnut and was presented to the Parish. We are also indebted to a kind friend for a handsome chair of gothic pattern, and to the church of the Ascension, Philadelphia, for a marble font; also to a gentleman of that city for a pair of iron gates for the church yard.

The new building has cost about $6,000, and is an ornament to the town. The old church has been removed to one corner of the churchyard and fitted up for two school rooms. The lower room is occupied by St. Peter's Grammar School, and the upper, as a lecture and Sunday School room.

The services in the Parish since September have been regular on Sunday mornings, and since the first Sunday in January every Sunday evening. I commenced in the fall with a Bible Class, which so enlarged that we have for some time held it in the lecture room instead of the Rector's study. During Lent there was afternoon service every Wednesday, and evening service every Friday. During Passion week service every morning and on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday night. In these Lenten services I was kindly assisted by Rev. Messrs. Wright and McIlvaine. All these services and especially those at night were remarkably well attended by serious and earnest congregations. I also gave Lectures during four weeks previous to the Bishop's last visitation upon the subject of Confirmation, on Wednesday evenings.

The custom of a weekly offering has been established with most satisfactory results. The attendance upon the regular services has increased, and the responding and singing of the congregation is delightful and encouraging. The Sunday School has increased in numbers, and on account of the more convenient room afforded to us by the change in the old Church, is more efficient. We commenced on the 9th of May a colored Sunday School, which meets after the closing of the Parish School on Sunday afternoons, and it is already attended by over forty scholars.

Being requested to do so, I have made regular appointments in the Parish of St. John the Baptist, Milton, for the afternoon of the first Sunday in every month. My first service was on Easter Sunday, and I hope by God's help to continue them. This Parish is twelve miles distant from Lewes, and is supplied without interference with the regular services of my own Parish.

I give below the statistics of the Parish :

This venerable Parish contains the ancient edifice, Christ Church, Broad Creek, still in excellent repair, and the recently erected St. Philip's Chapel, Laurel.

S. R. SLACK, Rector.

REPORT OF REV. ASA S. COLTON.

My services during the last conventional year have been as follows :
At the alms house, preaching a few times, but chiefly visiting the sick, and others to whom I could gain access.

Service with preaching in the Diocese (chiefly in vacant parishes, as in Smyrna, Middletown and Newark) about 65 times. Out of the Diocese, and in various circumstances, about 35 times. I have attended two funerals, and administered the Lord's Supper about 10 times:

ASA S. COLTON.

REPORT OF THE ASSISTANT MINISTER OF ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, WILMINGTON, DELAWARE.

I have held my present office of Assistant, since April 12, 1857, and my report extends to May 31, 1858, a period of 13 months and 19 days. In this time I have preached 68 sermons; read in whole or part, 180 services; delivered to Sunday Schools, &c., 32 addresses; assisted in the Holy Communion, 11 times; baptized (in Philadelphia, Pa.) 1 infant; and officiated at 1 funeral.

WILLIAM A. NEWBOLD, Assistant.

A constitutional quorum being present, the Convention, pursuant to the sixth Article of the Constitution, proceeded to the election of a Secretary.

The Rev. Charles Breck and George W. Cummins were appointed tellers, and upon counting the votes reported that Dr. J. F. Wilson had been duly elected.

Whereupon the chair declared Dr. J. F. Wilson to be Secretary for the ensuing year.

The Rev. Mr. Parker offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church not belonging to this Diocese, and Students of Theology, who are candidates for Holy Orders in this church, who may be present, be and they are hereby invited to attend the sittings of the Convention.

The Rev. George A. Crooke, of the Diocese of Delaware, the Rev. William Suddards, and the Rev. Thomas M. Martin, of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and Mr. John L. McKim and J. L. Willoughby, candidates for Orders in Delaware, were present.

On motion of the Rev. S. Parker, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted as the Rules of Order of the present session, and on request were read by the Secretary.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The business of every day shall be introduced with prayer.
2. When the President takes the chair, no member shall continue standing, nor shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.
3. No member shall absent himself from the service of the house, unless he have leave, or be unable to attend.
4. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
5. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, without leave of the house.
6. A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of the house, and shall not be again drawn into debate during the same session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the house.
7. If a question in debate contain more parts than one, any member may have the same divided into as many questions as there are parts.
8. While the President is putting any question, no one shall hold private discourse, stand up, walk into, out of, or across the house, or read any book.
9. Every member who shall be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be particularly interested in the decision.
10. No motion shall be considered as before the house unless it be seconded, and reduced to writing when required.
11. When any question is before the house it shall be determined on before any new thing is introduced, except the question for adjournment.

12. The question on a motion for adjournment shall be taken before any other, and without debate.

13. When the house is about to rise, every member shall keep his seat until the President leaves the chair.

14. The Journals of the Convention shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and a copy sent to each member of the Convention.

15. The charge or sermon, when delivered by the Bishop before the Convention, shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and one copy sent to each clergyman, and ten copies to each vestry in the Diocese.

Mr. George R. Fisher, Lay Delegate from Christ Church, Milford, appeared, answered to his name, and took his seat in the Convention.

The Bishop presented to the Convention the accounts of John B. Lewis, Esq., Treasurer of the Convention Fund and also of the Episcopal Fund, which, on motion of Mr. Gregg Chandler, were referred to a committee of three.

The President appointed as the Committee, Messrs. T. Jenifer Adams, Benjamin Gibbs and Henry F. Rodney.

The Convention then took a recess for Divine Service.

The order for daily morning prayer was read by the Rev. Samuel C. Brinckle, Rector of Christ Church, Christiana Hundred, the Rev. Charles Breck, Rector of Trinity Church, Wilmington, and the Rev. Robert J. Kealing, Rector of St. Thomas' Church, Newark.

The Ante-Communion service was read by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Samuel R. Slack, Rector of St. Luke's Church, Seaford. The sermon was preached by the Rev. J. E. Grammar, Rector of St. Peter's Church, Smyrna, after which the Holy Communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Brinckle and the Rev. Mr. Slack.

The congregation having been dismissed, the Bishop resumed the chair and called the house to order.

Mr. George W. C. Hearn a Lay Delegate from St. Mark's Church, Millsboro', appeared and took his seat in the Convention.

The Convention then adjourned until 3½ o'clock, p. m.

3½ o'clock, P. M. }

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment. The Bishop took the chair and called the house to order.

The roll was called by the Secretary. The Rev. J. L. McKim, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Georgetown, Mr. Thomas Wallace, Lay Delegate from Christ Church, Milford, Messrs. Charles C. Stockley and Alfred P. Robinson, Lay Delegates from St. Paul's Church, Georgetown, and Messrs. William J. Ralph and Samuel Kinney, Lay Delegates from St. Mark's Church, Little Creek, answered to their names and took their seats.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The Bishop then read his Annual Address.

ADDRESS

To the Clerical and Lay Members of the Sixty-ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Delaware.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

I proceed to lay before you the required statement of my official acts during the just expired year. This I do with a thankful recognition of that divine goodness which permits me again to discharge this duty and to meet you in annual Convention. I have much reason for gratitude that although disabled by sickness during a considerable part of the year, this has not very materially interfered with my engagements as Diocesan. In two or three cases I have been constrained to ask a little delay in visiting parishes where candidates are awaiting Confirmation. These I shall hope to visit very soon after Convention. In all the churches, with a single exception, I have officiated once if not oftener.

On the 15th July last, I made a special visit to Lewes for the purpose of consecrating St. Peter's Church and ordaining the Rector, the Reverend Thomas M. Martin, to the Priesthood. The occasion was one of much interest, and the services, which were continued for several days, attracted large congregations. This appropriate and convenient sanctuary is a creditable monument of the zeal and liberality of the congregation. Many hearts were grateful and gladdened to witness its dedication, unincumbered by debt, to the Triune Jehovah. The brightened prospects of the parish and considerable accessions made to the Communion greatly enhanced this joy.

The Rev. Mr. Martin, I greatly regretted to learn some months after, had accepted a call to a church in Philadelphia, and resigned the charge of this parish, in which his labors had been so successful, and in which he had awakened strong feelings of personal attachment. Mr. Martin's connection with St. Peter's church terminated on the 1st of January. After a brief vacancy the rectorship was accepted by the Rev. George Alexander Crooke, who entered upon his duties about the 1st of March.

On the 30th July, I performed the funeral service over the remains of Major John Sanders of the U. S. army, at Fort Delaware. By the unexpected decease of this lamented gentleman, and the removal of his large and interesting family, Christ Church, Delaware City, has sustained a serious loss.

On the 25th August, I took part, as one of the appointed ordainers, in the solemn service of the consecration of the Rev. Samuel Bowman as assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. This occasion was gratifying to me, not only from the elevation of so worthy and excellent a man to his important position, but also as bringing to an end my own labors in that Diocese, which, although most willingly rendered, had been, in addition to the claims of my own Diocese and Parish, somewhat onerous. Soon after our last Convention, at the request of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, I performed such Episcopal services as were called for up to the consecration of the Assistant Bishop. During this period I ordained in Pennsylvania three Presbyters and two Deacons, laid the Corner Stone of one church, confirmed one-hundred and thirty-one persons, and delivered twenty-two sermons and addresses.

On the 13th October I attended the meeting of the Board of Missions in the City of Baltimore. The remarkable manner in which Divine Providence has recently opened the Oriental world to the gospel invests with increased interest and promise the Missionary work. Our church has recognized the claim thus made upon her energies and means, and is preparing to obey the summons. It is comparatively little that our own limited Diocese can contribute to this great and glorious cause, but may we have diligence gladly to give of that little. I much fear that we have hitherto fallen very far short of our bounden duty in this important branch of Christian effort.

On the 3d of November I consecrated to the worship of Almighty God St. John's Church, Brandywine Village. The day was extremely inclement, but the interest of the occasion attracted a large and sympathizing congregation, as well as a good number of Clergy from our own and other dioceses. This beautiful structure stands as a noble monument of the Christian energy of the late Alexis I. du Pont, and the solemn ceremony brought affectingly to mind our lamented brother, who had so short a time before assisted in the laying of the Corner Stone, and but for whose zeal and generosity no such costly and impressive sanctuary would have arisen on that foundation. The church itself, for beauty and solidity, is unsurpassed in the Diocese, and conveniently accommodates a large congregation. The Rev. Charles Breck resigned the Rectorship of the Parish, to take effect from the day of consecration, at which time the Rev. Stevens Parker, former assistant, became Rector. The seats in this church are not rented.

On the 28th November, in St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, I ordained to the Diaconate Mr. Marshall B. Smith, a candidate for Orders, transferred from the Diocese of Pennsylvania on the 22d September preceeding. Mr. Smith accepted an invitation from St. Andrew's, Wilmington, to be assistant minister of that church, and entered upon his duties as such immediately after ordination. The former assistant, the Rev. William A. Newbold, resigned in October preceding, and has removed to Pennsylvania, leaving in that parish, as well as in the Diocese, many warmly attached friends.

On the 13th of April last, in St. Andrew's, Wilmington, I ordained the Rev. Wm. Marshall to the Priesthood. Mr. Marshall is still engaged in the same field, the parishes of Stanton and Newport, and from the encouraging character of my visit to the former in November last, I have every reason to believe that his labors are faithful and effective.

St. Thomas' Church, Newark, reported vacant last year, has been since acceptably supplied by the Rev. Robert J. Keeling, who entered upon the charge of the same in August. Christ Church, Delaware City, became vacant in September by the resignation and removal from the Diocese of the Rev. Wm. H. D. Hatton. The Rev. Mr. Keeling has been invited by the vestry to take charge of this church and has consented. His services commenced in November last, and although at no little inconvenience and self-denial, have been rendered with indefatigable energy.

On the 6th of May, I consecrated St. Peter's Church, Smyrna, being the third church set apart for divine worship during the conventional year. As the last meeting of this body was held in that edifice it is unnecessary for me to remark upon its architectural beauty and convenience. The Rev. Julius E. Grammar accepted the invitation to become Rector, which had been extended to him previously to the meeting of the last Convention, and entered upon his duties about the 1st of July. Under his acceptable ministrations the spiritual prosperity and growth of the church appear fully to keep pace with its external improvement. None of our churches have recently experienced a more gratifying revival, and I heartily congratulate the members of this once depressed and languishing congregation on their present cheering prospects.

I have heard with pleasure of a movement in Dover to resuscitate the church there. We have in consequence the gratification of welcoming to our counsels, for the first time for many years, delegates from that ancient parish. We receive it as a token for good, and trust that it will issue in the rising from the dust of a church once among the most prominent in our State.

In addition to the clerical changes above noted I have to remark that the Rev. Asa S. Colton has resigned his appointment as Missionary at the New Castle County Alms House, and has removed from the Diocese.

The following clergymen have been added to the Diocese since the last Convention :

The Rev. Julius E. Grammar from Maryland, letter accepted June 29th, 1858.

The Rev. Robert J. Keeling from Virginia, letter accepted July 7th, 1858.

The Rev. George Alexander Crooke from Pennsylvania, letter accepted April 15th, 1859.

The Rev. Marshall B. Smith, by ordination.

The following clergymen have been dismissed.

The Rev. William H. D. Hatton to Pennsylvania, letter accepted by Bishop Bowman, September 4th, 1858.

The Rev. William Allibone Newbold to Pennsylvania, letter accepted January 3d, 1859.

The Rev. Thomas M. Martin to Pennsylvania, letter accepted January 6th, 1859.

The Rev. Asa S. Colton to New Jersey, letter accepted by the Standing Committee of the Diocese, May 8d, 1859.

I have visited and preached in the following churches, viz: In Ascension Church, Claymont; St. John's, Brandywine Village; Trinity, Wilmington; Immanuel, New Castle; Christ Church, Christiana Hundred; St. James', Newport; St. James', Stanton, St. Thomas', Newark, three times; St. Anne's, Appoquinimink; St. Peter's, Smyrna, six times; Christ Church, Milford; St. Paul's, Georgetown; St. Peter's, Lewes, four times; St. George's, Indian River; Chapel of the Comforter, Long Neck; St. Mark's, Millsboro; Grace Church, Baltimore Mills; St. John's, Little Hill; Christ Church, Broad Creek; St. Phillip's, Laurel; St. Luke's, Seaford; St. Mark's, Little Creek; in all, exclusive of St. Andrew's, Wilmington, thirty-two times.

There have been confirmed during the year:

In Ascension Church, Claymont,	-	-	7 persons.
" St. Andrew's, Wilmington,	-	-	20
" Trinity Chapel,	"	-	20
" Immanuel Church, New Castle, (in private,)			1

" " " during the session of Convention,				7

Confirmation is yet to be administered in Ascension Church, Claymont; Immanuel Church, New Castle; St. Andrew's, Wilmington, and St. John's, Brandywine Village.

I have also baptized on visitations, one adult, and four infants, and administered on several occasions the Holy Communion.

CANDIDATES FOR ORDERS.

July 8th, John Leighton McKim and Josiah L. Willoughby were admitted candidates.

September 22, Mr. Marshall B. Smith, a candidate for Orders in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, was received by letter of dismission. He has been since ordained to the Diaconate as above mentioned.

In addition to the two gentlemen first named, Mr. Thomas G. Clemson is a candidate for orders, from May 11th, 1856. The present number connected with the Diocese is three.

The review of the year, therefore, presents :

Ordinations of Presbyters, 2 ; of Deacons, 1 ; total 3.

Churches consecrated, 8.

Clergymen received, 3 ; dismissed, 4.

Confirmed 124 persons on 17 occasions.

Our present place of meeting may recall to some of our body a previous meeting of the Convention in Seaford in 1839. A slight allusion to that assemblage may awaken our gratitude to the Author of all blessings. Although it is still with us the day of small things, we may well thank God and take courage when we look back and see to how low an ebb our church was then reduced. That convention was held in a house of worship belonging to another Communion, the church in which we are now assembled being then in an incomplete state It was composed of the Rt. Rev. H. U. Onderdonk, Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, of two clergymen of this Diocese, and of twelve lay delegates, representing ten parishes. There were at the time eight clergymen canonically resident in Delaware, three of whom were connected with Newark College, and one other without charge, leaving but four settled pastors. Bishop Onderdonk had confirmed during the year 22 persons. He remarks in his address, "The lower half of the Diocese is now entirely without clergymen. This fact may require greater vigor in your Missionary operations as it certainly requires our fervent intercessions to the divine Head of the church. May He look in mercy on the destitution of this portion of the vineyard which his own right hand has planted."

We may, with humility and gratitude, acknowledge that this prayer has been in a measure answered. Although still feeble the church in this diocese now wears a more encouraging aspect. And upon our fidelity to our trust it will depend whether its growth in time to come shall be more marked and vigorous. What might we do with hearts warmed with the love of Christ and arms nerved by faith. Brethren of the ministry let us awake to our grave responsibilities. Let us do with our might what our hands find to do. Souls around us are perishing in carelessness and sin. Let not our trumpet give an uncertain sound. Let not our supineness and indifference leave any unwarned whom we can reach and rescue. We shall not labor in vain. I visited very recently the little sanctuary that stands as the fittest monument of the lamented Cadle, whose mortal part reposes beneath the shadow of this house of prayer. The humble church was filled with attentive worshippers, and a good number were presented by our brother, who has succeeded him in his extensive and arduous field, to receive the laying on of hands. And thus do the works of those who die in the Lord follow them. The clerical annals of the year past have added many eminent and beloved names to the great roll of the departed. May we live and labor in constant expectation of the Master's summons. May we be instant in season, out of season. Looking not at the things which are seen and temporal, but at the things which are unseen and eternal, acting upon those high and holy motives which raise us above considerations of the fear or favor of man, not ashamed of that gospel which is the power of God unto salvation, may we do the work of evangelists, and make full proof of our ministry, and when the Chief Shepherd shall appear we shall receive the crown of glory that fadeth not away.

And, brethren of the laity, how much can you do, if you will, to hold up your pastor's hands and further his labors. How much can you strengthen him by a ready co-operation with his plans of usefulness, by a kindly consideration of his burdens, infirmities and trials, by remembering that the Lord hath ordained that they who preach the gospel should live of the gospel, by not withholding the too often scanty support that is promised, and by recommending the cause of your own church by practical religion and living Christianity. It is hard for a minister to labor without sympathy; without the ready help of warm-hearted, zealous laymen; without the consistent, blameless example of those who are identified with his church, whether as members or as attendants. Those who are not communicants must not suppose that their life and conversation are a matter of indifference. In vain do we attempt to persuade the community of the Scriptural character and claims of our branch of the church of Christ, if the nominal adherents to our body are manifest strangers to the power of godliness. If you, brethren, do not enter the Kingdom of God yourselves, like the Scribes of old, you keep those out that would enter. And if you desire that the Gospel prove an eternal blessing to your souls and to your families, you must heartily embrace it, you must liberally sustain it. Far too low is the standard that prevails in many parts of our State in the matter of pecuniary contributions to the ministry, and to other objects which the church recommends. It is far below that which exists in many parts of our land. It is unworthy of those who call themselves churchmen—unworthy of noble-hearted laymen who should blush to lay themselves open to such a charge. Remember, dear brethren, who gave you all. Remember who will soon call you to give an account of your stewardship. Requite, so far as your ability extends, your boundless debt to redeeming love. And prove the Lord whether he will not open the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

Your affectionate pastor,

ALFRED LEE.

Wm. T. Read, Esq., Secretary of the Standing Committee, presented and read an abstract of the proceedings of the Committee during the past year, as follows :

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware respectfully report to the Convention of the said Diocese an abstract of their proceedings during the past year, as follows :

The Standing Committee was duly organized by choosing at its first meeting Rev. J. B. Clemson, D. D., as President, and William T. Read as Secretary.

June 16th, 1858, the Standing Committee approved of the election of the Rev. Samuel Bowman, D. D., as Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, consented to his consecration, and signed a testimonial of his meetness for the office of a Bishop.

July 8th, 1858, the Standing Committee signed the usual testimonial recommending the Rev. Thomas Mills Martin as a fit person to be ordained Priest.

July 8th, 1858, the Standing Committee approved the reception of Josiah L. Willoughby and John Leighton McKim into the Diocese of Delaware, as candidates for Holy Orders, and signed the necessary testimonials in their favor.

November 3d, 1858, the Standing Committee signed the proper testimonial recommending Marshall B. Smith as worthy to be ordained Deacon.

April 4th, 1859, the Standing Committee signed the required testimonial, recommending the Rev. William Marshall as meet and qualified for ordination to the sacred order of the Priesthood.

May 7th, 1859, the Standing Committee ordered, that the "Form" of a "Tabular Digest of the Triennial Report to the General Convention," transmitted by the Secretary of the General Convention, should be laid before the Convention of the Diocese of Delaware, June 1st, next, to call attention to it.

May 7th, 1859, the Right Reverend the Bishop of the Diocese of Delaware, asked the opinion of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware, as his "Council of Advice," on the following points :—
1st. Does Canon 5 of 1856, take from the Bishop the discretion, allowed by the Rubric, as to ordaining a Deacon Priest in less than one year after his ordination to the diaconate, in all cases, or only in the case of deacons, ordained on less qualifications? 2d. If the Canon and Rubric are in conflict which is superior? Adding if the Committee should be of opinion that the discretion remained, the Rev. Mr. Keeling might (as was very desirable) be ordained at the Convention.

The Standing Committee replied it was their unanimous opinion:— 1st. That the Rubric, being the creature of Canon Law could be repealed by Canon—but 2d. Not by intendment—and 3d. In this case there is no express repeal—and therefore, 4th. The Rubric is still in force. 5th. The Rubric and Canon must be reconciled. 6th. The discretion is still allowed to the Bishop, but only, 7thly. to be exercised under extraordinary circumstances; and, finally, the case of the Rev. Mr. Keeling is an ordinary one, and therefore requires no dispensation of time.

May 7th, 1859, the Standing Committee signed the necessary testimonial recommending the Rev. R. J. Keeling as qualified and worthy to be ordained to the sacred order of Priests.

May 7th, 1859, the Standing Committee signed the requisite testimonial, recommending Mr. Thomas Green Clemson as worthy and qualified to be ordained to the sacred order of Deacons.

(Attest,)

WILLIAM T. READ,

Secretary of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware.

June 1st, 1859.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Franklin, it was

Resolved, That the Standing Committee of the Diocese be and are hereby appointed the Committee called for by the Fifth Canon to prepare "a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese to be presented to the General Convention," and that the clergymen of the Diocese be requested to forward to the Committee the required information.

On motion of the Rev. Robert L. Goldsborough, it was Resolved, That the next Annual Convention be held in St. Ann's Church, Middletown, on the first Wednesday in June next.

The Committee appointed to examine the Treasurer's accounts, reported that they had examined the accounts and found them correct. The report was accepted and the Committee discharged.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Clemson, it was Resolved, That a committee of three consisting of Messrs. James Brown, George Lodge, and Isaac S. Elliott, be appointed to take charge of the property of Grace Church, Brandywine Hundred.

The Committee on the Glebe of Christ Church, Dover, made the following report which was accepted, and the Committee discharged :

The Committee on the Glebe of Christ Church, Dover, submit the following report to the Convention of the Diocese of Delaware :

At the last Convention the Committee were authorized to rent the Glebe on a long lease of nineteen or twenty years, on the best terms they could, having the permanent improvement of the property in view. Notice to this effect was circulated ; several applications and offers were made for the leasing of the property, but the Committee declined them all, as being of insufficient consideration. The Glebe as for years past is rented annually. * * * * *

The Committee have learned with pleasure that a vestry is organized in connection with the ancient and venerable church in Dover, and that its delegates are here to-day in Convention to represent the interests and privileges of that sister parish. They are happy to hear that it is probable the church will be under the spiritual charge of a minister within the current year.

With these facts in view the Committee cannot but hope that they may be discharged, and the property of the church at Dover be referred, as it of right belongs, to the control and jurisdiction of its newly organized Vestry.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD WOOTTEN,
WILLIAM T. READ,
GEORGE W. CUMMINS.

June, 1859.

A motion was made to postpone the elections which was negatived.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee for the ensuing year. The President appointed as tellers on the part of the Clergy the Rev. Stevens Parker and the Rev. William Wright; and on the part of the Laity, Messrs. H. H. J. Naff and William W. Dulaney.

On motion of the Rev. J. L. McKim, the following resolution proposed at the last Convention was adopted:

Resolved, That the second paragraph of Article III of the Constitution be amended by striking out the word parochial, so as to read: Provided, that all such clergymen shall have been actually and personally resident, within this State, for not less than six calendar months, next before the meeting of the Convention, and that all such clergymen, engaged in the work of instruction only, and Chaplains, shall have been actually and personally resident in this State, not less than twelve calendar months, next before such meeting.

The Rev. Mr. Franklin read the 17th Annual Report of the Missionary and Education Committee as follows:

Most of the payments have been in pursuance of directions of donors. The unappropriated balance at the end of the year was divided between the Rev. Messrs. Marshall, Slack and Wright.

The contributions, it will be perceived, considerably exceed those of the previous year. This is probably owing in part to a circular addressed by the Chairman at the request of the Committee reminding the Rectors of parishes of their wants. The aid which the Committee were thus enabled to extend, they believe to have been greatly conductive to the comfort of laborious self-denying men and to the progress of the church. The amount specially given to our Diocesan Missions has been $492 28. The sum of $350.00 appropriated by the Domestic Committee of the General Board has been paid to our two Missionaries in Sussex County. Our feeble parishes must apparently for some time to come be thus assisted, or be deprived of the ministrations of the gospel.

The Committee are happy to believe that their report is by no means an adequate exhibit of the Missionary interest, and benefactions of the Diocese. There is no surer test of true life in our Churches than their sympathy with the extension of Christ's gospel. It is impossible for those who really trust in and love the Saviour to be indifferent to this cause. If our constant prayer—Thy Kingdom come—proceeds from the heart it will open the hand and devise liberal things for the advance of that Kingdom. And all that is given from pure motives to this work is the pledge and earnest of still growing offerings. The Committee would throw no impediment in the way of entire liberty in the selection of objects to which the feelings of contributors may point. In our view there is no rivalry between foreign and domestic, general and local efforts. But all that is given helps on the cause and fans the holy flame of self-forgetting charity.

How wonderfully is the hand of the Lord now opening the distant regions of the earth to the Missionary cause. The mountains are levelled and the highways exalted. Old barriers are thrown down and time-worn bulwarks of heathendom are swept away. The hitherto inaccessible empire of Japan is now unbarred, and to American diplomacy pertains the high honor of having secured free toleration for the gospel. The degraded millions of China are now within reach of them that preach the glad tidings of salvation. Our Missionary Bishop to that populous empire is making strong appeals to his brethren in the bonds of Christ to stay up his hands, bending under so great a weight. From Africa we receive most cheering statements of the blessing of Heaven upon the faithful and persevering efforts of our brethren, who have gone thither to preach and teach Jesus Christ, and if the will of God be so to suffer and die. What Christian heart can listen unmoved to such invitations to good works?

Let us embrace in our prayers and sympathies the great and blessed work of publishing the gospel to every creature. Let our benevolence be enlarged and expansive. It will be none the less efficient and practical in our own borders. Let us, as individual ability permits, come up to the help of our church in her aggressive warfare upon the Kingdom of Satan, and we may be sure that the dew of heaven will not be withheld from our own portion of the Lord's vineyard. All our moral wastes will rejoice and blossom as the rose.

On the first ballot for members of the Standing Committee, the two orders concurred in electing the Rev. Chas. Breck of the Clergy, and S. M. Curtis and W. T. Read of the Laity.

The account of John B. Lewis, Esq., Treasurer of the Fund for the Relief of Disabled Clergymen, was presented and read.

On the second ballot for two clerical members of the Standing Committee, the two orders concurred in electing the Rev. Julius E. Grammar and the Rev. Robert L. Goldsborough.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of Deputies to the General Convention, the same tellers being appointed. On the first ballot the two Orders concurred in electing the Rev. Charles Breck, the Rev. Benjamin Franklin and the Rev. Samuel R. Slack, of the Clergy, and Capt. S. F. du Pont of the Laity.

The Rev. J. L. McKim on behalf of the committee appointed at the last Convention to report "a scheme for dividing and designating by metes and bounds all the parishes in this Diocese," presented the following resolutions, which, on motion of the Rev. S. C. Brinckle were laid on the table.

1. Resolved, That it shall be the duty of every parish in this Diocese to decide, by their Rector, Wardens and Vestry the metes and bounds which their charters respectively call for, or which, in their best judgment do rightly pertain to their parish, and report the same to the proper Committee, as soon as practicable after Easter Monday next.

2. Resolved, That the Committee appointed for this purpose be instructed to receive all such statements from the several parishes, to make a full and accurate schedule of the same and report the whole to the next annual Convention for ratification or rejection.

3. Resolved, That for the before-mentioned purposes a Committee consisting of two clergymen and three laymen, be now appointed, of whom the laymen to be one from each County of the State.

On the second ballot for Deputies to the General Convention, the two Orders concurred in electing the Rev. J. E. Grammar of the Clergy, and Messrs. S. M. Curtis and William T. Read of the Laity.

On the third ballot for one Lay Deputy there was no choice.

On the fourth ballot the two Orders concurred in electing Dr. William Cummins.

On motion of the Rev. Charles Breck, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the Wardens and Vestry of St. Luke's Church, for the use of their Church, and to the citizens of Seaford and its vicinity, for their kindness and hospitality to the members thereof.

Resolved, That the Treasurer pay to the Sexton of St. Luke's Church, the usual compensation allowed for his attendance during the session of the Convention.

J. F. Wilson's bill for postage and freight amounting to $7.54 was read and allowed.

On motion of Wm. T. Read, Esq., it was Resolved, That the Rectors of Parishes in this Diocese be requested to take collections in aid of Christ Church, Dover, at such time as may be deemed most expedient.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Clemson, the Missionary and Education Committee, the Committee for the Relief of Disabled Clergymen, the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund and the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary, were continued.

The Convention then adjourned to re-assemble immediately after the Missionary meeting, this evening.

The charge of St. Martin's Church, Marcus Hook, was yielded up on the 1st of last July. Some few pastoral services have been rendered since. My time is now divided between the duties of my school and parish. The former, I trust, is managed with higher than merely secular views. While the education is thorough and complete, aiming high in earthly attainments, our desire is, also, that it may be eminently Christian.

We trust that the upward tendency and progress of the church manifest throughout the Diocese, is somewhat experienced in this extreme northern border.

The church edifice was finished during the past year and was consecrated on the 3d day of November, 1858. Previously there was only service in the school-house on Sunday afternoons and occasional evenings, as the present Rector was also Assistant Minister in Trinity Parish and had charge of the Old Swedes Church. During nearly four of the seven months in which the church has been opened, the Rector has been debarred from all parochial work by sickness.

All the seats in the church are free. It is supported by the Sunday offerings.

REMARKS.—The Rev. William A. Newbold resigned his office as assistant minister of this church, in October, 1858. He has been succeeded by the Rev. Marshall B. Smith, who was ordained November 28th, 1858, and immediately after entered upon his duties. The Rector was confined by illness to his house for the winter and part of the spring, during which period the great burden of Parochial duty devolved upon the assistant. The general condition of the Parish is satisfactory, but we have to regret the loss by removal of a considerable number of families, some of whom had been connected with this church from its foundation.

The services at the Front Street Mission were continued for most of the year with much encouragement. There is a good prospect of the speedy erection of a building upon an eligible lot on Washington street for the accommodation of the Sunday School that has been gathered, and for religious services. As in former years the heart of the Rector has been cheered by the warm-hearted co-operation of many of his people in works of Christian charity, and especially by the unwearied and faithful labors of his Sunday School Teachers.

It may not be out of place to express in this report the deep sympathy awakened among us by the sudden death of Dr. James F. Heyward, in St. Paul, Minnesota. Although he had become a temporary resident in that city, the hope was cherished of his not very distant return to Wilmington, and in mutual regard and affection he was still identified with this parish. All who knew him could bear witness to the purity of his character, the fervor of his spirit and the unblemished tenor of his life. His early age, his remarkable energy, his loveliness of disposition, his manifest self-consecration to his Saviour seemed to mark him out as the destined instrument of very great good—one whose shining light would constrain many to acknowledge his good works and glorify his Father in Heaven. But God had otherwise appointed, and if we are to be no longer blessed by his living activity, may we gather fresh lessons of Christian zeal and devotedness from his bright example and his peaceful death. "He being dead, yet speaketh."

Having seen St. John's Church, Brandywine Village, brought to a successful completion through the continued liberality of the widow of the late lamented Alexis I. du Pont, I resigned the Rectorship of the same on the day of its consecration, November 3d, 1858, after which the Rev. Stevens Parker entered upon the duties of Rector, having been duly elected.

I take this occasion to express the keen sorrow felt at being obliged to resign the pastoral care of many much loved friends and parishioners residing in the vicinity of this church.

The charge of St. John's compelled their present Rector to resign the office of assistant Minister in Trinity Parish. It was with sincere regret that his devoted services, especially in connection with the Old Swedes Church, were relinquished. Our prayers have followed him that his labors in the Village and Hundred may be abundantly blessed.

In Trinity Parish the children are catechised either in the church or the Sunday School, twice on each Lord's day, by the Rector.

An interesting Bible class for young men has been formed during the past year, which has been increasing in numbers and we trust will be instrumental to the consecration of themselves to the service of Christ and his church.

Two handsome Prayer Books have been presented to the church by a lady of the Parish.

The Rector has received a Surplice, Stoles, and Gown, from a family in the congregation, and a Cassock from several members of the church.

The members of the Ladies Benevolent Association have been unusually active in visiting the needy, and in preparing garments for the poor. This association together with the teachers of the Sunday School, are most valuable co-operators with their Pastor in all good works.

My connection with this Parish dates from 11th July, 1858, previous to which for the space of seven months regular service was suspended, there being no Rector in charge. The present condition of the parish is most encouraging, both in respect of numbers and spiritual life. It will be seen in comparison of the above Report with that of last year, that our present number of Communicants is not so large as last year's figures exhibit. This apparent decrease is, however, only apparent, as I shall show. Of the forty-two Communicants reported to last Convention, it was distinctly stated that seventeen of them were members of the church of England settled in the region round about, never attending service at Newark or contributing to the support of the Parish. In the face of this statement we were assessed for the forty-two, when in reality our membership was but twenty-five; it is to be hoped that in all fairness, our resources will be estimated according to actual membership. That the accompanying report may exhibit the correct and reliable membership of the Parish, I have deducted the anomalous seventeen, under the head of "removals." Our contributions to the cause of Missions have been smaller this year than was to be expected. Several valuable contributing members are permanently lost to the Parish by removal to another Diocese; and others who have heretofore regularly contributed have been compelled by temporary embarrassments to withhold their assistance this year, authorizing us to expect better things of them before our next Report.

I ought not to conclude my remarks without a brief expression of thanks to my parishioners, who have said kind things, and done kind things, too many to be mentioned. The Rectory has been put in complete repair, and (through the voluntary efforts of the ladies,) has been comfortably furnished. If my people will aid me as faithfully with their prayers, as they have done with their purses—the Master's work will prosper in our hands.

I entered on the duties of this Parish 1st November, 1858, since which I have held service every alternate Sabbath afternoon with the exception of two interruptions by stress of weather and impassable roads, and one, by some misunderstanding in changing the day of service at request of the congregation. I am pleased to observe, however, that these few omissions do not seem to have affected the attendance on the services. The congregation is large, and I think increased interest is manifested in the doctrines and claims of the church. From present indications I think some important accessions to our Communion will be reported at next Convention. This Parish is peculiar in many respects. It is decidedly a Missionary field, and as such must receive assistance from the Diocese. The ground here has been long pre-occupied by the other denominations of Christians, and unfortunately some prejudice has been needlessly excited against the Episcopal church. Time and judicious labor on the part of a pastor, will be necessary to counteract these adverse influences, and give the church a permanent footing in this place.

With the annual sum of two hundred and fifty dollars from the Diocesan fund, and the amount at present raised in the Parish, a resident Pastor might live comfortably here, and do signal service for the church. The miscellaneous character of the congregation, and the peculiarly missionary aspect of the Parish, would seem to require an energetic man with some talent for extempore speaking, and genial social manners; such a man must reside here and work faithfully in the pulpit and out of it. This, in my judgment, is the real want of the Parish. The financial engagements of this church are liberal for its numbers and resources, and they have been met with prompt alacrity. The ladies sewing circle are worthy of all commendation; though few in number they have continued to meet and work faithfully, and within the last month have purchased and paid for a fine Melodeon at a cost of sixty dollars. They are not weary in well doing, and are now looking forward to the purchase of a bell, which is greatly needed and for which they will be happy to receive donations from the friends of the church.

Divine Service is celebrated also at Odessa, with much success, on the afternoon of every other Sunday.

The spiritual condition of St. Ann's Parish is highly encouraging. Its treasury will probably receive, in the course of this year or next, the liberal bequest of $1500 from the estate of the late Lewis Vandegrift.

This report dates from last July 4th. During this period of ten months the undersigned has preached one hundred and eight times. Every Thursday night, with few exceptions, services and a lecture have been held in this church. Lectures and addresses during Lent and upon confirmation have been delivered, together with monthly addresses at prayer meetings of the communicants and of the Sunday School teachers, respectively. The afternoon of every Communion Sunday has been appropriated to catechising and addressing the children of the parish, and to the administration of infant baptism.

The church has been closed once during the past year, in consequence of affliction in the family of the Rector. The parish is now relieved of the burden of a church debt and prepared, it is hoped, soon to erect other buildings needed in connection with ministerial work. A cemetery, including an area of two acres and a half, now belongs to the church, which is being suitably improved and fitted for the use of the congregation and the citizens of Smyrna.

The Rector has received many very kind tokens of the willingness of his people to strengthen his hands, and he acknowledges the divine blessing which has been vouchsafed to this part of the field.

He has preached twice in the church at Dover before large and attentive congregations.

REPORT OF THE REV. GEORGE ALEXANDER CROOKE, RECTOR OF ST. PETER'S CHURCH, LEWES.

I entered upon the duties of Rector of this Parish on the first Sunday in last March, since which time the following services have been performed, independent of the usual morning and evening services on Sunday.

During Lent the evening service every Wednesday, and on Friday the same with sermon. During Passion week the daily morning service. The services for colored people on Thursday evening have been continued until a week or two since, in which I have been kindly assisted by the Rev. Messrs Wright and McIlvaine.

REPORT OF THE ASSISTANT MINISTER, ST. ANDREW'S, WILMINGTON.

Having received and accepted an invitation from the vestry of St. Andrew's Parish, I entered upon the duties of Assistant Minister on the first of December, 1858. During the six months of my official connection with the Parish I have preached 69 times; read wholly or in part 92 services; made 33 addresses to Sunday Schools, and on other occasions; assisted in the Holy Communion 4 times; solemnized 2 marriages; baptized 1 infant in private; and officiated at 6 funerals.

M. B. SMITH, Assistant Minister.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR :—In addition to my ordinary duty of assisting the Rector of St. Peter's, Lewes, I have been permitted to officiate on other occasions as follows :

1858—July 4, at Long Neck; August 1, Chapel and L. Neck; Aug. 8th, Chapel, a funeral; Aug. 15th, Chapel and L. Neck; Aug. 22, Lewes; Sept. 5, Lewes; Sept. 12, Lewes and Milton; Nov. 28, at Millsborough; Jan. 30, at Lewes; April 22, Lewes; April 24th, at Long Neck.

I have also taken my part in a service to the people of color.

DAVID MACILVAINE.

On motion of Rev. Charles Breck, the election of a Secretary was postponed until after Divine Service.

The Rev. Mr. Goldsborough offered the following resolution, which was adopted:—

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church not belonging to this Diocese, and Students of Theology, who are candidates for Holy Orders in this church, who may be present, be and they are hereby invited to attend the sittings of the Convention.

The Rev. John L. Gay, Rev. Thomas G. Clemson, and the Rev. George S. Lewis, of the Diocese of Delaware; the Rev. John K. Murphy of the Diocese of Pennsylvania; the Rev. William Murphy and the Rev. R. H. Waters, of the Diocese of Maryland; the Rev. Thomas F. Billopp of the Diocese of New Jersey; and Mr. William T. Hotchkin, of the General Theological Seminary were present.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Goldsborough, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted as the Rules of Order of the present session, and on request were read by the Secretary pro. tem.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The business of every day shall be introduced with prayer.
2. When the President takes the chair, no member shall continue standing, nor shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.
3. No member shall absent himself from the service of the house, unless he have leave, or be unable to attend.
4. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
5. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, without leave of the house.
6. A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of the house, and shall not be again drawn into debate during the same session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the house.
7. If a question in debate contain more parts than one, any member may have the same divided into as many questions as there are parts.
8. While the President is putting any question, no one shall hold private discourse, stand up, walk into, out of, or across the house, or read any book.
9. Every member who shall be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be particularly interested in the decision.
10. No motion shall be considered as before the house unless it be seconded, and reduced to writing when required.
11. When any question is before the house it shall be determined on before any new thing is introduced, except the question for adjournment.
12. The question on a motion for adjournment shall be taken before any other, and without debate.
13. When the house is about to rise, every member shall keep his seat until the President leaves the chair.
14. The Journals of the Convention shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and a copy sent to each member of the Convention.
15. The charge or sermon, when delivered by the Bishop before the Convention, shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and one copy sent to each clergyman, and ten copies to each vestry in the Diocese.

The Convention then took a recess for Divine Service.

The order for daily morning prayer was read by the Rev. Samuel C. Brinkle, Rector of Christ Church, Christiana Hundred; the Rev. Charles Breck, Rector of Trinity Church, Wilmington, and the Rev. John L. Gay, Rector of St. Luke's Church, Seaford.

The Ante-Communion service was read by the Rev. John G. Clemson, D. D., Rector of the Church of the Ascension, Brandywine Hundred, the Bishop reading the Gospel.

After the singing of two verses of the 105th Hymn, the Bishop delivered his 5th Triennial Charge.

The Holy Communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Clemson, and the Rev. Messrs. Goldsborough and Breck.

The congregation having been dismissed, the Bishop resumed the chair and called the house to order.

The following named Lay Delegates, not present at the opening of the Convention, answered to their names and took their seats:

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Clemson, the reading of the minutes of the morning session was dispensed with.

The Bishop then read his Annual Address.

ADDRESS

To the Clerical and Lay Members of the Seventieth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Delaware.

BELOVED BRETHREN :

During the year just closed I have been enabled, through the sustaining hand of God, to meet the different claims made upon my office, although with a growing consciousness of the imperfect manner in which these duties have been discharged. Since the last Convention all the Parishes have been visited, and several of them more than once. I have usually met large and attentive congregations, and in many places witnessed indications of improvement. Our growth, if not so rapid as we might desire, appears to be steady and healthful.

On the 6th July, 1859, in St. Thomas' Church, Newark, I ordained the Rev. Robert J. Keeling, Rector of the Parish, to the Priesthood.

On Sunday, July 10th, in the Church of the Ascension, Claymont, I ordained to the Diaconate Thomas Green Clemson, and John Leighton McKim. Mr. McKim has been since transferred to the Diocese of New Jersey, at the request of the Bishop of said Diocese.

From October 5th to 23d, I was in attendance on the General Convention, in the city of Richmond. This was the largest assemblage of that body ever held, and not behind any preceding Convention in ability and devotion to the interests of the Redeemer's church. The Missionary spirit manifested was exceedingly cheering, and much desire was evinced to awaken the great body of our people to a more earnest, practical and active Christianity. The Convention was also marked by the addition of five new members to the Episcopate, and the election of two Missionary Bishops for the domestic field. At one of the solemn services there held, that upon which the Bishops elect of New Jersey and Ohio were consecrated, I was called to discharge the office of preacher.

October 30th, I opened Calvary Chapel, Wilmington, for Divine Service. This edifice, eligibly situated in the South-western part of the city, is the fruit of a mission that has been sustained for two years by members of St. Andrew's church. Services have been since regularly held by the Rector and assistant Minister of St. Andrew's on Sunday afternoons, and a flourishing Sunday School sustained. The lot was liberally given for the object, and much interest has been manifested in the erection and furnishing of the building, which is plain, but extremely neat and convenient.

November 6th, in St. Andrew's church, Wilmington, at the request of Bishop Potter of Pennsylvania, I ordained the Rev. William Allibone Newbold of that Diocese, formerly assistant Minister of St. Andrew's, to the Priesthood.

On the 7th December, I admitted to the Presbyterate, in St. Andrew's, the Rev. Marshall B. Smith, Rector of Christ Church, Dover. At this ordination we were favored with a sermon from the Rev. Dr. Sparrow, Professor in the Theological Seminary, Fairfax Co., Va.

On Ascension Day, May 17th, assisted by a number of the clergy of our Diocese and of Pennsylvania, I consecrated to the worship of Almighty God, Christ Church, Dover. The restoration of this venerable edifice is truly cheering to those among us who had long mourned over the forsaken sanctuary, and apparently extinct Parish. The time-worn building, for so many years a sad spectacle of desertion and decay, has been entirely renewed, and is transformed into a well arranged, comfortable and attractive church. It has been occupied by a worshipping congregation since January last. From the number of habitual attendants, and the interest awakened by the services of the present Rector, we are encouraged to hope that brighter days are in store for this long depressed Parish. Those who were present on the occasion of the renewed dedication of the House of Prayer, will always retain delightful remembrances of this solemnity, as well as of the kind hospitalities of the citizens of Dover. The Vestry had obtained from the Rev. Dr. Hawkins, Secretary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, copies of such portions of their Records as relate to the Dover Mission, since its inception in 1704, which were kindly placed at my disposal for the preparation of an historical discourse delivered on the occasion. May the renewal of the material edifice be but preliminary to the raising up of the spiritual house, a holy temple in the Lord. So remarkable a revival may well strengthen our faith, and quicken our prayers to the God of all grace for that blessing without which our labor is vain.

CLERICAL CHANGES.

The Rev. George A. Crooke resigned St. Peter's Church, Lewes, in November last. The Parish remained vacant until May, when the Rev. George S. Lewis accepted an invitation from the Vestry to become their Pastor.

The Rev. Marshall B. Smith resigned his office as assistant Minister of St. Andrew's, Wilmington, July 1st, 1859, and accepted an invitation to Christ Church, Dover, in September following.

The Rev. Samuel R. Slack resigned his Parishes in Sussex Co., in September, 1859, and has been succeeded by the Rev. John L. Gay, who entered upon his duties in December following.

The Rev. George A. Strong has become assistant minister of St. Andrew's, Wilmington, since October 1st, 1859.

The Rev. James Chrystal has accepted an invitation to become assistant Minister of St. John's, Brandywine Village, and commenced his services there in October last.

The other Pastoral relations continue as reported in my address to last Convention.

ADDITIONS

To the Clergy of the Diocese have been the Rev. George A. Strong, from Virginia, letter of dismission accepted October 7th, 1859.

Rev. James Chrystal from New Jersey, letter accepted November 5th, 1859.

“ Hitherto hath the Lord helped us.” If faithful to our high and holy trust we may look confidently for larger increase and a more abundant blessing. Let us go on with hope and courage in the strength of our Lord. But let us bear in mind, dear brethren, Clerical and Lay, that the outward increase of the Church is not the end we should have in view, but the means to an end—and that end the glory of God and the salvation of undying souls. If this be not the issue, in the case of Diocese, Parish, or individual, the most flourishing exterior and prosperous appearances will only be followed by a deeper downfall and a more terrible disappointment. Let us never forget the great coming day, when “the fire shall try every man’s work”—the fire which nought can endure, but “gold, silver and precious stones,” built upon the alone solid foundation, Jesus Christ and Him crucified. Let us never forget that we are building for eternity.

God grant that the additions to our Churches may be of such as shall be saved, and only such. God grant that as we go out, pastors and people, from temples made with hands, ours may be an abundant entrance into the everlasting Kingdom.

ALFRED LEE.

Wm. T. Read, Esq., Secretary of the Standing Committee, presented and read an abstract of the proceedings of the Committee during the past year, as follows :

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware respectfully report to the Convention of the said Diocese an abstract of their proceedings during the past year, as follows :

June 1st, 1859, the Standing Committee met at Seaford, Delaware, and was duly organized by choosing the Rev. Charles Breck as Chairman, and William T. Read as Secretary.

July 7th, 1859, the Standing Committee signed the proper testimonial, recommending John Leighton McKim as a fit person to be ordained Deacon.

September 26th, 1859, the Standing Committee approved the reception of the Rev. John Leighton McKim, and the Rev. Marshall B. Smith as candidates for ordination to the Priesthood.

September 26th, 1859, the Standing Committee, as required by a Resolution of the Convention of the Diocese of Delaware, adopted June 1st, 1859, prepared, with the aid of the Bishop of the said Diocese, the "Report of the state of the Church therein," to be laid before the General Convention, in October, 1859, by the Reverend, the President of the said Committee.

December 2d, 1859, the Standing Committee signed the requisite testimonial, recommending the Rev. Marshall B. Smith as worthy and qualified to be ordained to the sacred order of the Priesthood.

June 6th, 1860, the Standing Committee recommended that the travelling expenses of the Rev. S. R. Slack to and from the General Convention, held at Richmond, Virginia, October, 1859, be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention.

June 6th, 1860, the Standing Committee recommended the Rev. Thomas Green Clemson and the Rev. James Chrystal as candidates for ordination to the Priesthood.

(Attest,)

WILLIAM T. READ,

Secretary of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware.

The Rev. Charles Breck presented the following preamble and resolutions which were adopted :

The committee appointed by the General Convention to procure the publication of the Reports of the General Conventions of the Protestant Episcopal Church from 1785 to 1853 inclusive, have succeeded in making arrangements with a publisher to stereotype, print and publish the above mentioned Reports. The valuable services of the Rev. Francis L. Hawks, D. D., L. L. D., have been secured to furnish explanatory Historical Notes, and the Rev. Wm. S. Perry will prepare an Analytical Index.

Resolved, That it is expedient every Parish should subscribe for at least one copy.

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to subscribe for a copy to be placed among the archives of the Diocese.

Resolved, That this Convention recommends, in furtherance of this important work, the co-operation of both the clergy and laity.

The Bishop having called the Rev. Charles Breck to the chair, the Rev. Dr. Clemson offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in the judgment of the Convention, the period has arrived when measures should be taken for laying the foundation of a permanent fund for the Episcopate of this Diocese.

Resolved, That a committee of three in each county, consisting of one clergyman and two laymen—the three county committees forming a Diocesan committee—be appointed to carry the same into effect.

The first resolution was adopted unanimously—the second being on motion of Wm. T. Read, Esq., referred to a committee of two clergymen and three laymen, the chairman appointed the Rev. Dr. J. B. Clemson, Rev. Benjamin Franklin, Franklin Fell, George W. Cummins and C. Wright. The Bishop then resumed the chair, when,

On motion of the Rev. J. E. Grammer, the election of Deputies to the General Convention was postponed until the next Annual Convention.

Mr. George R. Fisher moved to postpone the election of the Standing Committee. Rev. Mr. Smith moved to lay the motion on the table. The motion to lay on the table was lost, and the question recurring on the motion of Mr. Fisher, it was carried.

On motion of Wm. T. Read, Esq., the Missionary and Education Committee was continued.

The 18th Annual Report of the Missionary and Education Committee was then presented by the Bishop, and read by the Secretary, as follows:

SUMMARY.

Contributions for Foreign Missions,	-	$337 50
“ “ Domestic “	-	89 52

The receipts for Diocesan Missions are believed to be in advance of those of preceding years. The Committee are encouraged to believe that the interest in the Missionary work is deepening and widening. Some of the most successful recent efforts to revive and extend the Church in our Diocese have been very much spontaneous in their character. To witness such endeavors, and so far as is in their power to encourage them, will be highly gratifying to the Committee. The Church at Dover has been revived and improved by an impulse mainly from within. Measures have been taken to extend the privileges of the gospel in a portion of the city of Wilmington where there is very inadequate Church accommodation, through the erection by the congregation of St. Andrew's of Calvary Chapel, the seats of which are free. In these and other enterprises there has been a large outlay by individuals and parishes for Home Missions, which is not embraced, or very partially, in our stated reports. The Committee would suggest as a valuable auxiliary, to those who are laboring to introduce the ministrations of our Church in new places, the Mission service published in the city of New York, at a very cheap rate. Strangers are thereby enabled to engage in our Common Prayer with comparative facility, and incipient congregations can be furnished at a very small cost both with the form of public worship, and with a most valuable and instructive tract.

Renewedly commending the great work of Christian Missions, Foreign and Domestic, General and Local, to the warm sympathies and unstinted charities of our members, the Committee, in closing another annual report, would thank God and take courage.

ALFRED LEE,
S. C. BRINCKLE,
B. FRANKLIN,
JAMES F. WILSON.

1854,	876 75	1860,	3,092 44
1855,	712 32

If to the amount reported for the present year be added the sum contributed towards the erection of Calvary Chapel, Wilmington, the aggregate will be $6,795 98.

The Treasurer of the Episcopal fund, of the Convention fund, and of the fund for the relief of aged and infirm clergymen, presented his report, which was referred to a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. A. C. Nowland, Clement Reeves and Samuel G. Lodge.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Wright, the Trustees of the Bishop's Fund, the Relief Committee, and the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary were continued.

The Rev. M. B. Smith, Rector of Christ Church, Dover, on behalf of the vestry of said Church, took occasion to thank the parishes of the Diocese for the liberal manner in which they had responded to the resolution of the last Convention.

On motion of the Rev. M. B. Smith, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the Wardens and Vestry of St. Ann's Church, for the use of their Church, and to the citizens of Middletown and vicinity, for their kindness and hospitality to the members thereof; and that the Treasurer pay to the Sexton of St. Ann's Church the usual compensation allowed for his attendance during the session of the Convention.

The committee appointed to examine the Treasurer's accounts reported the same correct.

The committee on the second resolution of the Rev. Dr. Clemson, presented the following resolutions which were adopted :

Resolved, That one thousand dollars be raised by collections during this year, as a nucleus to a fund for the support of the Episcopate.

Resolved, That a committee of nine, one clergyman and two laymen from each county, be appointed to carry out the above resolution, and that they be authorized to invest any such funds coming into their hands.

The Rev. Mr. Franklin offered the following resolution, which, on motion of the Rev. Mr. Smith, was laid on the table :

Resolved, That the clergy of this Diocese be required to reside within their missionary or Parochial districts, unless for obvious and sufficient cause excused by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee.

J. F. Wilson's bill for postage, freight, &c., amounting to $8.93 was read and allowed.

J. B. Lewis presented a bill, amounting to $16.35, balance of assessment by the General Convention on the Diocese of Delaware, which was allowed.

On motion of the Rev. M. B. Smith, the Secretary was directed to have 100 additional copies of the Bishop's Charge printed for the use of the Bishop.

There being no further business the Secretary read the minutes which were approved, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

The Rev. Marshall B. Smith resigned his office as assistant minister in July, 1859, thus terminating a connection that had been truly acceptable to the Parish. We have been since favored in obtaining the services of the Rev. George A. Strong, who entered upon his duties as assistant minister October 1st.

One of the matters of chiefest interest in our Parochial annals has been the erection and occupancy of Calvary Chapel, the fruit of the Mission commenced, in 1858, in Front Street. A very eligible lot, measuring 70 feet front by 140 deep, corner of Washington and Third streets, was presented by parishioners of St. Andrew's. The building was commenced about the first of August, and opened for divine service October 30th. It is built of brick, 60 feet by 34, containing 64 pews and seating about 250 persons. There is a commodious well-lighted basement, occupied by the Sunday School, of nearly the same capacity as the Church. The interior is neatly fitted up, and has been furnished with font, chairs, pulpit hangings, bible, prayer book and clock, by the liberality of various friends, many of them workmen in the shops of Harlan, Hollingsworth & Co. The total cost of the Chapel, including the lot, is $5,164 00.

Services are held each Sunday afternoon, with a generally full attendance. The enterprise will, it is trusted, be fruitful of blessings, both to its founders and benefactors, and to those who from year to year shall enjoy its privileges.

ALFRED LEE.

Our Sunday School has been in a flourishing state until within a few weeks past, during which time the attendance has been very irregular, by reason of another Sunday School being open in the neighborhood at the same hour ; but we hope soon to recover our usual good order and regularity. During the past year we have also suffered a severe loss in the removal of some of our best and most beloved teachers ; our prayers and sympathies follow them. “ All these things are against us,” but we pray that they may work together for our good ; and that the seeming evils may eventuate in abundant blessings.

Although the last year has been one of trial to our little Church, yet we rejoice to say it has also been one of encouragement. We have had many blessed indications of God's presence with us, and we trust soon to see our beloved Zion in prosperity. We sow the good seed with faith and hope renewed, looking to the Lord of the harvest for the increase.

The friends of this parish with their accustomed liberality have furnished us the means of putting our little Church into good repair ; new seats, carpet and a beautiful stone font have been procured ; good horse-shedding has also been erected.

friends and parishioners, at Newport, for their present of a handsome family carriage. May their generosity be richly rewarded.

We feel truly thankful to be able to report this parish in a flourishing condition—united in bonds of holy love and Christian sympathy. Our congregations are good and enter heartily into the spirit of our services; their faith is beginning to produce its blessed fruits of good works done for Christ and his Church; and they show their love not so much by their words as by their deeds.

Old St. James' was for many years in a drooping state, and the hearts of her faithful few mourned sore over her desolation; but now their tears are turned into thanksgiving, as they see the hand of the Lord raising her from the dust, and his work reviving within her. May she go on in the strength of her God and prosper.

During the past year, our Chancel has been enlarged, and a very beautiful Bible, prayer book and stone font have been placed therein by the liberality of our friends.

Additional ground has been added to the grave-yard and substantially walled in with stone; flowers, shrubbery, &c., have been planted, making it highly ornamental, as well as suitable for its solemn purpose.

Shedding for twelve horses has been also built, and the vestry have kindly purchased a horse for the use of the Rector.

About eight hundred dollars have been paid by the parish during the past year for these and other improvements.

We have reason to be thankful for Divine blessings during the past year. We have grown in numbers, and, I trust, in grace. The Missionary tone of the Parish is encouraging, and our contributions more than double those of last year. May the Great Head of the Church abide continually with us, until we come to His everlasting kingdom.

The general aspect of this Parish is encouraging. The congregational attendance is large, and I think a good feeling for the Church is manifested. Where ground has been so long and so thoroughly pre-occupied, as is this case, time will be required to give the Church a permanent footing. I am encouraged to believe that quite a number, “almost persuaded,” will be in readiness at the next Episcopal visitation to take upon them the Christian vow, and become thoroughly identified with the number of Christ’s faithful people.

The Sunday School is flourishing under the faithful labor of an efficient Superintendent, and will tell happily in the future growth of the Church.

The Church has been open for service every Sunday during the past year. The Rector has preached one hundred and eight sermons, besides having held public services for devotion and lectures every Thursday evening. Especial services were held during Lent and preparatory to Confirmation—together with monthly addresses to the Communicants and Sunday School teachers in meetings for private devotion. The children of the Parish are catechised and a sermon is preached to them, the afternoon of the first Sunday in each month, when the Sacrament of Baptism is administered to infants.

The Vestry are still improving the cemetery grounds which were purchased last year.

As soon as they secure suitable lots, it is earnestly desired for the good of the Parish that they will erect a Sunday School room and a parsonage.

The ladies of the “Church Aid Society,” have contributed to Domestic missions a box containing fifty articles of clothing.

In reviewing the labors of the past year, the undersigned acknowledges the blessing which has rested upon the Parish, and his heart has been cheered by the earnest efforts of his people to co-operate with him in every work of charity. He would acknowledge here the many offices of affection and kindness which he has received from his parishioners, and not least the present of books from the Ladies' Church Aid Society. During the absence of the Rector, at the meeting of the General Convention, Rev. Marshall B. Smith, of Dover, very kindly consented to officiate in St. Peter's Church.

My connection with this Parish dates from Sept. 1st, 1859, at which time I found it in a rather unpromising condition. The limited character of the parochial statistics this year is mainly owing to the fact, that there has been no resident Rector here for many years. We trust that future reports will be more encouraging. For obvious reasons I have not as yet been able to establish a Sunday School, nor is it probable, that there will be material for one, for some time to come.

Several of our sister Parishes have liberally responded to the call made at the last Convention, and have contributed towards the repairs of the church, as follows :

Immanuel, New Castle,	-	-	-	$121 49
Christ Church, Christiana Hundred,	-	-	-	80 00
Trinity, Wilmington,	-	-	-	50 00
St. Peter's, Smyrna,	-	-	-	47 04
St. Andrew's, Wilmington,	-	-	-	35 00
Ascension, Claymont,	-	-	-	15 00
St. John's, Brandywine Village,	-	-	-	4 18

We have also received the following sums from individuals not resident in the Parish :

Mr. C. I. du Pont,	-	-	-	50 00
Dr. G. Emerson,	-	-	-	50 00
Rev. G. W. Ridgely,	-	-	-	25 00

Gov. Burton,	-	-	-	10 00
J. S. Buckmaster,	-	-	-	5 00
Vincent L. Bradford,	-	-	-	5 00
Miss A. Brinckle, am't collected towards the purchase of an organ,	-	-	-	85 00
Total am't received from Churches and individuals,				$607 21

To Mrs. Capt. du Pont and Mrs. Smith of Christiana Hundred, we are indebted for a handsome Stone Font, and to Mrs. Jane Hamilton, of Philadelphia, for Bibles and Prayer Books for the Chancel.

The total cost of repairing and furnishing, frescoing, organ, &c., was $2,565.35; of which amount, after deducting the sum contributed as above, there was left a balance of $1,958.14 which has been paid by the vestry.

The present renovated edifice was occupied for the first time on Sunday, January 15th, 1860. An instrument of ample compass and exquisite tone has been placed in the gallery, and the interest of the service is greatly enhanced by the voices of an efficient and well trained choir.

The Glebe, having been for many years a source of little or no revenue, and not likely, without a considerable outlay, to yield much for many years to come, was sold, early in the Spring, to a gentleman in Dover for $3000; there being no legal obstructions in the way of its sale. The Church debt was paid, and the Church was consecrated on Ascension day, May 17th, 1860.

While the Church was being repaired, services were held on Sunday afternoon, in the Presbyterian Church, which was kindly loaned us by the Pastor and Elders for that purpose.

The Parish is now fully re-organized, with an efficient Vestry, and a good house of worship. The attendance is good in the morning and quite large in the afternoon; and there is little or no opposition to the services and work of the Church. To be successful, we need the quickening influences of the Holy Ghost. May God in his own time and way grant us this unspeakable gift.

The Vestry of this Church have taken measures for a thorough repair and improvement of the building, contemplating an outlay of $1500 to $2000. This improvement, it is believed, will conduce very decidedly to the welfare of the Parish, by enlarging the capacity of the Church and rendering it more convenient and comfortable. The work is designed to be finished before the winter.

LEWES, DEL., June 4th, 1860.

Rt. Rev. Alfred Lee, D.D.

Having received a call to the Rectorship of St. Peter's Church, Lewes, I accepted the same, and entered upon my duties on the 13th May last. Under the able hands of those preceding me, the Parish has grown steadily and surely. I earnestly pray Almighty God to bless my efforts also in the same field. The present report extends, during the conventional year, from June 1859 to June 1860, and shows the labors of the Rev. George Alex. Crooke, now Rector of St. John's, Philadelphia, and the Rev. Edwin B. Chase, now removed to Marblehead, Mass. The latter fulfilled the duties of the Rectorship during the two months preceding my arrival.

Sunday services now once in two weeks, but throughout the winter and spring, once every Sunday, with week-day services about 25 times. Attendance good, prospects rather hopeful, though we have lost some of our strength by removals, and by the changes and chances of commercial life. For the first time in the history of the parish we can now say that the parish is out of debt.

REPORT OF REV. JAMES CHRYSTAL ASSISTANT MINISTER OF ST.

JOHN'S CHURCH, BRANDYWINE.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir:—The undersigned entered upon his duties as Assistant Minister of St. John's, Brandywine, July 21, 1859.

He has preached forty-three times, has read wholly or in part one hundred and twenty-five services, has assisted in the Holy Communion twelve times and has baptized one adult.

At St. Georges Station, Del., he has held service six times and preached five times, (included above) and has baptized two children. The Sunday School at that place numbers five teachers and forty scholars.

JAMES CHRYSTAL.

REPORT OF ASSISTANT MINISTER OF ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, WILMINGTON.

I entered upon my duties October 9, 1859; have preached, since then, in St. Andrew's Church and in Calvary Chapel, 37 times; and in other Churches, 18 times ; read service, in whole or part, each Sunday ; assisted in the Holy Communion, and officiated at two funerals.

GEORGE A. STRONG, Assistant.

June 16th, 1860.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir:—From Christmas until the beginning of Lent I officiated regularly at Lewes during the vacancy of that Parish, and at other times I have preached occasionally as the opportunity has been afforded me.

Yours, &c.

DAVID MAC ILVAINE.

May 25th, 1860.

In November last, owing to the ill health of my family, I removed from Delaware to Baltimore ; and have since officiated as a temporary Chaplain, at the suggestion of the Bishop of Maryland, at the Church Home and Infirmary, and until the institution of the Revenue Warden thereof into his interesting cure and charge. I have also assisted the Rectors of Trinity, St. Andrew's and Christ Churches, in the eastern part of Baltimore, and have officiated elsewhere from time to time. During these months, I have read prayers 80 times, and in part 36 times, preached 60 times, lectured 14 times, baptized 3 infants and 6 adults, administered the Holy Communion 13 times, and assisted in its administration 6 times, administered it to the sick once, used the office for "the Visitation of the Sick," 5 times ; and that for "the Burial of the Dead," 4 times. I am now serving in the Church as Chaplain at the Patapsco Female Institute, Ellicott's Mills, Md., an educational establishment deserving and commanding the highest regard, not only for its excellent instruction and care of its pupils, but also for its interest in their spiritual welfare. Present number of pupils, 132. Officers and teachers, 24. This report is to the 6th June, the day of the assembling of the Convention of Delaware, though my canonical residence for a few weeks past has been in Maryland.

S. R. SLACK, Presbyter.

To the Right Reverend the Bishop of Delaware.

Baltimore, June 6th, 1860.

3. No member shall absent himself from the service of the house, unless he have leave, or be unable to attend.
4. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
5. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, without leave of the house.
6. A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of the house, and shall not be again drawn into debate during the same session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the house.
7. If a question in debate contain more parts than one, any member may have the same divided into as many questions as there are parts.
8. While the President is putting any question, no one shall hold private discourse, stand up, walk into, out of, or across the house, or read any book.
9. Every member who shall be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be particularly interested in the decision.
10. No motion shall be considered as before the house unless it be seconded, and reduced to writing when required.
11. When any question is before the house it shall be determined on before any new thing is introduced, except the question for adjournment.
12. The question on a motion for adjournment shall be taken before any other, and without debate.
13. When the house is about to rise, every member shall keep his seat until the President leaves the chair.
14. The Journals of the Convention shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and a copy sent to each member of the Convention.
15. The charge or sermon, when delivered by the Bishop before the Convention, shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and one copy sent to each clergyman, and ten copies to each vestry in the Diocese.

On motion of the Rev. Charles Breck, the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That a reasonable sum be allowed for the transcribing of any former Journals, not already entered in the book provided by the Convention.

On motion of John B. Lewis, the account of the late Secretary—Dr. Wilson—amounting to $9.71, was allowed.

The Rev. Dr. Clemson offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed, one of whom shall be the late Secretary of the Convention, who shall take in charge the correction of the typographical errors in the last two Journals, and have the same correctly transcribed into the proper book.

The Chair appointed the Rev. Dr. Clemson and the Rev. Mr. Hotchkiss.

The Convention then took a recess for Divine Service.

The order for daily morning prayer was read by the Rev. Robert L. Goldsborough, Rector of St. Ann's Church, Appoquinimink, and the Rev. James Chrystal, Assistant Minister of St. John's Church, Brandywine Village.

The Ante-Communion service was read by the Rev. Charles Breck, Rector of Trinity Church, Wilmington, the Bishop reading the Gospel.

After singing four verses of the 25th Hymn, the Convention sermon was delivered by the Rev. Samuel C. Brinckle, Rector of Christ Church, Christiana Hundred, from the 9th verse of the 48th psalm.

The Holy Communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Breck.

The congregation having been dismissed, the Bishop resumed the chair and called the house to order.

The following clergymen, not present at the opening of the Convention, appeared and took their seats:—Rev. Messrs. Benjamin Franklin and Stevens Parker.

The following named Lay Delegates, not present at the opening of the Convention, answered to their names and took their seats :

ADDRESS

To the Clerical and Lay Members of the Seventy-first Annual Convention of the Diocese of Delaware.

BELOVED BRETHREN :

In the Providence of God we assemble to-day in this venerable Sanctuary where met, in 1791, the first Convention of the Diocese of Delaware. The call for that Convention issued from the Rev. John Bissett, Rector, and the Vestry of Christ Church, Dover. Many subsequent Conventions were also held here until 1824. Again, after an interval of thirty-seven years, the Annual Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Delaware is gathered in the same ancient edifice, renewed and improved. We cannot pass over this feature of the present Convention without grateful emotions and thanks to our Divine Head.

Proceeding to review the official acts of the just expired year, I report the Ordination of the Rev. James Chrystal to the Priesthood, on the 25th day of July, 1860, in St. John's Church, Brandywine Village, on which occasion the sermon was preached by the Rev. Charles Breck.

On the 21st of June, at the request of Bishop Potter, I took part in the services at the consecration of Christ Church, Media, Pa., of which edifice I laid the corner-stone on the 5th of July, 1858.

On the 26th September, 1860, I was present at the re-opening of Immanuel Church, New Castle, and delivered the sermon. This venerable and beautiful Sanctuary has been much improved and considerably enlarged, added church accommodation being made necessary by the increase of the congregation and the flourishing condition of the Parish.

On the 30th of November I held an Ordination in St. John's Church, Brandywine Village, when the Rev. Thomas G. Clemson and the Rev. George A. Strong were admitted to the Priesthood. The sermon was preached by the Rev. John B. Clemson, D. D.

On the 30th September, interesting services were held in old Christ Church, Broad Creek, at which large numbers were present from all the congregations in that vicinity. On this occasion I preached twice, confirmed four persons, and administered, with the assistance of the Rector, Rev. J. L. Gay, the Lord's Supper to a larger number of communicants than have probably knelt together in that ancient sanctuary within the memory of the present generation. Such services, occasionally held in a church where the ordinary attendance is small and services during the winter suspended, cannot but produce a happy influence, bringing members of the church together and cheering those who have much to discourage them. The large and promising field in which the Rev. Mr. Gay has labored with much zeal and general acceptance, has just become vacant by his removal. I have indeed to note in this address an unusual number of vacant parishes.

Christ Church, Dover, was resigned by the Rev. Marshall R. Smith, July, 1860.

St. George's Church, Indian River, St. Mark's, Millsboro', and Grace Church, Baltimore Mills, have become vacant by the resignation of the Rev. Wm. Wright, September 10th, 1860.

St. Peter's Church, Smyrna, was resigned by the Rev. Julius E. Grammer, January 28th, 1861. St. Luke's Church, Seaford, Christ Church, Broad Creek, St. John's, Little Hill, and St. Mark's, Little Creek, by the Rev. John L. Gay, May 20th, 1861.

Christ Church, Dover, has been acceptably supplied by the Rev. J. C. White, who entered upon his duties in October last. The other parishes named still remain vacant.

The Rev. Geo. A. Strong resigned his position as Assistant Minister of St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, December 31st, 1860, and has been succeeded by the Rev. N. C. Pridham, who entered upon his duties immediately after.

The Rev. Samuel F. Hotchkin, was elected Assistant Minister of the Church of the Ascension, Claymont, and entered upon his duties in July last.

The Rev. Thomas G. Clemson was appointed Missionary in Brandywine Village and Hundred in November, 1860.

ADDITIONS

To the Clergy during the year, have been the Rev. J. C. White from the Diocese of Pennsylvania, letter accepted September 26th, 1860.

The Rev. S. F. Hotchkin from the Diocese of New York, letter accepted November 1st, 1860.

The Rev. N. C. Pridham from the Diocese of Louisiana, letter accepted March 19th, 1861.

REMOVALS.

The Rev. Marshall B. Smith to New Jersey, letter accepted by Bishop Odenheimer, September 13th, 1860.

The Rev. William Wright to Pennsylvania, letter accepted by Bishop Potter, October 1st, 1860.

The Rev J. E. Grammer to Ohio, letter accepted by Bishop McIlvaine, February 28th, 1861.

The Rev. George A. Strong to Massachusetts, letter accepted by Bishop Eastburn, April 17th, 1861.

The Rev. John L. Gay to the Diocese of Quebec, letter dated May 20th, 1861.

There are at present no admitted candidates for orders.

The parishes and Missionary stations have been nearly all visited since the last Convention, and many of them twice. In some instances I have been requested to defer my visit until after the Convention. To this it is partly owing that the number of Confirmations falls below the average for several years past. The Holy Communion has been administered on several of these occasions, and thirty-five sermons and a number of addresses delivered. St. Andrew's, Wilmington, is not included.

Confirmations are yet to be held in Christ Church, Christians Hundred, Newport, Stanton and Newark.

We meet, beloved brethren, under public circumstances of the gravest character. Our beloved and hitherto peaceful land is now the theatre of strife, and for aught that we can tell, that strife may be protracted, desperate and bloody. No patriot heart but must be deeply oppressed and saddened by the outbreak of civil war and the prospect of its inevitable calamities.

The Church must feel in many ways the effects of an agitation so fearful as that which now convulses our country, and the still small voice of the gospel seems almost drowned in the clash of arms. And yet it is at such times that the promises and consolations of the word of God are most needed and should be most welcome. A deep solemnity pervades many hearts, favorable to impressions of that which is spiritual and eternal. While the very foundations of the social system rock as with earthquake throes, while the worldly objects which so many have been pursuing to the neglect and forgetfulness of better things are slipping from their grasp, while life's uncertainty is forced upon those who hasten to the field, and the hearts of families and friends are tender and anxious, the precious and saving truths of the gospel may find entrance into bosoms hitherto barred and closed against them.

May not the words of eternal life, so often heard in vain, now prove to many 'words in season,' and is not the appalling crisis in which we find ourselves a loud call to ministerial activity and Christian devotedness? To my brethren in the sacred office I say then, now above other times, "Preach the word, be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all long-suffering and doctrine." Press upon men, awed and solemnized by the convulsions and dangers of the State, the claims of that Kingdom which cannot be moved. Remind them, amid rapid and startling changes, that Jesus Christ is the same, yesterday, to-day and forever. Urge them to seek refuge in the ark of God, and to shelter themselves under the almighty wings. This too is a time to point out the dread evil of sin, the bitter fountain of all the disorders, strifes and miseries that afflict the world; and the indispensable necessity of repentance and humiliation before a holy God. Oh, the treasure with which we are put in charge, as God's ambassadors to dying men, seems to be enhanced in its value and preciousness by times so troublous, and with increased zeal and importunity should we urge upon men the acceptance of our glad tidings.

What may be the effects of the present conflict upon the condition of the Church of Christ in our country, it is impossible for us now to foresee. That the ultimate result will be the furtherance of the gospel and the advance of the kingdom of Christ, we cannot allow ourselves to doubt. But our way to this consummation may lie through seas and tempests. We need a strong faith and a hope anchored within the veil. We shall surely need much prayer and looking unto God.

One of the immediate effects is likely to be the embarrassment of Missionary operations, and the diminution of contributions for religious and benevolent purposes. Let me affectionately urge upon my brethren of the Laity to endeavor, so far as their ability extends, to avert consequences so disastrous. This is specially a time for the Lord's stewards to be faithful. If God have given you means, let it be a care near to your hearts that your own pastor does not suffer from the withholding of the support to which he is entitled. And remember that your donations for the spread of Christ's kingdom, at home and abroad, are now doubly important. I might almost say every dollar you give now has a ten-fold value.

We know not, beloved, the end of these things, the course of which we watch with such intense anxiety. But we may know our individual duty; and in the conscientious discharge of that we shall be making the wisest preparation for the future. An earnest faith and unshaken trust in God, a holy resolution never to shrink from danger in the way of duty, an enlarged charity that excepts none from its scope, and the spirit of fervent prayer and supplication now become the Christian. May the God of all grace grant us these precious bestowments, and all that we need besides, for the sake of his blessed Son, our only Saviour and Advocate.

ALFRED LEE.

The committee appointed upon Rev. Mr. Breck's resolution, report that,

The certificate of the Lay Delegate from St. Georges Church, Indian River, not having been presented, it is the opinion of the committee, that according to Canon II, he is not entitled to a seat in this Convention, but inasmuch as the committee has information that the certificate has been made out and only failed to be received by accident, it is proposed that Mr. Peter R. Burton the Lay Delegate aforesaid be invited to a seat on this floor, with all privileges except voting.

CHARLES BRECK,
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN,
WILLIAM CUMMINS.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Keeling the report was adopted.

Wm. T. Read, Esq., Secretary of the Standing Committee, presented and read an abstract of the proceedings of the Committee during the past year, as follows :

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware respectfully report to the Convention of the said Diocese, an abstract of their proceedings during the past year, as follows :

June 6th, 1860, the Standing Committee met in St. Ann's Church, Middletown, Delaware, and was duly organized by choosing the Rev. Charles Breck as President and William T. Read as Secretary.

November 30th, 1860, the Standing Committee signed the requisite testimonials recommending the Rev. George A. Strong as worthy and well qualified to be ordained to the sacred order of the Priesthood.

(Attest,)

WILLIAM T. READ,

Secretary of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware.

The committee on the Endowment of the Episcopate reported progress, and asked to be continued, which request was granted; and the Rev. Dr. Clemson was elected to fill the vacancy in the committee occasioned by the removal from the Diocese of the Rev. Mr. Grammer.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Franklin, it was

Resolved, That the next Annual Convention be held in St. Peter's Church, Lewes, on the first Wednesday in June, 1862

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Brinckle, the election of the several committees was postponed.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Goldsborough, the Secretary was requested to convey to the late Secretary—Dr. J. F. Wilson—the thanks of the Convention for the very able and faithful manner in which he has discharged his duties.

The Rev. Mr. Franklin offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Clergy of this Diocese be required to reside within their Missionary or Parochial districts, unless for obvious and sufficient cause excused by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee.

The Rev. Mr. Keeling moved to amend the resolution by striking out the words “with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee,” which motion prevailed, and the resolution thus amended was adopted, as follows :

Resolved, That the Clergy of this Diocese be required to reside within their Missionary or Parochial districts, unless for obvious and sufficient cause excused by the Bishop.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Goldsborough, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the Wardens and Vestry of Christ Church for the use of their Church, and to the citizens of Dover and vicinity for their kindness and hospitality to the members thereof; and that the Treasurer pay to the Sexton of Christ Church the usual compensation allowed for his attendance during the session of the Convention.

The Convention then adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock on the occasion of the appointed Missionary meeting.

8 o'clock, P. M.

The meeting was opened with prayers by the Rev. George S. Lewis; addresses were made by the Rev. Mr. Alsop, Rev. Mr. Hoskins, Rev. Mr. Brinckle and the Bishop, and a collection taken for Diocesan Missions.

At the close of the services, the Bishop called the House to order.

The Report of the Missionary and Education Committee was presented, and read by the Secretary.

James F. Wilson, Treasurer of Missionary and Education Committee, Diocese of Delaware.

Samuel F. Hotchkiss, Assistant Minister.

This parish is prosperous. For the most of a year, it has enjoyed the faithful services of the Rev. Samuel F. Hotchkiss as assistant Minister. Most of the pastoral work of the parish is performed by him, while he maintains regular pulpit services at home and at other points in the Hundred. My own labors are divided, being largely shared in by my family school. The attention on the sanctuary services is both good and interested, and the different Parochial works are well sustained.

The Church has received from a lady of the parish the very liberal gift of a rich window of stained glass for the chancel.

The Sunday School is managed by the assistant and with success and satisfaction. It numbers, Teachers, 10 ; Scholars, 70. There have been

REPORT OF REV. S. F. HOTCHKIN, ASSISTANT MINISTER OF THE CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION, BRANDYWINE HUNDRED.

Rev. Sir:

I entered upon my duties July 3d, 1860. During the past year I have assisted the Rev. Dr. Clemson in performing service and preaching at Ascension Church. For several months past I have officiated on alternate Sunday afternoons at the Union meeting house in this Hundred where the Rev. Mr. Hazlehurst organized a parish some years ago.

The first Sunday after Trinity, Grace Church in this Hundred was re-opened with a good attendance, and I hope hereafter to hold services there on the 1st and 3d Sunday of each month in the afternoon, and to continue the services at the Union meeting house on the 2d and 4th Sunday.

I have baptized one sick person in private, in the absence of the Rector.

The offerings at the services at the Union meeting house have been for the most part devoted to the Sexton. A friend in New York sent us $10, which was appropriated to the use of that station, and the Church of the Ascension has contributed somewhat for the same purpose.

From November, 1860, until the latter part of April I was absent from my parish, having been South for my health. I did not resume my duties until the middle of the month of May. During my absence the parish has been very faithfully ministered unto by the Rev. Thomas G. Clemson. The parish school has been continued during the past year. The average number of scholars has been about fifty. In October, 1859, the guild of St. John's Church was established and it has given efficient aid to the Rector in the care of the poor, in the increase of the Sunday School, in notifying him of sickness and in other duties connected with the Parochial work.

STEVENS PARKER.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, BRANDYWINE VILLAGE.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir:

The undersigned assistant Minister of St. John's, Brandywine, has during the past year preached seventy-six times, read wholly or in part one hundred and forty-seven services, has administered the Holy Communion once, and assisted at its celebration eleven times, has baptized two children, and officiated at one funeral. He has held service and preached on several occasions in the prison at New Castle, Del. These are included in the above. He has also visited and distributed tracts among the prisoners.

JAMES CHRYSTAL, Assistant.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir:

During the last year I have been constantly engaged in ministerial duties. Prior to Nov. 12th I was engaged in preaching out of the Diocese. Since Nov. 12th I have been in charge of St. John's Church, Brandywine. I have preached 120 times, read service in whole or part each Sunday, and since my ordination, Nov. 30th, have regularly administered Holy Communion and officiated at one funeral.

The Rev. George A. Strong resigned his office as assistant Minister in December last. The Rev. N. C. Pridham entered upon his duties as assistant immediately after. Services have been held regularly in Calvary Chapel on Sunday afternoons and during a considerable part of the year on Wednesday evenings. The Chapel Sunday School on Sunday mornings has been well sustained and is gaining in numbers and efficiency. Our schools indeed have all been conducted, through the co-operation of warm-hearted zealous teachers, in a very satisfactory manner and with an increased average attendance. The last year has made unusual demands upon the charitable sympathies of our people, and these have been answered to a much greater extent than appears on the record of public contributions.

Among the afflictive dispensations of the past year we have to record the removal by death of one whose name is identified with the history of Christ Church—Mrs. Victorine E. Bauduy. She established the Sunday School which was the foundation of our Church, and for forty-five years was its untiring Superintendent. How many there trained who will rise up and call her blessed will be known at the last day. To pastor and people, in Church and in the Sunday School, our loss is greater than we can express.

The financial distresses of these troubled times have been peculiarly felt in this parish.

The services in this parish continue to be well attended, and applications exceeding our accommodations have necessitated a few additional pews. The parish has responded as usual to the various Missionary and other financial calls, and would doubtless have contributed more largely to the cause of Missions, but for unexpected and important repairs on the church, the removal of several contributing members, and the general depression of the times. Owing to the sudden illness of the Bishop at his last annual visit, the rite of confirmation could not be administered. A class of eight candidates are awaiting his next visit, to which we look forward with much interest. During the past year we have had to mourn the loss of a member of our vestry, Mr. James N. Bunker, who was for some years the faithful and zealous Superintendent of our Sunday School. After a life of useful piety he departed hence in full assurance of hope. As brethren we are endeavoring "to hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace and in righteousness of life."

The services continue to be well attended. The communicants, principally females, are faithful and zealous in their efforts to sustain the church in this place. Some expenditures have been made on the church inclosure, window lights, wantonly broken by unruly boys, have been renewed, and valuable heating apparatus provided to secure the requisite comfort for our winter services. The Sunday School flourishes under the faithful superintendence of Mr. E. B. Pennington. The distance of this parish from my residence, and the infrequency of the services, are serious obstacles to an effective pastorate, but I trust ere long to see some cheering evidences of my imperfect ministry in this church.

The Rev. J. E. Grammer resigned the charge of this parish on the 28th of January, 1861. Since that time the church has been opened regularly on Sundays and the congregation have enjoyed both clerical and lay services. On Thursday evenings the church is open for service and a lecture. And on the first Monday of every month the vestry meet and the teachers of the Sunday School for prayer and counsel.

Although without a pastor for four months, we feel that the God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Jacob is our God; that he has not forsaken us, and while we have his promise, that, "when two or three are gathered together in his name, there he will be in the midst," we are not discouraged, believing that "all things will work together for good to them that love and serve the Lord." But, while we deeply regret the loss of our much esteemed and loved pastor, we cheerfully submit to the Divine will, with an assurance that our loss will be the gain of others, and in this change we recognize an over-ruling Providence, who doeth all things well.

Although the money required for the proposed improvement of this Church was almost secured a year ago, it has been thought best not to enter on the work, but to postpone the measure till "better times." The parish is in a reasonably prosperous condition.

JOHN L. McKIM, Rector.

ST. MATTHEW'S CHURCH, CEDAR CREEK.

No report from this Church having been rendered to the Convention for some time past, it may be proper for the undersigned to state on behalf of the surviving Vestrymen, that these gentlemen, after consulting the feelings of the remaining churchmen of Cedar Creek and the vicinity, determined to sell the old Church building and certain moveable property pertaining to it, and to invest the proceeds in Bank Stock, or other productive securities. The house, with some of the furniture, was accordingly disposed of at public auction, in May, 1858; and the money which has been realized from the sale, will be invested in the above mentioned manner as opportunity offers.

The Church lot, one square acre on both sides of the highroad, has also been let out on ground-rent, upon a lease of thirty-three years from the above date, to the proprietor of the adjoining farm; a small portion occupied by graves, being reserved and enclosed by itself. The title of the land has thus been secured to the parish, against such a time, however distant, as in the providence of God the Church may come to revive.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN L. McKIM.

EXTRACT FROM A SERMON

Preached in Christ Church, Dover, at the Seventy-first Annual Convention of the Diocese of Delaware, June 5th, 1861. From Ps. 48: 9.

BY THE REV. S. C. BRINCKLE.

Another thought of God's loving kindness in His temple is that our Convention meets once more in this Church. Here, where more than a century and a half ago, the good seed of the Kingdom was first planted; where, too, the first Diocesan Convention was held, and where, for a series of years it was accustomed to assemble; though now for some thirty-seven years it has been excluded. This is our re-union, therefore—the family revisiting once more its ancient home. How natural are reminiscences and congratulations at such a time!

I go back in memory to my childhood, and among my earliest, tenderest recollections, I find this old, venerable church. It stands associated in my mind with the parents who brought me with them here to worship. The Church, as you have heard, was planted by one of my ancestors, and here had been the spiritual home of my family. It is the Bethel of my recollections, towards which my heart has turned in all its vicissitudes. What a joy to see it so restored, the very building, time honored, and hallowed by so many associations, but so beautified and changed as to make it one of the finest in the diocese! What a joy to see our tribes come up to this ancient, but almost forgotten temple! Well may we take up the grateful strain, "We have thought of Thy loving kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple."

The assembly here to-day calls to my recollection another Convention held in this church some forty-three years ago, at which I was present, though I then belonged to the diocese of Pennsylvania. There were then but four clergymen in this diocese, all told, and only two of them attended, one of these leaving on the morning of the first day. The President of the Convention was the Rev. Levi Bull, who had just been settled in Trinity Church, Wilmington. He was also the preacher. His text was from Nehemiah II: 20. "The God of heaven, He will prosper us, therefore we His servants will arise and build."

The sermon was earnest and faithful, depicting the low state of religion in the diocese, but full of encouragement of the right kind, to labor in the strength of God for its revival. Yet so offended was one of his hearers at the representation, that he pronounced it a slander upon the church.

Dark as that period was, in the history of our diocese, there was the dawning of a better day, which served to keep hope alive. The Convention, though small, was some advance on former ones, and upon the whole, cheering to the few brave hearts there, most of whom are now assembled in the church above. That Convention was memorable for one act; a movement in the right direction, and far in advance of the times. It was to this effect:

"Resolved, unanimously, that this Convention highly disapprove of theatres, public balls, gaming, and every species of dissipation, as not only in themselves pernicious to the morals and manners of the people, but as tending directly in their consequences to the destruction of vital piety and to the abolition of all religion. And this Convention most earnestly recommend it to the members of this church, and entreat them, as they regard their everlasting happiness, not to attend theatres, horse-races, public balls and other plays and sports of the same nature, that they abstain from card-playing and every kind of gaming, and that they endeavor to live temperately and soberly, and by all means to avoid the use of vinous or spirituous liquors, except in cases where their health may require it."

The Journal does not give the name of the mover of this resolution, but as I well remember, it was the late Chancellor Ridgely. The world knew him as the profound jurist, whose comprehensive mind had moulded the Equity system of his State; as the judge of unsullied purity and uprightness, whose decisions it were a heresy to dispute. So he passed among men, and so he was. But his chief adornment was his beautiful Christian simplicity, and the fidelity of his walk with God his Saviour. I shall never forget his noble presence, as I saw him here, in that Convention, and seem to see him now, with his eagle eye, and beaming countenance, as I recall the old pulpit and desk, the chancel with its quaint furniture, and the high-backed pews of former days. Nor shall I forget his words of affectionate counsel to myself, who had just entered the Ministry, which so impressed me then, and which I am sure I have treasured up in my heart.

As we dwell in pleasing recollection upon those servants of God who went in and out before Him in this house, but who now live with Him in the upper temple, our hearty thanks for their example again find language in the text, "We have thought of thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple."

St. George's, Indian River,	{ J. B. Burton, J. F. Burton.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of a Secretary. The Rev. R. L. Goldsborough and Mr. Gregg Chandler were appointed tellers, and upon counting the votes, reported that Solomon M. Curtis had been duly elected.

Whereupon the Chair declared S. M. Curtis to be Secretary for the ensuing year.

Rev. Dr. Clemson, from the committee having in charge the correcting and transcribing of the Journals of 1859-60, reported that they had performed that duty, and asked to be discharged, which request was granted, and the Treasurer was directed to pay the amount of expenses incurred—$16.

Dr. Wm. Cummins offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church not belonging to this Diocese, and Students of Theology, who are candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, who may be present, be and they are hereby invited to attend the sittings of this Convention.

The Rev. Henry S. Getz and the Rev. D. MacIlvaine, of the Diocese of Delaware, the Rev. Charles R. Bonnell, the Rev. J. Pinkney Hammond, of the Diocese of Pennsylvania; and Mr. J. Pleasanton Du Hamel, Candidate for Orders, in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, were present.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Franklin, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted as the Rules of Order of the present session.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The business of every day shall be introduced with prayer.
2. When the President takes the chair, no member shall continue standing, nor shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the Chair.
3. No member shall absent himself from the service of the house, unless he have leave, or be unable to attend.
4. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing, shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
5. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, without leave of the house.

6. A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of the house, and shall not be again drawn into debate during the same session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the house.

7. If a question in debate contain more parts than one, any member may have the same divided into as many questions as there are parts.

8. While the President is putting any question, no one shall hold private discourse, stand up, walk into, out of, or across the house, or read any book.

9. Every member who shall be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be particularly interested in the decision.

10. No motion shall be considered as before the house unless it be seconded, and reduced to writing when required.

11. When any question is before the house it shall be determined on before any new thing is introduced, except the question for adjournment.

12. The question on a motion for adjournment shall be taken before any other, and without debate.

13. When the house is about to rise, every member shall keep his seat until the President leaves the chair.

14. The Journals of the Convention shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and a copy sent to each member of the Convention.

15. The Charge or Sermon, when delivered by the Bishop before the Convention, shall be published by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Bishop, and one copy sent to each clergyman, and ten copies to each vestry in the Diocese.

Rev. Mr. Franklin from the Committee on the Endowment of the Episcopate, reported progress, and asked to be continued, which request was granted. He also resigned his position as a member of the committee, and, on his motion, Rev. Mr. White was elected to fill the vacancy.

On motion of Benjamin Caulk, the account of the Secretary, amounting to $6.58, was allowed.

The Rev. Dr. Clemson offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Rector and Wardens of every Parish to see that a collection be made annually for the fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate.

The Rev. Mr. Franklin moved to amend the resolution by striking out the words, "Wardens of," and insert, "the Delegates from."

Pending the discussion, the Rev. Mr. Breck moved, that the whole subject be made the order of the day immediately after the reading of the Bishop's Address, which motion prevailed.

Mr. John B. Lewis presented the annual accounts of the Treasurer. The Bishop appointed Messrs. James Brown and T. J. Adams a committee to audit the same, and they subsequently reported that they found them correct.

The Convention then took a recess for Divine service.

The order for daily morning prayer was read by the Rev. Dr. Clemson, Rector of Church of the Ascension, and the Rev. George Hall, Rector of St. Luke's, Seaford.

The Ante-Communion service was read by the Bishop and the Rev. R. L. Goldsborough, Rector of St. Ann's, Appoquinimink; the Bishop reading the Gospel.

After the singing of four verses of the 98th hymn, the Convention sermon was delivered by the Rev. Charles Breck, Rector of Trinity Church, Wilmington, from a part of the 4th verse of the 9th chapter of the Gospel of St. John.

The Holy Communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Goldsborough.

The congregation having been dismissed, the Bishop resumed the chair and called the House to order.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Clemson, it was Resolved, That when the Convention adjourns, it adjourn to meet at three o'clock this afternoon.

The Convention then adjourned.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, LEWES, }
June 4th, 3 o'clock, P. M. }

The Convention re-assembled pursuant to adjournment.

The Bishop called the House to order. The Secretary called the roll.

- The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

On motion of Mr. John B. Lewis, a committee of three was appointed to examine the accounts of the Treasurer of the fund for infirm and disabled Clergymen.

The Bishop appointed the Rev. Mr. Franklin, Messrs. G. W. Cummins and Franklin Fell.

The Bishop then read his Annual Address.

ADDRESS

To the Clerical and Lay Members of the Seventy-second Annual Convention of the Diocese of Delaware.

Meeting where we do to-day, beloved brethren, one of the first thoughts that occur to us is that unlooked-for dispensation of Divine Providence which has taken from our midst the late Rector of this Parish. We find a void in the little company of clerical laborers, and miss the cordial greeting that would have welcomed our present gathering on the part of our lamented brother. Not among the least of the inducements to select this church for the meeting place of our present Convention, was his urgently expressed desire, and the anticipation of the pleasure that would be received and imparted by our intercourse with him on such an occasion. It is an impressive comment upon the uncertainty of life and earthly prospects, that the one of our last assemblage first gathered to the tomb, should have been the most youthful; that while those who have long borne the burden and heat of the day still survive, the race so recently commenced should be abruptly terminated, and the morning grass should be mowed by the fatal scythe.

The Rev. George Seymour Lewis departed this life, August 1st, 1861, after a very brief illness, consequent upon exposure in crossing the Bay. He died in the midst of his sympathizing parishioners who did all that man could do to alleviate his sufferings. He had been in charge of this church about fifteen months, and was looking forward to his ordination to the Priesthood in October ensuing, when he would have attained the canonical age. In my parting interview with him, I had arranged to visit the church for that purpose. But ere the expected day arrived his ministry in temples built with hands was ended. The Master, to whom he was ready to pledge a life-long service, accepted in stead the willing mind.

Our young brother had entered upon his ministerial duties with a fervent spirit and a sincere desire to glorify God and prove a blessing to his people, and his amiability and friendliness of manner had won the affectionate regard of those among us who had an opportunity of knowing him. While we drop the tear of fraternal sympathy over his early grave, let us heed its admonitory lesson, "Be ye also ready, for at such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh."

The past twelve-month has been also marked with impressive instances of mortality in our church at large. While death has been gathering his harvests on the battle field, he has claimed none the less his accustomed tribute in the peaceful walks of life. Two of our eminent and revered Bishops have disappeared from the scene of their labors.

In the recent decease of the venerable Bishop Meade, of Virginia, we have lost one who had for many years occupied a prominent place in the councils of our Church, and who had exerted an influence probably inferior to that of no other clergyman of the present day. His name will be historical in the annals of his native State, and of the Protestant Episcopal Church. In the roll of our Episcopate he was second in seniority, and at the last session of the General Convention presided in the House of Bishops. The venerable senior Bishop, at a more advanced stage of life is, in the Providence of God, still spared to the church, which never more needed his matured wisdom and godly counsels.

The removal of the Rt. Rev. Samuel Bowman, of Pennsylvania, was a sudden and inscrutable event, attended by circumstances so remarkable as to startle and solemnize our whole Communion. In the apparent enjoyment of health and vigor, with the promise to human eye of many years of active service, pursuing his journey on an errand of official duty, he fell by the way-side and yielded up his spirit to its Redeemer. Like Moses he died alone with God, no human friend or watcher near. But who that knew his godly sincerity and earnestness could doubt that, let the last hour come when and how it might, he would be found ready.

On the 6th of August, 1861, I assisted at the last solemn service, when his remains were committed to the grave in Lancaster, Pa., in the midst of a deeply sympathizing community and a weeping flock.

To these conspicuous triumphs of the last enemy might be added the names of several of the most esteemed and honored of our Presbyters, who have crossed the river of death, and have gone to swell the great company whose places on earth know them no more.

The Parish, in which our present Convention meets, has not only suffered the loss of its Pastor, but by the very sudden decease of John Rodney, Esq., has lost a zealous member and efficient vestryman, by whom it had been frequently represented in this body and whom we met at our last session. May we so redeem the time that our summons shall find us abounding in the work of the Lord, and our mortality be swallowed up of life.

In proceeding to notice what has been done in the way of Diocesan duty, I notice that on the 24th August, 1861, I was present at a convocation held in St. Ann's Church, Appoquinimink, rendered interesting and agreeable by the numerous attendance of the parishioners and the courteous hospitalities of the Rector. On this occasion,

I preached, assisted in the Holy Communion, and, at the Rector's request, baptized an infant.

September 22d, 1861, in the Church of the Ascension, Claymont, I ordained to the Priesthood the Rev. Samuel F. Hotchkin, Assistant Minister of that Parish, administered confirmation, and took part in the administration of the Lord's Supper. In addition to his duties at the Ascension, the Rev. Mr. Hotchkin has been endeavoring to revive Grace Church, Brandywine Hundred, which has had for years but a nominal existence, and has also been taking measures to secure the erection of a Church edifice near the Union Meeting House.

October 10th and 11th, I attended the meeting of the General Board of Missions in the city of Philadelphia.

December 3d, in St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, I admitted to the Order of Deacons, Mr. Joseph Newton Mulford, on which occasion the sermon was preached by the Rev. Richard Newton, D. D., of Philadelphia. Mr. Mulford had been previously transferred as a Candidate for Orders from Pennsylvania to this Diocese. He accepted an invitation to become Assistant Minister of St. Andrew's, and entered immediately upon his duties.

January 22d, 1862, by appointment of the presiding Bishop, I officiated as one of consecrators of the Rev. William Bacon Stevens, elected Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. It is matter of congratulation that the vacancy occasioned by Bishop Bowman's decease has been so speedily and satisfactorily filled, and that Bishop Potter has one to share with him the arduous labors of his extensive Diocese.

The Churches and Missionary stations have been visited as usual during the year, and I have just completed a tour of official duty of an interesting and on the whole of an encouraging character. It has been especially gratifying to find a number of parishes, that had been for a considerable time vacant, renewedly enjoying pastoral services. About the average number of sermons and addresses have been delivered.

CLERICAL CHANGES.

The Rev. Jacob Rambo, for many years Missionary in Western Africa, has become the Rector of St. George's, Indian River, St. Mark's, Millsboro', and Grace Church, Baltimore Mills. Mr. Rambo entered upon his duties in September last, and has been since laboriously engaged in the wide district embraced within his charge, holding frequent services in dwellings and school houses, as well as meeting the regular appointments in the churches. Such efforts give the best promise of success in this part of the Diocese, reaching many who are not found in our ordinary congregations, and I cannot but trust that the unwearied exertions of Mr. Rambo will be crowned with the desired blessing.

The large Missionary field in the Western part of Sussex County, resigned by Rev. J. L. Gay just before our last Convention, remained vacant until December last, when the Rev. George Hall entered upon the charge of St. Luke's Church, Seaford, Christ Church, Broad Creek, St. John's, Little Hill, and St. Mark's, Little Creek Hundred. It gave me much pleasure to welcome back to the Diocese one who had been in years past our fellow laborer, and who could therefore bring to this peculiar field that experience and acquaintance with its character which are so desirable. On my recent visit to St. Phillip's Chapel, Laurel, I baptized the infant child of the Rector.

The Rev. N. C. Pridham resigned his situation as Assistant Minister of St. Andrew's, Wilmington, in October last.

The vacancy occasioned by the death of the Rev. Mr. Lewis has not yet been filled, but will, I trust, ere long be acceptably supplied. The Rev. D. McIlvaine has cheerfully rendered his services during the interval.

The Rev. Henry S. Getz of Pennsylvania, accepted a call to the Rectorship of St. Peter's Church, Smyrna, and entered upon his duties, April 1st, 1862. The Parish had remained vacant about fifteen months, although repeated efforts had been made to obtain a pastor. The church has, however, been opened without interruption, and the Sunday School well sustained, by means of cler-cal supplies, and the zealous exertions of one of its members who has rendered good service as Lay Reader, and thus the injurious effects of a vacancy to a considerable degree obviated. The accession of the Rev. Mr. Getz has given much satisfaction and encouragement, and he has been warmly welcomed to his new field of labor. In July last, I officiated at the funeral of the late lamented Daniel Cummins, Esq.

The Rev. James Chrystal resigned in April his office as Assistant Minister of St. John's Church, Brandywine Village.

The Rev. John L. McKim resigned at Easter the Rectorship of Christ Church, Milford.

Other Pastoral relations continue as reported to the last Convention.

The period since we last met in Convention has been one of intense excitement. A new and blood-stained page of our national history has been unfolded, and we have been agitated by the terrible realities of internecine war. A year ago we were in a state of dread expectancy, watching with hushed breath the gathering storm-clouds, and awaiting with deep anxiety the fearful explosion. As a nation we seemed on the very verge of destruction, threatened with disruption, anarchy and interminable warfare. To human eye the prospect was dark indeed. Although the sword is yet unsheathed, yet have we had such experience of Divine protection as may well strengthen our faith and assure our hearts with the confidence that God hath not forsaken us in our extreme peril. From the most appalling dangers to which a great people were ever exposed we have been mercifully preserved, and from its bloody baptism our nation may come forth purified and strengthened.

In the stern and awful crisis through which we have been passing, I have been constrained by most sacred and imperative convictions to declare, without concealment or reserve, my views of what our holy religion, under such circumstances, teaches and requires. When the foundations of society and government were threatened with subversion, to have kept back the plain testimony of Scripture, upon great questions of civil obligation and responsibility, would have been to shun to declare the whole counsel of God. On the page of the New Testament rebellion against a lawfully established government is a sin against God. Under the gravest sense of responsibility to the flock over which the Holy Ghost hath made me overseer, and to the Great Shepherd and Bishop of souls, I have not felt at liberty to ignore and pass over those emphatic passages which require every soul to be subject to the powers that be, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. In so doing I have felt that I was carrying out the principles of my Church, which, while keeping aloof from matters of mere secular policy, has from the organization of our government offered prayer, supplication and intercession for the President of the United States, and for the Senate and Representatives of the same in Congress assembled, thus recognizing their lawful sovereignty, has taught even children in her catechetical exposition of the 5th commandment "to honor and obey the civil authority," and has prayed without ceasing to be delivered "from all sedition, privy conspiracy and rebellion."

So far as our own State and Diocese are concerned we have surely reason for very great thankfulness. No part of our country has suffered less from the effect of hostilities. While the thunders of war have been rolling so near us, how peaceful and untroubled our own borders! How little interruption of the pursuits of industry! How remarkably exempt have we been from the losses and bereavements which follow the shock of warring armies! And while in many parts of our land the Church of Christ has been so distracted and prostrated, sanctuaries closed, altars deserted, the ways of Zion mourning, even Christian ministers taking the sword and mingling in the carnage, what cause for gratitude that our churches have been so free from agitation, and that we have been permitted to prosecute our great work without let or hindrance. Deeply impressed with these signal mercies, let us gird ourselves with fresh energy, promote in every possible way the spread of that gospel which alone can fully and finally tranquillize a distracted and bleeding country, and scatter far and wide those leaves of the tree of life which are for the healing of the nations.

ALFRED LEE.

Dr. Clemson offered the following as a substitute for the resolution proposed by him in the morning:

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Rector and Wardens of every parish to see that a collection be annually made on the Festival of Whit-Sunday, or on some other day as the Rector may see fit, for the fund for the endowment of the Episcopate; provided, that the collection for this year be made on the first Sunday in July.

The Resolution was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Breck, the following resolution was adopted:

The securing to the Diocese an adequate support for the Bishop having been a subject which the late Alexis I. du Pont had deeply at heart; and in his last will and testament left the sum of five thousand dollars to lay the foundation of a fund for the same, which was lost to the Diocese by reason of the invalidity of his last will and testament; therefore,

Resolved, That we recommend this subject to the members of the Church throughout the Diocese who are blessed with means, and earnestly request them to make such a disposition from the abundance of their resources as will tend to the promotion of such a desirable object.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Franklin, it was ordered, that the above resolution be brought before every Parish in the Diocese, once a year, in such manner as the Rector may think best.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Franklin, the Treasurer was directed to pay for the printing of the Journal of 1861.

Mr. Wm. T. Read moved that the Convention proceed to the election of a Standing Committee; which motion prevailed.

The Chair appointed the Rev. Messrs. Stevens Parker and J. C. White on the part of the Clergy, and Messrs. E. G. Bradford and Dr. Wm. Cummins, on the part of the Laity, Tellers.

Mr. Wm. T. Read presented and read the abstract of the proceedings of the Standing Committee for the year past.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware respectfully report to the Convention of the said Diocese an abstract of their proceedings, during the past year:

June 5th, 1861, the Standing Committee was continued, by a Resolution of the Convention of the Diocese of Delaware, for the year next ensuing; having been duly organized by the choice of the Rev. Charles Breck as Chairman, and William T. Read as Secretary, previously.

September 2d, 1861, the Standing Committee signed the usual testimonial, recommending the Rev. Samuel F. Hotchkin, as a fit person to be ordained priest.

November 11th, 1861, the Standing Committee consented to the consecration of the Rev. William Bacon Stevens, as Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and signed the testimonial in such case required.

November 25th, 1861, the Standing Committee signed the proper testimonial, recommending Mr. Joseph N. Mulford, as worthy to be ordained Deacon.

June 3d, 1862, the Standing Committee signed a testimonial, that, from sufficient evidence laid before them, they believe Thomas McKee Brown is apt and meet to exercise the Ministry to the glory of God and the edifying of the Church.

June 4th, 1862, the Standing Committee signed the proper testimonial, recommending the Rev. John Crocker White as worthy to be ordained to the sacred Order of the Priesthood.

(Attest,)

WILLIAM T. READ,

Secretary of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Delaware.
June 4th, 1862.

Rev. Mr. Parker proposed the following amendment to the 2d article of the Constitution :

“The Annual Convention of this Diocese shall be held on the first Wednesday of June in each year in Wilmington, and the balance of the Convention fund shall be applied in giving assistance to those Delegates who may apply for the same, in proportion to their expenses ; provided, &c.”

And, on his motion, it was laid on the table, subject to the call of the mover.

The Rev. Mr. Franklin presented and read the following report :

The Special Committee, to whom was referred the account of the Treasurer of the Relief Committee for the assistance of infirm and disabled Clergymen, beg leave to report that they have examined the same, and find it correct. It appears from the said account that the expenditures of the committee for the past year have reached the amount of two hundred and sixty dollars, and that of this sum the Bishop has loaned eighty dollars. This amount, it is hoped, will be repaid to the Bishop by private persons without delay, and that the necessity for such advances by him may henceforth be prevented by systematic contributions from all the parishes of this Diocese.

The Special Committee further report that the sum of three hundred dollars will be needed by the Relief Committee to meet its necessary expenses for the year ending June 5th, 1863. These expenses must be met, and no practicable mode appears, other than an assessment on all the parishes of the Diocese. In a case so urgent it is hoped that every parish will promptly pay its quota, and avoid the mortification of again taxing the Bishop's private resources.

The Committee proposes the following action by the Convention :

Resolved, That the parishes of this Diocese be assessed the gross amount of three hundred dollars, and that it shall be the duty of their Rectors and Lay Delegates to this Convention to secure the payment of their respective quotas—half on or before the first day of October, and half on or before the first day of April next—and that the assessment be proportioned as follows, viz :

St. Andrew's, Wilmington,	$50 00
Trinity, Wilmington,	50 00
Immanuel, New Castle,	50 00
Christ Church, Christiana Hundred,	40 00
St. Ann's, Appoquinimink,	20 00

FRANKLIN FELL,
GEORGE W. CUMMINS.

The report was accepted, and the resolution adopted.

Mr. James Brown presented the following report, which was accepted, and, on his motion, the committee was discharged :

The Committee, to whom was confided the duty of taking in charge and overseeing the property of Grace Church in Brandywine Hundred, beg leave to report, that the church for a year past has been stately opened for service. It has been put in thorough repair and made comfortable for its appropriate use, and being now in charge of a Rector and Vestry, they would respectfully ask to be discharged.

JAMES BROWN,
GEORGE LODGE.

The Rev. Mr. Goldsborough offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention since its last assembling together has heard with sincere regret of the death of the Rev. George Seymour Lewis, the faithful and beloved Pastor of St. Peter's Parish, Lewes, and takes occasion of the opportunity of meeting in the Sanctuary, at whose altar he served God and the people committed to his charge, to express their sense of the excellent Christian character, the zeal and the talent which adorned our brother in Christ.

Resolved, That this Convention has heard likewise with sincere regret, of the death since our last annual meeting of John Rodney, Esq., a zealous and devout member and vestryman of this Parish, and a Delegate to Convention, who served Christ and His Church with exemplary diligence and devotion.

Resolved, That as members of the Church we bow with submission to the will of God in these dispensations of His Providence, " blessing His holy name for all His servants departed this life in His faith and fear, and beseeching Him to give us grace so to follow their good example, that with them we may be partakers of His heavenly kingdom."

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes, and a copy of them sent by the Secretary to the families of the deceased, and to the vestry of St. Peter's Parish.

The tellers reported, on the first ballot for members of the Standing Committee, the election of the Rev. Charles Breck, Wm. T. Read, and S. M. Curtis. There being two vacancies, the Bishop directed the House to prepare their ballots for two clerical members.

On motion of Mr. Nathaniel Wolfe, the Convention proceeded to the election of Delegates to the General Convention. The Bishop appointed as tellers, Rev. Mr. Rambo, Rev. Mr. Mulford, T. S. Merritt and Dr. Lyons.

On the second ballot, the two Orders concurred in electing Rev. Mr. Marshall as a member of the Standing Committee.

The third ballot for member of the Standing Committee resulted in the election of Rev. Mr. Brinckle.

The Bishop then declared that the following gentlemen had received the concurrent vote of both Orders as members of the Standing Committee :

Rev. Charles Breck, Rev. Samuel C. Brinckle, Rev. Wm. Marshall, Wm. T. Read, S. M. Curtis.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Breck, it was Resolved, That the House proceed to ballot for two Trustees of the General Theological Seminary.

Rev. Mr. Hotchkiss and Mr. Franklin Fell were appointed tellers.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Franklin, the Convention dispensed with balloting for Trustees, and the Rev. Stevens Parker and the Rev. R. L. Goldsborough were elected, viva voce.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Franklin, the Secretary was directed to print the corporate name on the list, instead of "The Committee on the Bishop's Fund," and also at the head of Canon XIII.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Breck, the following gentlemen were elected "Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Delaware :"

Wm. T. Read, George W. Cummins, E. G. Bradford, Clement C. Reeves, Franklin Fell.

George W. Cummins, Esq. offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to the Rev. Charles Breck for his practical and evangelical discourse preached before this body.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Goldsborough, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the Wardens and Vestry of St. Peter's Church, for the use of their Church, and to the citizens of Lewes, for their kindness and hospitality to the members thereof; and that the Treasurer pay to the Sexton of St. Peter's Church the usual compensation allowed for his attendance during the session of the Convention.

On the first ballot for Delegates to the General Convention, the two Orders concurred in the election of the Rev. Charles Breck, Commodore S. F. Dupont, Wm. T. Read and S. M. Curtis.

On the second ballot for Delegates to the General Convention an error was discovered in the Clerical vote, and a new election was ordered.

The Convention, on motion of Rev. Dr. Clemson, then took a recess to attend the missionary meeting to be held at 8 o'clock this evening.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, LEWES, }
June 4th, 1862, 8 o'clock, P. M. }

The Convention assembled this evening to attend the Missionary meeting.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. White.

The 103d hymn was sung.

The Bishop then made an address, followed by the Rev. Mr. Rambo, Rev. Dr. Clemson, and Dr. Wm. Cummins.

After singing the 104th hymn, a collection was made for Diocesan Missions, and the congregation dismissed by the Bishop, with the benediction.

10 o'clock, P. M.

The Bishop resumed the chair and called the House to order.

The tellers reported that both Orders had concurred in electing the Rev. Mr. Rambo a Delegate to the General Convention, on the second ballot.

There still remaining three vacancies, on motion of Rev. Mr. Parker, the Convention proceeded to a third ballot.

The Secretary read the annual report of the Treasurer of the Missionary and Education Committee, presented by the Bishop:

James F. Wilson, Treasurer of Missionary and Education Committee, Diocese of Delaware.

The tellers reported on the third ballot in the election for Deputies to the General Convention, and it was found there was no choice.

The House proceeded to a fourth ballot, which resulted without choice.

The Tellers reported no choice on the fifth ballot.

Mr. George W. Cummins moved to adjourn until 8 o'clock to-morrow morning, which was decided in the negative.

The House proceeded to a sixth ballot, in which there was no choice.

The Rev. Mr. Breck moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Standing Committee of the Diocese be and are hereby appointed the Committee called for by the Fifth Canon, to prepare "a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese to be presented to the General Convention," and that the Clergymen of the Diocese be requested to forward to the Committee the required information.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Franklin, it was Resolved, That there be printed five hundred copies of the Journal, and that the Treasurer be directed to pay for the same.

The Convention went into a seventh ballot; pending which, Mr. George W. Cummins moved to adjourn, which was lost.

Rev. Mr. Goldsborough moved that the next annual Convention be held in Trinity Church, Wilmington, on the first Wednesday in June, 1863, at 9 o'clock, A. M., which motion prevailed.

The tellers reported on the seventh ballot for Deputies to the General Convention, and there was no choice.

Mr. George W. Cummins moved to adjourn, which was negatived.

On motion of Mr. John B. Lewis, the Treasurer was directed to pay the bills for printing the Journals, when approved by the Secretary.

The eighth ballot for Delegates to the General Convention was reported, and there was no choice.

Mr. G. W. Cummins renewed the motion to adjourn, which was lost.

Mr. John B. Lewis moved that a committee of conference be appointed, which was decided in the negative.

The tellers reported on the ninth ballot, and it was found there was no choice.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Rambo, a committee of conference was appointed.

The Bishop appointed Rev. Mr. Breck, Rev. Mr. Hall, Messrs. George W. Cummins and James Brown, who reported to the Convention the names of the Rev. Mr. Brinckle, Rev. Dr. Clemson, and Mr. H. F. Rodney; and on the tenth ballot, the two Orders concurred in electing the Rev. Mr. Brinckle, Rev. Dr. Clemson and Mr. H. F. Rodney.

The President then declared that the following gentlemen had received the concurrent vote of both Orders, as Delegates to the General Convention :

Rev. Charles Breck,
 " Jacob Rambo,
 " Samuel C. Brinckle,
 " John B. Clemson, D. D.,
 Commodore S. F. Du Pont,
 Wm. T. Read,
 S. M. Curtis.
 Henry F. Rodney.

The Convention then adjourned until 8 o'clock to-morrow morning.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, LEWES, }
 Thursday, June 5th, 1862. }

The Convention assembled pursuant to adjournment.

Morning prayer was read by the Rev. Dr. Clemson, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Goldsborough.

At the close of the service, the Bishop called the House to order.

The Secretary called the roll, and read the minutes of the previous day, which after being amended were approved.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Breck, the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese be requested to act in concert with " the Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Delaware," in procuring such a change of the corporate name, under which the said Trustees are incorporated as will be more conformable with the purposes and objects of the act of incorporation.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Breck, the resolution in relation to the name of the committee on the Bishop's Fund, was reconsidered.

On motion of Mr. J. F. Burton, it was ordered that the original resolution be laid on the table.

The Rev. Mr. Parker called up his proposed amendment to the 2d Article of the Constitution, and after some discussion, on motion of Mr. George W. Cummins, the proposed amendment was indefinitely postponed.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Goldsborough, the Secretary was directed to insert in the Journal, the contribution for Diocesan Missions from St. Ann's Parish, omitted last year, amounting to five dollars.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Goldsborough, it was Resolved, That after reading the minutes, and the usual religious exercises, the Convention adjourn.

The Secretary then read the minutes, which were amended and approved, and after prayers and the Benediction the Convention adjourned.

PAROCHIAL REPORTS.

CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION, CLAYMONT, BRANDYWINE HUNDRED,
NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

Rev. John B. Clemson, D. D., Rector.

Rev. Samuel F. Hotchkin, Assistant Minister.

This parish gives the usual indications of inward and outward prosperity. The services are well attended, the general interest grows, and projects for its welfare are encouragingly sustained. In the last year there have been erected commodious horse sheds, while the interior of the church has been newly carpeted and otherwise improved. While this particular Parish has been served, a regard has been had to the surrounding country. Services have been regularly maintained by Mr. Hotchkin at Grace Church, and at a point mid-way between that and Wilmington, where promising efforts are now making to erect an edifice under the title of Calvary Church. The Rev. Mr. Hotchkin has been most assiduous in Missionary and Pastoral work in the Hundred, and finds ample encouragement to persevere. The Sunday School maintains its interest, and has nine teachers and eighty-five scholars.

CALVARY CHURCH, BRANDYWINE HUNDRED.
(Worshipping in Newark Union Meeting House.)

Rev. S. F. Hotchkin, Missionary.

Rt. Rev. Sir:

Since my last report, I have assisted Dr. Clemson at the Church of the Ascension, Claymont, and officiated at Grace and Calvary Churches. The latter parish promises well for the future. We hope to build a new church in the coming year. I cannot organize a Sunday School in the building which I now occupy.

I am not able to state what the receipts of the parish have been for the past year, with the exception of $5 for parochial purposes. Next year I hope to be able to give a more definite account of the parish. Between six and seven hundred dollars have been subscribed for the new church. A part of this sum came from Trinity Church, Wilmington; Immanuel Church, New Castle; St. John's Church, Brandywine Village, and St. Thomas' Church, Newark.

A lady in the vicinity has very kindly given us a site for the building and stone for the walls.

Mr. Colburn, an architect of Cambridge, Mass., has presented us with a beautiful plan for the new edifice.

In connection with the three parishes which I serve, I have visited about three hundred families scattered over roads forty or fifty miles in extent.

Having settled a parish limit with the clergyman at Brandywine Village, I have within the last two years visited every house within my limits, and with the exception of a few absences and removals have seen every family. I have been very well received and tracts have been kindly and gladly accepted.

The ancestors of the people in this Hundred were mostly churchmen, and their descendants have a kind feeling for our common mother. I hope a few years work in this vicinity will show a good result. Many families scarcely ever see a clergyman in their houses, and the effect of personal visiting from house to house can hardly be overestimated in its effects upon pastor and people.

God grant that He who was sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel may draw all the wanderers back into His fold.

We cannot now administer the Holy Communion or Baptism with that decency and propriety which those Sacraments demand, but upon the opening of our new church we will endeavor to do our duty more fully in these respects.

REPORT OF THE ASSISTANT MINISTER OF ST. JOHN'S, BRANDYWINE.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir :

Having accepted a call to the Rectorship of the Church of the Ascension, Westminster, Md., April 19, 1862, I presented my resignation as Assistant Minister of St. John's Church, Brandywine. My report covers only the period from June 5, 1861, to this time.

During this period I have attended one funeral, baptized two infants, administered alone, or assisted at, the Lord's Supper nine times; preached sixty-three times; read alone or assisted at the reading of eighty-seven services.

There is nothing of special interest to report from this parish. We are looking forward to the annual visit of our Diocesan a few weeks hence, when we trust to present a few candidates for Confirmation. Our Missionary contributions compare favorably with last year, but we regret that this noble Christian enterprize is not more generally appreciated by the church members, leaving it dependent upon the Christian liberality of a few.

I think increased interest is manifested in the service at this parish, and indulge the hope, judging from the large and regular attendance, that our position is daily becoming more acceptably established here. The Parish remained vacant from the period of Rev. Mr. Grammer's resignation, (Jan. 28th, 1861,) until April 1st, 1862, when the present incumbent took charge. The church was never closed however during the whole interim. When supplies could not be obtained, the services of an indefatigable and earnest layman were cheerfully tendered, not only at stated Sunday occasions of worship, but also at weekly lectures and special extraordinary periods appointed. The prosperity of the Sunday School is owing in a great measure to his faithful labors. The present aspect of the parish is very encouraging. With a beautiful and commodious house of worship, a congregation warmly attached to the church of their affections, planted in an enterprising and prosperous community, under God spiritual increase may certainly be expected. I officiate statedly twice on Sunday, besides visiting the two sessions of the Sunday School. In addition, I have a lecture on Thursday evening, a meeting for communicants once a month, and anticipate the formation of a congregational Bible class early in the fall. I acknowledge with gratitude many deeds of kindness manifested on the part of the congregation towards myself and family since my connection with the parish.

I have no material change to report in the condition of this church for the year past. The usual number of services has been held, the congregation being generally large, and rather increasing. The Sunday School, which had been discontinued for a while, was re-opened some months ago with encouraging numbers both of teachers and scholars; and is in fact now larger than it has ever been.

My connection with this church is now terminated, I may add, with mutual reluctance on the part of the Minister and congregation. But my increasing engagements near home, and the distance of my residence from Milford, prevented that attention to the parish,

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir :

I entered upon my duties as Missionary to the four churches under my care, Sept. 8th, 1861. The services have been regularly held, and the congregations generally encouraging. There has been a growing interest apparent in the services at both St. George's and the Chapel of the Comforter. The cottage lectures have been especially well attended, of which there have been two every fortnight, on consecutive evenings. I trust there is the beginning of better things to come.

Public Services—on Sundays, 14; on other days, 10.

The parish is out of debt. Our services are well attended. Prospects rather hopeful and cheering. Our Sunday School is rapidly improving. The teachers are earnest and faithful workers, and we expect much good from their labors. May the quickening influences of the Holy Ghost accompany all our efforts to advance the kingdom of our adorable Redeemer, and to build up the church of the living God.

But few services can be held at the old church, Broad Creek ; and these only during summer. At the present time, this parish has no Sunday School. I am happy to say that an effort will be made shortly to establish one. Our great need is a Superintendent. The Chapel in Laurel is well attended. Many, who are not of us, take great pleasure in our services. We think the church is gradually finding its way in the hearts and affections of the people.

Attendance very good. There are several thinking and talking about confirmation. May divine grace complete the good work already begun.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir:

Since the lamented death of the Rev. G. S. Lewis, I have served the congregation of St. Peter's Church, Lewes, but I have not always been at leisure to afford them sufficient attention. The Rev. J. Rambo, has been so obliging as to give us his assistance at the Communion once. I have sometimes officiated for him. Aware that nothing is gained by pressing men into the Communion of the Church without a change of heart, I have directed their attention to the duty of being, rather than of seeming to be, Christians.

With great respect and regard, yours, &c.,

DAVID MAC ILVAINE.
